Rye was third in scoring with 35 points followed by Mount Vernon with 30, Mamaroneck 28, Lincoln 17, Port Chester 15, Yonkers 12 and Harrison and Peekskill two each.

Five meet records were brokend during the finals-including three that were bettered in the qualifying trials Friday at the same pool. Betters Own Times

Terry Robinson of Rye, who lowered the meet marks in the 200-yard freestyle and 100-yard butterfly on Friday, cut the standards further in the finals. Robinson, the only public school swimmer to go under 2 minutes in the 200-freestyle broke his own record of 1:58.7 with 1:54.7 Friday and, in the final, won in 1:53.3. He broke Glen Partelow's butterfly record of 57,3 seconds with a 55.1 clocking in the trials and Saturday won in 54.6.
