

La familia Calvo y su descendencia en Bolivia

Por: Rolando Rivero Lavayén*

Origen: Castellano. El apellido Calvo es muy antiguo, tanto que existen tratadistas que remontan su origen a la época romana haciendo cabeza del linaje al patricio romano Calvo Atendoro. Pero esto es algo que no está probado por lo que dicha versión conviene tomarla con reservas. Nada se dice si el citado patricio radicó en la Península Ibérica donde creó la familia que diera origen al apellido Calvo. Lo que sí se sabe con bastante certeza es que Calvo descende del Conde Laín Calvo, juez de Castilla. Por tanto debe estimarse como apellido castellano.

La extensión de este apellido por España se remonta a la época de la Reconquista, siendo numerosos los caballeros de este apellido que participaron en la lucha contra los invasores árabes, pudiendo encontrarse la citación de los mismos en las crónicas de aquellos tiempos. Sabiendo que se trata de apellido castellano, la labor de investigación consistía en averiguar, si era posible, el lugar de dicha región donde tuvo su inicio.

Si no con absoluta seguridad, pero si con bastantes probabilidades de que sea así, acaso podría citarse la provincia de Burgos, de donde pasó rápidamente a las de Zamora, Palencia y Valladolid para extenderse después al resto del territorio español. (Ref. misapellidos.com)

El Conde Laín Calvo
Juez Supremo de Castilla

Como en muchísimos otros casos, miembros de esta noble familia pasaron a América y aquí nos concentramos en la descendencia que se originó primero en el Virreinato del Perú y luego en la Audiencia de Charcas, o sea la actual ciudad de Sucre, Departamento de Chuquisaca, Bolivia, llamada por entonces la ciudad de La Plata por la cantidad de este metal extraído del Cerro Rico de Potosí que era comercializada en dicha Audiencia de Charcas.

La historia de la República de Bolivia cuenta entre los varios actores de la independencia del país a miembros de la familia Calvo, incluyendo a uno que fue brevemente Presidente de Bolivia, el doctor Don Mariano Enrique Calvo Cuéllar, además de otros inminentes juristas que intervinieron en la elaboración de la primera Constitución Política del Estado de Bolivia.

Dr. D. Mariano Enrique Calvo Cuéllar
Vicepresidente y luego Presidente de Bolivia

Es así mismo apropiado mencionar aquí que esta genealogía se la realiza como un tributo póstumo a nuestro colega y pariente, Don Carlos Calvo Galindo, quien con un grupo de dilectos amigos, refunda el “Instituto Boliviano de Genealogía” el año 1995, que luego al año 2002 se convierte en la ACADEMIA DE CIENCIAS GENEALOGICAS Y HERALDICAS DE BOLIVIA, en momentos cuando Don Carlos contrae una enfermedad que en un tiempo breve causa su sensible fallecimiento.

Habiendo sido el primer Presidente de este ente colegiado, Don Carlos no consideró en momento alguno tratar o presentar la genealogía de su digno apellido, con preeminencia a las de otros. Todo lo contrario, Don Carlos en sus dos términos consecutivos como Presidente de la Academia, dio paso en forma generosa a otros Miembros a realizar sus ponencias sobre sus propios apellidos como una forma de acceder a la membresía de la Academia.

El autor tuvo el honor de acompañar a Don Carlos Calvos en aquellos períodos que le cupo presidir nuestra organización, como su Secretario General, por lo que este trabajo es un tributo a Don Carlos, con la confección de la genealogía de su familia.

Los datos contenidos en este trabajo no fueron investigados o estudiados por el autor en sí. Ellos son el cúmulo de información de trabajos de otros genealogistas tanto de Bolivia como del exterior, siendo el primer y más importante de ellos Don Adolfo de Morales Sánchez. Se conoce que D. Yves de la Goublaye de Menorval, que años después asume la presidencia de nuestra Academia, comenzó a armar un trabajo sobre este importante apellido, pero el mismo quedó pendiente de ser publicado. Los datos de las últimas generaciones no han sido puestos al día, y como cualquier otro trabajo de genealogía, el trabajo lleva una fecha de cierre aproximada al año 2005. Invitamos a los miembros de la familia Calvo a contribuir con cualquier corrección o adición considerada necesaria, contactando al autor por correo electrónico. Lamentamos el uso del idioma inglés en la confección de esta genealogía, la misma que corresponde al programa PAF de la Iglesia Mormona en cual programa el autor viene acumulando datos genealógicos en un lapso de más de 25 años. Mis sinceros agradecimientos a todos cuantos han colaborado con datos para hacer factible esta publicación, a quienes cito en lo posible bajo los nombres de algunos de los miembros de esta familia.

BAUTIZO -

Genealogias Bolivianas - LOS CALVO

En la Iglesia El Sagrario de la ciudad de Lima, Perú, el 20 de marzo de 1625, se celebró el bautismo de Joseph Pérez del Corral, párvulo de un mes de edad (nacido el 20 de febrero de 1625), hijo de Alonso Pérez Del Corral y de Bernardina de Escobar.

Alfonso Pérez del Corral fue Capitán, posiblemente nació en Lima, donde fue Bachiller y Colegial en el Colegio Real de San Martín. En Lima fue Oidor de la Real Audiencia y Asesor General del Virreinato del Duque de la Palata. El Rey de España en fecha 18 de junio de 1658 le designó mediante Real Cédula al Consejo de su Majestad, Oidor y Alcalde de Corte de la Real Audiencia de La Plata.

Se debe resaltar que Joseph Calvo del Corral de la Banda, adopta como apellido principal el de Calvo, que era su apellido materno y no Pérez el paterno, posiblemente porque el primero era de mayor linaje y prestigio. Además que las fechas de su nacimiento coinciden más o menos con el fallo favorable mediante Real Carta Ejecutoria de Limpieza de Sangre que obtiene Francisco Calvo de la Banda de Cazalla de la Sierra ante la Corte de Granada. Inclusive, un "traslado " de dicho fallo es Enviado al Perú en 1646 para el sobrino Joseph de dicho Francisco y es ahora propiedad de la familia de D. Carlos Calvo Galindo en La Paz. De no haberse dado este cambio de apellido materno reemplazando al paterno, el apellido de los Calvo en Perú y Bolivia sería Pérez del Corral.

José married Francisca de la Torre y Zegarra daughter of Juan (iii) de la Torre y Cárdenas and Leonor Zegarra Valverde in La Plata, Chuquisaca. Francisca was born in Arequipa, Perú. She was christened in Arequipa, Perú.

Doña Francisca era descendiente de las primeras familias fundadoras del Perú que llegaron a Arequipa. Datos de sus descendientes obtenidos de su testamento otorgado en Lima ante el Escribano Francisco de Narbasta el 2 de abril de 1701 e informados por don Alberto Rosas-Siles del I.P.I.G.

José and Francisca had the following children:

- 15 M i. José Francisco Calvo de la Torre (i) was born and christened in Los Reyes (Lima), Perú.

- 16 M ii. Lic. Juan Calvo de la Torre (i) was born in Los Reyes (Lima), Perú. He was christened in Los Reyes (Lima), Perú. He died about 1685. He married in Los Reyes (Lima) Manuela de León y Rojas.

Del Consejo de S.M. Oidor de la Real Audiencia de Santiago en el Reino de Chile. En un documento encontrado en el Internet, existe una declaración que D. Juan del Corral de la Torre era natural de la ciudad de La Plata, hijo de José del Corral Calvo de la Banda, Oidor de las Reales Audiencias de Santa Fe, Charcas y Lima, que murió tan pobre en esa ciudad en 3 de marzo de 1685, dejando mujer y ocho hijos, que sus funerales se costearon de limosna, y de Francisca Antonia de la Torre y Zegarra.

Cursante primero de la Academia de Lima, se recibió de abogado en el Colegio Mayor de Derecho de Indias, estudiante sobresaliente, para obtener cátedras de 9.- Roberto Querejazu Calvo en su libro "Chuquisaca 1539 - 1825", señala que, el rey Carlos III, luego de rehabilitar la memoria de Jose Miguel de Antequera, otorgó a sus familiares compensaciones por el daño causado, y "otorgó a su sobrino Juan de Dios Calvo y Antequera, nacido en el Cuzco, educado en el Colegio San Juan Bautista de Chuquisaca y graduado de doctor y abogado en la Universidad de San Francisco Xavier, el cargo de oidor de la Audiencia de Charcas y a su hermano Juan un canonicato en la catedral del Cuzco. Eran nietos del doctor Joseph del Corral Calvo de la Banda, que fue oidor de Charcas (1659 - 1678) y luego de Lima. Al morir el oidor Juan de Dios Calvo y Antequera en 1801, después de haber servido en su puesto 20 años, dejó cuatro tiernos hijos, tres varones y una niña, huérfanos y en precaria situación económica. Su esposa había fallecido un año antes. El Rey les acordó hasta su mayoría una pensión de 300 pesos anuales a cada uno. El que más se distinguió fue Mariano Enrique Calvo, que llegó a ser Vice Presidente de Bolivia y Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores durante el gobierno del Mariscal Andrés de Santa Cruz y la Confederación Perú - Boliviana".

Enrique había ocupado el mismo cargo en los cabildos revolucionarios de 1813 y 1815. Ya instaurada la República, se destacó como colaborador del Mariscal Santa Cruz.

Ocupó los cargos de Ministro del Interior y de Relaciones Exteriores (1829); fue Vice presidente de la República y Presidente del Estado Boliviano en la época de la Confederación Perú-Boliviana. Fue el Vicepresidente que ocupó por más tiempo (casi dos años y medio) la presidencia interina del país en reemplazo del Presidente, al hallarse Santa Cruz en territorio peruano en el proceso de formación primero y en el protectorado de la Confederación Perú-Boliviana después. Presidió el congreso de Tapacarí (1836), que aprobó el Gobierno de la "Restauración" (11 de junio) y asumió la Presidencia de la República de Bolivia (del 9 de julio al 27 de septiembre de 1841) invocando la legalidad del gobierno depuesto de Santa Cruz del que había formado parte. Poco o nada es lo que pudo hacer en tan poco tiempo y en situación de gobierno tan precaria. Fue derrocado por Ballivián. Poco después murió en Cochabamba el 29 de julio de 1842.

de leyes, por el cual se dice que iusprudencia fue guiado por el en ese entonces como uno de los internacionalistas en Bolivia.

En 1909, el gobierno liberal del Presidente Montes, le había designado Encargado de Negocios y Secretario de la Legación boliviana ante el Gobierno de Chile, a partir de entonces se dedica a la vida diplomática y política. En esta última instancia defendió a ultranza los ideales del liberalismo.

A su retorno de Chile, allá por los albores de 1912, se presenta como candidato a Diputado en las Elecciones Generales en la que es elegido Diputado Representante por Sucre. En esa condición en el Parlamento dejó entrever sus dotes de estadista y orador, hasta ese entonces era conocido como un distinguido profesor de Derecho; pero, sus efusivos discursos que contenían amplios y profundos estudios en materia de legislación nacional, y además de su sobresaliente actuación parlamentaria le dieron gran prestigio, por lo que habrían de nombrarle Consejero en las más importantes decisión en cuanto al manejo de asuntos de Estado.

En la administración de los presidentes Villazón y Montes, formó parte del Poder Ejecutivo, cuando le designan Ministro de Instrucción Pública y de Agricultura (funciones que ejerció desde el 21 de septiembre de 1912 hasta el 7 de agosto de 1914), correspondiendo a esa época un positivo progreso en los logros de la enseñanza, con el desarrollo de la misión pedagógica belga, instancia a la que prestó un amplio y decidido apoyo-

En las legislaturas de 1914, 1918 Y 1919, llegó a desempeñar la Presidencia de la Cámara de Diputados. En este tiempo se ausentó por unos días a Buenos Aires para representar a Bolivia en el Congreso Financiero.

Después de la revolución de 1920 el liberalismo quedó al margen del poder. En esas circunstancias su labor de jurisconsulto e interprete de las leyes, le habrían encomendado defender los intereses de grandes empresas industriales establecidas en ese entonces en Bolivia.

Desde comienzos del siglo XIX hasta después de la Guerra del Chaco, capitaneó un grupo de la oligarquía liberal para permitirle con ayuda de los burócratas y de las clases medias - tácitamente aliados-, mantenerse en el poder, con excepción de breves intervalos.

Durante la Junta Militar de 1930, formó parte del Gobierno transitorio como uno de los políticos más importantes, desempeñando la tarea de Asesor Jurídico del Ministerio de Gobierno.

Embajador Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario de Bolivia ante los gobiernos de la Argentina y del Brasil (1934 y 1935); continuando con su labor diplomática asistió como delegado de Bolivia a la Conferencia de Paz del Chaco, que se realizó en Buenos Aires el año 1935.

He was christened on 28 May 1907 in Cochabamba, Bolivia. He died on 24 Aug 1971 in Cochabamba, Bolivia. He was buried on 25 Aug 1971 in Cochabamba, Bolivia.

El día martes 28 de Mayo del año 1.907, nace en Cochabamba Bolivia, José Antonio de los Sagrados Corazones de Jesús y de María, hijo de Roberto Suárez Urioste (de algo más de 43 años de edad) y Manuela Calvo Ondarza (de 42 años de edad), 6 años después del nacimiento y muerte (1 de enero de 1902) prematura de su único hermano: Roberto. Motivo por el cual se criará como hijo único, mimado y engreído por sus padres y abuela que lo consentía en sus travesuras y picardías, hasta el extremo de dejarlo entrar en su dormitorio guiando un carrito tirado por un chivo, al cual luego le hacía un corralito con las almohadas de la abuela Encarnación. Pepito, como lo llamaban, creció y se educó en los colegios Sucre y Bolívar de Cochabamba, siendo un joven muy apuesto aunque un poco gordito pero muy guapo. A sus 20 años, por motivo del traslado de su padre que era Gerente del Banco Nacional en Cochabamba, a Sucre (14 de abril de 1928), llegó con sus padres y radicó en esta ciudad por el resto de su vida. Vivió rodeado de sus primas Agar y Adrianita (Reyes), bastante mayores y de sus primos Roberto, Ovicho, Esther, Enrique, Lucho, María Luisa y Chela los contemporáneos. Siempre estuvo ligado a toda la familia con lazos fuertes de gran afecto. Su primer trabajo fue en el Banco Nacional donde aprendió contabilidad y números, siguiendo la tradición familiar. Recién llegado de Cochabamba, un cupido travieso con su flecha le dio en el corazón y se enamoró de la que fue su amor y la compañera de su vida: María Teresa Medeiros Querejazu. Los pasacalles y flirteos eran de la calle Azurduy a la Nicolás Ortiz, también en la Plaza 25 de Mayo y en el Parque Bolívar en el Rosedal, a bordo de un flamante automóvil Essex, primero en aquellos tiempos. Hubo también un gato emisario que aparecía en la casa de la enamorada "casualmente" cuando el galán estaba cerca. En el año 1932, cuando estalló la Guerra del Chaco, acudió al llamamiento militar y se alistó para ir al frente al igual que todos sus amigos. Fue destinado al Regimiento Tren como jefe de columna para manejar camiones. Había que oírlo contar las penurias que pasaron con el calor extremo en Villamontes, mosquitos, los pajonales inhóspitos chaqueños y esas cargas de heridos gimientes cuando no muertos que tenía que trasladar hasta los centros sanitarios. Su padre enfermó y murió (21/01/1934) antes de terminar la guerra y él tuvo que tramitar su licenciamiento para confortar a su madre. La novia lo estaba esperando, sufriendo su ausencia, así es que se casaron el 4 de enero de 1936. Formaron un lindo hogar que fue bendecido con tres hijos: Amalia nacida en 1937, Roberto en 1941 y José Carlos (Pepito) en 1950. Fue un autodidacta, muy aficionado a las herramientas, experimentos varios y sobre todo a la electricidad. Tenía bellos y costosos libros con lo último y más moderna tecnología e n los que estudiaba y aprendía, tenía gran habilidad en lo referente a instalaciones de equipos dentales, de rayos X y similares. No había dentista o médico que no lo llamara para que le instale su equipo; nunca cobraba por sus trabajos, lo hacía como hobby. En una oportunidad las tres personas que conocían la clave de la caja fuerte de la Universidad estaban ausentes y urgía abrir dicha caja para buscar unos documentos muy importantes; llamaron a Dn. Pepe y él con mucha calma, pidió que lo dejaran solo con la caja, estuvo un buen rato, como si fuera un avezado ladrón escuchando cada vuelta de la chapa hasta que la abrió; fue sorprendente para todos; le exigieron que cobrara por su tiempo y trabajo; con lo que le pagaron llegó a la casa con una tremenda caja de chocolates finos. Era muy aficionado a las golosinas de primera, para su cumpleaños la torta que se antojaba la compartía con la familia y lo que sobraba lo guardaba en su armario y se lo comía solo. En su taller que fue famoso, siempre tenía una repisa donde guardaba sus golosinas: conservas de lo mejor, mariscos, pescados, jamones, patès y variedad de galletas, turrone, chocolates y marshmelos. Se cuenta que cuando vivía en el Banco con sus padres, hizo en su cuarto una instalación, era una calavera sobre la mesa que cuando se encendía el interruptor de la luz, simultáneamente se encendían los ojos de la calavera. A propósito de su taller que siempre tuvo uno donde vivía, el mejor y más completo fue el de la casa grande de la (calle) Nicolás Ortiz: tenía un tablero eléctrico lleno de botones, luces e interruptores para diversas funciones, parecía el tablero gigante de un avión. Además en herramientas tenía maravillas: destornilladores de grande a chiquito unos 20, otro tanto en martillos, tenazas, serruchos y llaves inglesas, fuera de un torno eléctrico en el que hacía ceniceros de pistones de motor. Torneaba mil cosas, todas por entretenimiento; también tenía caudín, esmeril y soldador autógeno, con lo que deshizo la base de una jarrita que tenía un pequeño agujero y por soldarlo se le hizo más y más grande acabando así la base de la jarrita de fierro enlozado. Otra anécdota del taller: su hijo Roberto que era su ayudante desde muy chico, una tarde entró al taller y entre las cosas que hurgaba agarró el caudín eléctrico que estaba prendido y caliente, y se quemó feamente la palma de la mano. Otro detalle impresionante del taller era un mueblecito de cajones angostos con divisiones donde estaban bien clasificados por medidas y tamaños: clavos, tornillos, tuercas, arandelas, etc. Lo que se estropeaba en la casa, tenía pronto arreglo con sus hábiles manos. Su primo Joaquín López, con el que vivió más, era como su hermano menor, estudiaba medicina y debía hacer experimentos con ratones blancos. Dn. Pepe le criaba los ratones. Tuvo también una jaula con 60 canarios bellos que criaba y atendía. Una vez los canarios tuvieron piojos, alguien le había recetado untarlos con manteca, pero se olvidó el detalle de que a cierta hora el sol daba de lleno a la jaula; cuando volvió a ver, los pajaritos estaban todos fritos patas arriba. Trabajó en la Fábrica Churuquella, de propiedad de su suegro Dn. Gustavo Medeiros, que era una curtiembre y también zapatería. Unos años antes Martín que era el hombre orquesta de la Churuquella tuvo un accidente y se sacó tres dedos de una mano al mover la polea de un fulón para hacerlo trabajar. Al poco tiempo a Dn. Pepe le ocurrió lo mismo con la polea que por suerte solo le dislocó los dedos. Tuvo gran serenidad al llegarse a la clínica San Francisco en busca de ayuda, con los dedos volcados hacia atrás y con un dolor terrible. Fue Gerente de la Empresa de Luz y Fuerza, cuando había las plantas hidroeléctricas de Duraznillo y Thullma, luego instaló el primer motor a diesel que generaba luz y fuerza. Una anécdota a propósito: el año 1948 hubo en Sucre un terremoto cuando sufrieron destrozados iglesias y edificios; pasado el susto, él dejó a su esposa e hijos muy asustados y se fue a comprobar que todas las cuchillas estuviesen bajas para evitar cualquier incendio en la ciudad. También trabajó en la Empresa de Teléfonos Automáticos, fue el primer Gerente de la Institución, cuando se comenzó con la instalación de las primeras 500 líneas automáticas. Lo curioso era que sabía de memoria a quién pertenecía cada número telefónico de los 500 abonados. Como testimonio de esta época queda en el edificio de Teléfonos Automáticos un mural pintado por los hermanos Imaná, donde junto a los inventores del teléfono están Dn. Pepe y Dn. Juan Landívar como los pioneros del adelanto de las comunicaciones. La radio "Serval" fue otro de sus trabajos, se instaló una red nacional de comunicaciones con la Central en Cochabamba (de los Moreno Taillac), él fue Agente Regional en Sucre, desde sus comienzos hasta el final, cuando las comunicaciones fueron más modernas y sofisticadas. Era la época en la que los interesados en comunicarse con otras ciudades, tenían que ir a la oficina para hablar por radio. Posteriormente, con la instalación de los teléfonos automáticos ya se podía hablar de teléfono a teléfono pero siempre por intermedio del operador. Fue también radio-aficionado, de los primeros en Sucre, su característica era CP2BC, se comunicaba tanto al interior como al exterior del país, tenía amigos radio-aficionados que le enviaban tarjetas y postales, dominaba el idioma que usan ellos para determinadas palabras como el QTH, la primerísima, los cristalinos, etc.; prestaba grandes servicios en casos de emergencia, enfermedades u otros; se pasaba tardes y noches comunicándose con el mundo. Esta afición le valió un gran susto; hubo una revolución en el país y lo denunciaron como si su radio sirviera de nexo a los revoltosos como radio clandestina, allanaron la casa, lo detuvieron y se llevaron los cristales, sin los que la radio no podía funcionar, el individuo que se los llevó le dijo: "si la revolución triunfa yo en persona se los devuelvo si no, le llegarán de todos modos". Y así fue, un día cualquiera llegó a su casa un paquetito con los famosos cristales, este incidente sirvió para que él deje la radio-afición para siempre. Don Pepe tenía un carácter manso y taciturno pero con grandes chispazos de picardía y buen humor, le gustaban los chistes, era de tomar el pelo, recto y firme pero sensible y emotivo, no le gustaba la vida social; prefería las tardes en su taller o retraerse en los solitarios y rompe-cabezas gigantes en su escritorio, escuchando bella música de sus variados discos de las mejores orquestas y conjuntos que poseía. Su fervor cristiano católico y su rigurosa moral hicieron que Dn. Pepe prestara grandes servicios a la Iglesia, fue gran amigo del Cardenal Maurer. Dedicó bastante tiempo a la instalación eléctrica del templo de La Merced, su parroquia. Cada Jueves Santo iluminaba el Altar del Santísimo con sus mejores reflectores. Todo esto le valió la condecoración que el Cardenal le impusiera a nombre del Vaticano como "Caballero de la Orden de San Silvestre" junto a su amigo Alfredo Costa que compartió igual distinción. Se enfermó muy joven, sufrió una larga enfermedad que lo limitó muy temprano, a los 64 años de edad estaba cansado y agotado. Murió el 24 de Agosto de 1971. Esta semblanza de lo que fue mi padre, está escrita con mucho amor para que sus nietos, bisnietos y los que vendrán de tan recio tronco, sepan que su antepasado fue un honorable hombre de bien que se adelantó a su época. Sus padrinos de Bautismo fueron don José Gutiérrez Guerra y doña Encarnación Urioste viuda de Suárez. Yotalilla, 17 de julio de 2002. (Hermosa semblanza de Da. Amalia Suárez de Moreira que la transcribimos en su integridad.)

Mensaje de una de sus nietas:

"Querido Rolito, realmente que gusto poder contactarme contigo. A mi siempre me ha interesado todo lo de mi familia, y creo que se bastante, he leído todos los documentos de mi abuelo que mi papá recolectó y están en 80 archivos que los tiene mi hermano. La de mi abuelo es una historia muy interesante y a la vez muy triste, porque como debes saber murió en la pobreza más grande y fue enterrado gracias a la colecta que hicieron los residentes bolivianos en Antofagasta. Nunca se pudo recuperar el cadáver de mi abuelo para enterrarlo en Bolivia. Les mando un beso con todo cariño.

El mensaje con noticias de su muerte, fue recibido como sigue:

"Acaba de morir la "abuelay" como nos hacía llamar a su familia ampliada. Era una mujer encantadora, me llamó siempre "nietoy", tenía 89 años. Así- se termina una generación. Doña Aida Galindo Quiroga de Calvo era prima hermana de Lola Quiroga Tardí-o de Rojas, (la madre de mi suegro) pero tenía más de 20 años de diferencia. Doña Lola era la "abuelay" de esta familia y cuando falleció en 1973, fue Aidita quien tomó el relevo en el título". Juan (José Leñero) (R. Rivero L.)

Nació en Sucre. Escuela y colegio en la misma ciudad. Estudios de leyes en la Universidad de San Francisco Xavier hasta obtener el título de abogado. Siguió la carrera diplomática ingresando mediante examen de competencia al Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores. Recorrió todo el escalafón del mismo desde el cargo de auxiliar hasta el de Subsecretario. Desempeñó responsabilidades de importancia en las misiones de Bolivia en el Brasil y las Naciones Unidas. Fue Embajador en la Gran Bretaña y Holanda. Representó al país en varias conferencias internacionales. Por su importante contribución a la historiografía nacional, el eminente escritor Walter Montenegro lo ha calificado como "autor de algunos de los mas valiosos libros de historia producidos en Bolivia".

Ha escrito: "Masamaclay" (Historia de la Guerra del Chaco) <bolivialibrosreviewsm.html>, "Guano, Salitre, Sangre", "Llallagua" (Historia de la minería del estaño), "Bolivia y los Ingleses" (Historia de las relaciones entre Bolivia e Inglaterra), "La Guerra del Pacifico" (Sintesis de "Guano, salitre, Sangre"), "Historia de la Guerra del Chaco" <bolivialibrosreviewsh.html> (Sintesis de Masamaclay), "Guerras del Pacifico y del Chaco", "Adolfo Costa du Rels, el hombre, el diplomático, el escritor" y otros. Una descripción de sus mas conocidas obras, es como sigue:

- Historia de Bolivia | - Para este autor, no es fácil escribir la historia de Bolivia, porque es trágica y triste. "Pocos son los episodios que pueden levantar el ánimo del historiador. En general son sucesos dolorosos", afirma el historiador, ganador del Premio Nacional de Cultura de 2000. En su obra, Querejazu Calvo hace un análisis imparcial y desapasionado de los hechos que marcaron la vida del país. Además de la enumeración cronológica de sucesos, Calvo analiza, en base a documentación y experiencia como diplomático, los motivos que llevaron al país a tantas pérdidas que signan su historia.

- Chile, enemigo de Bolivia | - Antes, durante y después de la Guerra del Pacífico, es el título del libro en que el historiador resume su extensa obra Guano, salitre y sangre, publicada en 1979. Bolivianos y chilenos la consideran como uno de los relatos más imparciales y mejor escritos sobre el conflicto bélico que nos privó del Litoral. Mapas, cartas y documentación histórica matizan la obra que recorre los conflictos antes, durante y después de la Guerra del Pacífico.

- La Guerra del Chaco | - Este volumen es un modesto homenaje a los caídos en esa conflagración y a los mutilados, heridos y excombatientes. Querejazu formó de los miles de bolivianos que fueron al Chaco a defender la patria. Al volver de la guerra fue que comenzó su interés por la historia. Quería demostrar a todos los bolivianos que no fue culpa de los soldados la pérdida de la contienda, sino de la pésima administración de los líderes civiles y militares. Mapas, fotografías y documentos secundan y fundamentan esa tesis en una publicación fundamental.

- Che Guevara, Quijote de Ñancaguasu | - Con este título, Querejazu resume la derrota de Ernesto Che Guevara en Bolivia. El historiador la ve como una aventura quijotesca, destinada al fracaso por la enorme asimetría entre las fuerzas del guerrillero argentino-cubano y las tropas bolivianas.

BUSTAMANTE (Carmen Sánchez Bustamante Calvo, Carmen Calvo Molina (i), Nemesio (i) Calvo Gómez, Mariano José Calvo Cuéllar, Juan de Dios Calvo de la Banda y Antequera, Pedro Calvo de la Banda y del Corral, Francisco Calvo de la Banda y Carrillo, Simón Fernández Calvo y Albis, Francisco Fernández Calvo y Bonilla, Alonso, Juan) was born on 1 Jul 1930 in La Paz, Bolivia. He was christened in 1930 in La Paz, Bolivia.

Gonzalo Sánchez de Lozada y Sánchez Bustamante (1930), político y empresario boliviano. Presidente de Bolivia en dos ocasiones (1993-1997; 2002-2003). Fue un estrecho colaborador del ex-presidente Víctor Paz Estenssoro del cual fue Ministro de Planeamiento y Coordinación en su último período de gobierno (1985-1989). Perteneciente al Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario (MNR), partido precursor de la revolución nacionalista de 1952, que incluyó medidas como la reforma agraria, el sufragio universal, la reforma educativa, la nacionalización de las minas y, entre la mitad de la década de los '80 y toda la década de los '90, gestor de la política económica neoliberal en Bolivia. Gonzalo Sánchez de Lozada, popularmente conocido como "Goni", nació en Cochabamba, el 1 de julio de 1930. Su abuelo materno fue Daniel Sánchez Bustamante, fundador a comienzos del siglo XX de las primeras escuelas fiscales y la primera escuela normal de formación de maestros, por lo que luego fue proclamado "Maestro de la Juventud Boliviana" a su muerte en 1933. Hijo de Enrique Sánchez de Lozada, transcurrió parte de su niñez y juventud en los Estados Unidos, por ser su padre primero diplomático en Washington DC (1931-1936) y luego exiliado durante 16 años (1936-1952), por su militancia en el MNR. Por esta razón, Goni domina a la perfección el idioma inglés, incluso más que el español.

Estudió Filosofía y Letras en la Universidad de Chicago y luego retornó a Bolivia donde se inició en el mundo empresarial como productor de cine con la empresa Telecine. Posteriormente entró en el negocio extractivo con una empresa de servicios petroleros, para luego pasar a la minería creando la empresa privada más importante del rubro: la Compañía Minera del Sur (COMSUR), explotadora y comercializadora de minerales en canteras del altiplano boliviano, amasando una de las más grandes, sino la más grande fortuna de Bolivia.

Afiliado desde 1951 al Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario, ingresó en el mundo de la política en 1979 como diputado por Cochabamba. Luego fue electo senador por este partido y Presidente del Senado Nacional (1985-1986) por muy poco tiempo, porque fue llamado a ocupar el cargo de Ministro de Planeamiento y Coordinación, cartera encargada de las materias macroeconómicas y financieras del gobierno. En agosto de 1986 fue el encargado de aplicar la terapia de shock para frenar la galopante hiperinflación (del orden del 27.000%), que azotaba al país, mediante el famoso Decreto Supremo 21060. La política económica aplicada frenó la inflación y contribuyó a arreglar las cuentas del estado, a costa, sin embargo, de extensos despidos en el sector minero ("relocalización") y recortes a programas sociales. Esta "receta" económica neoliberal, fue exportada a otros países de América por su probado éxito en materia inflacionaria.

En las elecciones presidenciales de 1989 ganó la nominación interna de su partido para ser el candidato a la Presidencia de la República. Ya como candidato decidió romper el "Pacto por la Democracia" con su entonces aliado político, el ex-dictador, Hugo Banzer Suárez, Jefe Nacional de la derechista Acción Democrática Nacionalista (ADN). Banzer debía recibir el apoyo del MNR a cambio del apoyo que brindó el partido de Banzer, desde el Congreso, a las medidas económicas del gobierno de Víctor Paz Estenssoro. Sánchez de Lozada resultó el candidato más votado de la elección, pero lejos de la mayoría absoluta, por lo que no pudo acceder a la presidencia, ya que Banzer (que quedó en segundo lugar con el 25,2% de votos) decidió dar su apoyo a Jaime Paz Zamora, del Movimiento de Izquierda Revolucionaria (MIR) en el Congreso Nacional, nombrando al tercer candidato más votado, Presidente de la República.

Primera Presidencia 1993-1997

En las elecciones generales celebradas en junio de 1993 se volvió a presentar como candidato por el MNR, obteniendo otra vez el primer lugar con el 35,6% de votos, pero igualmente sin mayoría absoluta. En la votación en el Congreso, Sánchez de Lozada obtuvo la Presidencia con los votos y en alianza con el izquierdista Movimiento Bolivia Libre (MBL), el populista Unión Cívica Solidaridad (UCS) del empresario cervecero Max Fernández Rojas y el partido indigenista Movimiento Revolucionario Tupac Katari de Liberación, (MRTKL), de Víctor Hugo Cárdenas, intelectual indígena que accedía a la Vicepresidencia de la República por primera vez en la historia republicana.

En el ejercicio de su primer mandato que culminaría en 1997, promulgó importantes reformas legislativas y constitucionales como la Ley de Participación Popular, que municipalizó el territorio nacional mediante la creación de más de 300 gobiernos locales, a los que daba por primera vez en Bolivia cierta autonomía y capacidad financiera, además de la creación de los Territorios Comunitarios de Origen (TCO) para pueblos indígenas; la Ley INRA que obligaba a la certificación por parte del estado, a través del Instituto Nacional de Reforma Agraria (INRA), al cumplimiento de la Función Económica y Social de la tierra, entre otras cosas; la Ley Forestal, que incorporaba a indígenas, organizaciones populares y empresarios en la explotación sostenible de los bosques; la Reforma Educativa, que incluía por primera vez el multiculturalismo y el plurilingüismo en la educación oficial boliviana; el Seguro Materno Infantil; y la modernización del Código Penal, entre otras. Entre las reformas constitucionales destacan: la creación del Tribunal Constitucional que vela por la constitucionalidad de leyes, decretos o resoluciones; la creación de las circunscripciones uninominales para la elección directa de diputados; la creación de la figura del Defensor del Pueblo que vela por los derechos humanos y las garantías de las personas; entre otras reformas.

En el aspecto económico el gobierno de Sánchez de Lozada promovió un amplio y polémico programa de reformas, en el que destaca el proceso de Capitalización de empresas públicas, que privatizó el 50% de la empresa de ferrocarriles (ENFE), de petróleo (YPFB), de telecomunicaciones (ENTEL), de electricidad (ENDE) y la línea aérea de bandera (LAB). El otro 50%, que quedó en propiedad del Estado, fue transferido a un Fondo de Capitalización Colectiva (FCC), gestionado por las Administradoras de Fondos de Pensiones (AFP). Todos los bolivianos, residentes en el país, mayores de 21 años al 31 de diciembre de 1995, eran los beneficiarios de dicho fondo. Con las utilidades correspondientes al FCC de las empresas capitalizadas, se pagó, por primera vez en Bolivia, un bono anual a los ancianos mayores de 65 años, llamado Bonosol, aún hoy vigente con algunas modificaciones llevadas a cabo posteriormente, primero por el segundo gobierno de Hugo Banzer (1997-2001) (Bolivida) y luego en 2008 por el gobierno de Evo Morales -) (Renta Dignidad).

Después de transcurridos algunos años de la puesta en marcha del Proceso de Capitalización, las expectativas de la población no fueron colmadas y aún se tiene la percepción de que no fue una real inyección de capital sino simplemente la venta del 50% de las acciones a manos privadas, sin que se hayan cumplido las inversiones comprometidas, ni se haya mejorado los servicios que prestan las nuevas empresas creadas a partir de las antiguas empresas estatales.

Según algunos analistas, uno de los mayores errores políticos de Sánchez de Lozada fue el gradual desmembramiento de la empresa nacional de hidrocarburos YPFB, que aunque fue concluido por gobiernos posteriores y, aunque llevó a importantes inversiones extranjeras, no tomó en cuenta el sentimiento de la gente hacia un emblema nacional, que fue creada inmediatamente después de la finalización de la Guerra del Chaco, para que explote las grandes riquezas hidrocarburíferas que se defendieron en dicha contienda. En 1997 Sánchez de Lozada fue sucedido en la Presidencia por Hugo Banzer Suárez de ADN, quien ganó las elecciones con una pequeña votación pero logró crear una gran coalición con el MIR de Jaime Paz Zamora y otros pequeños partidos populistas.

No hay que olvidar que durante la presidencia de Sánchez de Lozada comienza el proceso de búsqueda en Bolivia de los restos de Ernesto Guevara, el Che, considerado hasta entonces por muchos como el ejecutor de un abortado plan de invasión extranjera. Goni autorizó las excavaciones de un equipo de arqueólogos cubanos-argentinos, en el área de la pista de aviación de Vallegrande, departamento de Santa Cruz, para la búsqueda de los restos del Che y otros guerrilleros, excavaciones que permitieron encontrar el cuerpo del comandante guerrillero para luego ser repatriados a Cuba.

Segunda Presidencia 2002-2003

Gonzalo Sánchez de Lozada, asume la Presidencia de la República de Bolivia al ganar por tercera vez una elección nacional. Como la legislación boliviana exige la mayoría de los votos para ser electo presidente, Sánchez de Lozada y Evo Morales fueron a una segunda vuelta congresal, al ser los dos candidatos más votados. Sánchez de Lozada es electo por una alianza de su partido el MNR, con el MIR (Movimiento de Izquierda Revolucionaria), al que luego se sumaría NFR (Nueva Fuerza Republicana) dividiendo los cargos políticos entre los 3 partidos. Es decir, una cantidad proporcional de ministerios para cada partido político y cuotas de poder para los miembros de la coalición. En febrero del año 2003 ante el desesperante déficit fiscal heredado y ante las imposiciones del Fondo Monetario Internacional (FMI) el gobierno decide aplicar un impuesto al salario (impuestazo), el cual provoca una huelga y amotinamiento policial, que luego derivaría en un enfrentamiento armado con las Fuerzas Armadas en la Plaza Murillo de la ciudad de La Paz, que deja un saldo de más de 20 muertos. El retroceso en la medida logró mantener a Sánchez de Lozada en el poder por unos meses más, pero el desgaste y la pérdida de gobernabilidad se hacía cada vez más evidente. En septiembre y octubre de 2003, ante rumores sobre la intención de exportar gas boliviano por puertos chilenos a la costa oeste de los EE.UU., a México y a Chile, empiezan las movilizaciones sociales en el Altiplano boliviano y en la ciudad de El Alto. El gobierno responde con una fuerte represión militar que deja un saldo de 65 personas muertas y cientos de heridos, lo que provocó la movilización de sectores de clase media, sobretodo paceños, que exigían la renuncia de Sánchez de Lozada. Acosado por estos sectores y ante la pérdida de apoyo de los partidos que formaban la coalición de gobierno (MIR y NFR), el 17 de octubre Sánchez de Lozada renuncia a la Presidencia de la República mediante carta al Congreso Nacional e inmediatamente deja el país. Esa misma noche, el Congreso Nacional, luego de aceptar la renuncia de Sánchez de Lozada, toma el juramento de rigor al Vicepresidente de la República Carlos Mesa. Hoy en día Gonzalo Sanchez de Lozada reside en Washington DC, Estados Unidos. (Datos de Wikipedia en el Internet, 2008 bajados por Rolando Rivero Lavayén).

*Miembro Fundador del Instituto Boliviano de Genealogía desde el 13 de diciembre de 1995 que luego se convierte en la Academia de Ciencias Genealógicas y Heráldicas de Bolivia el año 2002. Desde su ingreso, el autor ha sido Secretario General de ambas instituciones durante tres gestiones del Directorio, siendo más tarde nombrado Vicepresidente y finalmente ocupó interinamente la Presidencia de la Academia, por ausencia del entonces Presidente, D. Álvaro Carranza Urriolagoitia, quien decide dejar el país para residir en los EE.UU. Luego de una corta experiencia, retorna a Bolivia pero no al cargo. Más adelante al contraer el autor una enfermedad, se ve imposibilitado de continuar y el cargo de Presidente es entonces transferido al Dr. Mario Paz Zamora. La naturaleza de la enfermedad se agrava, habiendo por lo tanto necesitado dejar la ciudad de La Paz por su excesiva altura, trasladándose a los EE.UU. donde reside ahora con su señora y sus hijos. El autor continúa activo en sus tareas genealógicas por medio del Internet y la colaboración de varios amables colegas.
