Preamble

The European Football Championship is a UEFA representative team competition embodied in the UEFA Statutes.

The present regulations govern the rights, duties and responsibilities of all parties participating and involved in the preparation and organisation of the UEFA European Football Championship.

I Representation – Entries – Duties and Obligations

Article 1

Representation

- 1.01 UEFA stages a European Football Championship for senior men's national teams (hereinafter the Competition) every four years. All UEFA member associations are invited to enter their senior men's national team for the Competition.

Entries and entry fees

- 1.02 Only entries submitted to the UEFA Administration within the requested deadline and on the official entry form will be accepted. The entry fee is CHF 300. The UEFA Administration debits this fee directly from the account of the national association concerned.

Duties

- 1.03 On entering the Competition, participating national associations undertake, in particular:
- a) to stage all matches in the Competition in accordance with the present regulations and to field their strongest teams;
 - b) to observe the principles of fair play (see fair play definition in Annexe II);
 - c) to comply with the provisions of the UEFA Binding Safety and Security Instructions and of all other relevant UEFA regulations, guidelines and directives;
 - d) to fulfil their commitments and responsibilities towards the international media;
 - e) to comply with these regulations and in particular the provisions laid out in Chapter XV Exploitation of Commercial Rights and to ensure that each of their respective players, officials and other representatives comply with these regulations and such provisions.

Special conditions for minors

- 1.04 The national associations undertake to ensure that the form Acknowledgment and Agreement (see Annexe III) or a similar document is duly completed and signed for each minor participating in the competition before the beginning of the competition. The forms shall be kept by the national associations and submitted to UEFA upon request.
- 1.05 The national associations undertake to verify in accordance with their respective domestic laws who is considered a minor and what requirements the form has to fulfill to be legally binding (for instance, the signature of a parent or legal guardian of the minor and, if applicable, the signature of the minor).

Friendly matches

- 1.06 The national teams competing in the final tournament are not entitled to play friendly matches in the host countries from three months before the start until one month after the conclusion of the final tournament. This stipulation does not apply to the host associations.
- 1.07 Matches between any two teams that have qualified for the final tournament may not be played within one month of the start of the final tournament. This stipulation also applies to the host associations.
- 1.08 The national associations involved either directly or indirectly in such matches are responsible for any consequences that may arise from the failure to observe the aforementioned regulations.

Intercontinental competitions

- 1.09 The winners of the UEFA European Football Championship undertake to participate in intercontinental competitions arranged by UEFA in conjunction with other confederations. In exceptional cases, for which justification must be provided, the defeated finalist may be enlisted to play these matches.

II Trophy and Medals

Article 2

Trophy

- 2.01 A trophy donated by UEFA is presented to the winning association for four years. The holders are responsible in the event of the loss of or any damage to the trophy, as well as for insuring the trophy, as per the terms of the agreement to be signed between the holders and UEFA. The association must return the trophy to the UEFA Administration in perfect condition at the draw for the next final tournament. UEFA is responsible for engraving the trophy with the name of the winning team. The trophy becomes the permanent property of any association which wins it three consecutive times or five times in total.

- 2.02 If the Competition is discontinued for any reason, the trophy must be returned to UEFA by the holders.

Replicas

- 2.03 A scaled-down replica of the trophy is awarded to the winner of the Competition, which it may keep.
- 2.04 The winner of the Competition may have a copy of the trophy made, provided the copy is clearly marked as a replica and does not exceed 4/5 (four fifths) of the size of the original. No further replicas may be made without the prior written approval of the UEFA Administration.

Commemorative plaque

- 2.05 Each association that competes in the final tournament will receive a commemorative plaque.

Semi-finalist plaque

- 2.06 Each defeated semi-finalist will receive a plaque.

Final plaque

- 2.07 The defeated finalists will receive a plaque.

Medals

- 2.08 34 gold medals are presented to the winning team and 34 silver medals to the runners-up. 34 bronze medals will be awarded to each defeated semi-finalist team. Additional medals may not be produced.

III Organisation – Responsibilities

Article 3

UEFA Organisation

- 3.01 The UEFA Chief Executive (hereafter CEO) is the highest operational management organ. He is responsible for all decisions concerning the present regulations, except for matters concerning control and discipline. The CEO delegates some of his duties to the UEFA Administration or relevant bodies, in accordance with paragraph 3.02 below.
- 3.02 The following bodies are competent for matters related to the Competition.
- a) The National Teams Committee supports the CEO in an advisory capacity on all competition-related matters.
 - b) The Stadium and Security Committee inspects the stadiums chosen for the final tournament. This committee then compiles a written report to the CEO.
 - c) The Referees Committee deals with all refereeing-related matters (Chapter XII).

- d) The Medical Committee is responsible for all medicine-related matters.
 - e) The Anti-Doping Panel is responsible for all anti-doping matters (Article 24).
 - f) The Fair Play and Ethics Panel deals with all matters concerning fair play (Annexe II).
- 3.03 The UEFA Administration manages the Competition according to these regulations.
- 3.04 The disciplinary bodies deal with matters concerning control and discipline in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations, which apply accordingly.
- 3.05 UEFA may delegate Euro 2008 SA to design, promote and manage all projects and activities pertaining to the organisation of the final tournament in accordance with UEFA's specifications and requirements.

UEFA responsibilities

- 3.06 UEFA will create the best possible conditions for the staging of the Competition, covering among other aspects, the promotion, coordination and administration of the Competition, the entry procedure and authorisation to take part, the match system, the Laws of the Game, refereeing, control and disciplinary matters and the exploitation of the Commercial Rights as defined in Chapter XV.

Responsibilities of the associations

- 3.07 The associations are responsible for the behaviour of their players, officials, members, supporters and any person carrying out a function at a match on their behalf.
- 3.08 The national association of the country where the qualifying-competition match or the final tournament is being staged is considered the host association.
- 3.09 The host association is responsible for order and security before, during and after the match. The host association may be called to account for incidents of any kind, and may be disciplined.

IV Insurance

Article 4

General

- 4.01 All persons involved in the qualifying competition and the final tournament are responsible for their own insurance coverage. The associations are responsible for comprehensive insurance coverage of their delegation, including players and officials, at their own expense for the whole duration of the qualifying competition and the final tournament. Claims for damages against UEFA are expressly excluded.

- 4.02 All national associations shall hold harmless UEFA from any and all claims for liability that may arise from or in relation to the staging of the Competition, subject to paragraph 4.05, below.

A. Qualifying competition

- 4.03 Associations hosting matches must conclude all necessary insurance with reputable insurance companies, including but not limited to, third-party liability coverage. The third-party liability policy must include an appropriate guaranteed sum for injury and damage to persons, objects and property, and correspond to the specific circumstances of the associations concerned, fully covering all risks connected with the staging of the home matches (including, without limitation, bad weather and force majeure).
- 4.04 If the host associations are not the owners of the relevant stadiums in which matches are played, they are also responsible for providing a fully comprehensive insurance policy taken out by the relevant stadium owner and/or tenant.

B. Final tournament

- 4.05 The host associations must cover their own risk and all the risks of staging the final tournament as set out in the staging agreement. UEFA will conclude the necessary insurance coverage in accordance with the respective responsibilities of UEFA as set out in the staging agreement.
- 4.06 The host associations are solely responsible for the insurance coverage of the stadiums and of the official tournament sites, and must release UEFA of any liability whatsoever in this respect. A release of liability must be signed and returned to UEFA at least one year before the final tournament. If such an exemption from liability is not presented in due time, the host associations conclude the necessary additional insurance cover at their own cost. If they fail to do so, they agree that it may be concluded by UEFA at the host associations' expense.
- 4.07 Consequently, UEFA is exempt from any claims for liability that may arise from or in relation to the staging of the matches in question.

V Competition System

Article 5

Competition stages

- 5.01 The Competition consists of a qualifying competition and a final tournament.

Article 6

A. Qualifying competition

Group formation

- 6.01 The teams of the host associations for the final tournament, Austria and Switzerland, qualify automatically for the final tournament. The remaining teams will be drawn into 1 group of 8 teams and 6 groups of 7 teams. The groups will be formed with seeded teams by the UEFA Administration, whose decisions are final. The reigning European champions will always be seeded. The other associations will be classified on the basis of results achieved in the qualifying competition of the 2006 FIFA World Cup, as well as their results in the qualifying competition of the 2002/04 UEFA European Football Championship. The total number of points obtained in the qualifying competitions of both of the aforementioned competitions will then be divided by the number of matches played. The resulting quotient is used to determine the rankings. In the case of an association that qualified automatically for the final tournaments of the competitions in question, the coefficient is calculated on the basis of its results in its most recent qualifying competition.
- 6.02 The composition of the groups will be decided by means of a draw after completion of the current World Cup qualifying competition.
- 6.03 If two or more associations have the same coefficient, the following criteria will be applied:
- a) coefficient from the matches played in its most recent qualifying competition,
 - b) average goal difference,
 - c) average number of goals scored,
 - d) average number of away goals scored,
 - e) drawing of lots.

Match system for the qualifying competition

- 6.04 The matches in the qualifying competition will be played in groups according to the league system, with each team playing all opponents in its group in a series of home and away matches. Three points are awarded for a win, one point for a draw, and no points for a defeat.

Equality of points after the group matches

- 6.05 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied to determine the rankings.
- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question.

- b) Superior goal difference from the group matches played among the teams in question.
- c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question.
- d) Higher number of goals scored away from home in the group matches played among the teams in question.
- e) If, after applying criteria a) to d) to several teams, two or more teams still have an equal ranking, the criteria a) to d) will be reapplied to determine the ranking of these teams. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria f) and g) will apply.
- f) Results of all group matches:
 - 1. Superior goal difference
 - 2. Higher number of goals scored
 - 3. Higher number of goals scored away from home
 - 4. Fair play conduct.
- g) Drawing of lots.

Qualification for the final tournament

- 6.06 The seven group winners and seven runners-up qualify directly for the final tournament.

Article 7

B. Final tournament

- 7.01 At the recommendation of the National Teams Committee, the Executive Committee has entrusted the Austrian Football Association (ÖFB) and the Swiss Football Association (SFV) with the joint organisation and staging of the final tournament.

Group formation

- 7.02 The UEFA Administration will divide the 16 teams that qualify for the final tournament into four groups (A, B, C & D) of four teams each.
- 7.03 By means of a draw, the four groups will be formed as follows:

Group A	Group B	Group C	Group D
A1	B1	C1	D1
A2	B2	C2	D2
A3	B3	C3	D3
A4	B4	C4	D4

Coefficients

- 7.04 The seeded teams will be the host associations, with the reigning European champions if they qualify, and one or two teams with the best coefficients on the basis of results achieved in the 2006 FIFA World Cup qualifying competition and/or in the qualifying competition for the 2006/08 UEFA European Football Championship. The other finalists will be assigned to the four groups by means of a draw, according to their coefficients.
- 7.05 If any of the teams in question have the same coefficient on the basis of results achieved in the 2006 FIFA World Cup qualifying competition and in the qualifying competition for the 2006/08 UEFA European Football Championship, the following criteria relating only to the current UEFA European Football Championship qualifying competition will be determinant, in the order given:
- a) coefficient from the matches played,
 - b) average goal difference,
 - c) average number of goals scored,
 - d) average number of away goals scored,
 - e) drawing of lots.

Group match schedule

- 7.06 Each team plays each of the other teams in the same group according to a league system (three points for a win, one point for a draw, no points for a defeat). The group matches will be played according to the following schedule. The last two matches in each group must both kick off at the same time. The first-named team will be considered as the home team.

	Match day 1	Match day 2	Match day 3
Group A	A1 vs A2 A3 vs A4	A2 vs A3 A1 vs A4	A4 vs A2 A1 vs A3
Group B	B1 vs B2 B3 vs B4	B2 vs B3 B1 vs B4	B4 vs B2 B1 vs B3
Group C	C1 vs C2 C3 vs C4	C2 vs C3 C1 vs C4	C4 vs C2 C1 vs C3
Group D	D1 vs D2 D3 vs D4	D2 vs D3 D1 vs D4	D4 vs D2 D1 vs D3

Equality of points after the group matches

- 7.07 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of all the matches in their group, the following criteria will be used to determine the rankings in the order given:
- a) number of points obtained in the matches among the teams in question;
 - b) goal difference in the matches among the teams in question;
 - c) number of goals scored in the matches among the teams in question (if more than two teams finish equal on points);
 - d) goal difference in all the group matches;
 - e) number of goals scored in all the group matches;
 - f) coefficient from the qualifying competitions for the 2006 FIFA World Cup and 2006/08 UEFA European Football Championship (points obtained divided by the number of matches played);
 - g) fair play conduct of the teams (final tournament);
 - h) drawing of lots.
- 7.08 If two teams which have the same number of points, the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, the ranking of the two teams in question will be determined by kicks from the penalty mark, provided no other teams within the group have the same number of points on completion of all group matches. Should more than two teams have the same number of points, the criteria listed under paragraph 7.07 a) to h) will apply.

Quarter-finals

- 7.09 The winners and runners-up in each group play the quarter-finals over one match, as follows:
- | | |
|---------|-------------------------------------|
| Match 1 | Winner Group A vs Runner-up Group B |
| Match 2 | Winner Group B vs Runner-up Group A |
| Match 3 | Winner Group C vs Runner-up Group D |
| Match 4 | Winner Group D vs Runner-up Group C |

Semi-finals

- 7.10 The four winners of the quarter-finals play the semi-finals over one match, as follows:
- Winner Match 1 vs Winner Match 2
Winner Match 3 vs Winner Match 4

Final

- 7.11 The winners of the semi-finals play in the final.

Same number of goals in a quarter-final, semi-final or the final

- 7.12 If the result stands as a draw at the end of normal playing time, extra time of two periods of 15 minutes shall be played. If the two teams are still equal after extra time, the winners shall be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 15).

VI Refusal to play and similar cases

Article 8

- 8.01 In the case of an association's refusal to play or if, through the fault of an association, a match cannot take place or cannot be played in full, the Control and Disciplinary Body will take a decision in the matter. The disciplinary measure(s) to be imposed, notably forfeit and/or disqualification from the Competition, will be determined by the Control and Disciplinary Body.
- 8.02 Exceptionally, the Control and Disciplinary Body can validate the result as it stood at the moment when the match was abandoned if the match result was to the detriment of the team of the association responsible for the match being abandoned.
- 8.03 If a team is disqualified during the qualifying competition matches or at the final tournament, the results of all of its matches will be declared null and void, and the points awarded forfeited.
- 8.04 If a team refuses to play during the final tournament, the UEFA Administration is empowered to decide on a possible replacement. In selecting a replacement association, the UEFA Administration will consider the results achieved by the associations eliminated previously. The UEFA Administration's decision is final.
- 8.05 If a team that qualifies for the final tournament is unable to compete for reasons of force majeure, UEFA will decide whether another team may qualify in its place.
- 8.06 Upon receipt of a justified and well-documented request from the association concerned, the UEFA Administration may set an amount of compensation due for financial loss.

VII Match dates, venues and kick-off times

Article 9

- 9.01 The Competition will be staged over the two seasons that follow the 2006 FIFA World Cup.

A. Qualifying competition

Match dates

9.02 The following 14 dates are reserved for matches in the qualifying competition of the 2006/08 UEFA European Football Championship:

2006

- a) 02/03 September 2006
- b) 05/06 September 2006
- c) 07/08 October 2006
- d) 10/11 October 2006

2007

- e) 24/25 March 2007
- f) 27/28 March 2007
- g) 02/03 June 2007
- h) 04/05 June 2007
- i) 08/09 September 2007
- j) 11/12 September 2007
- k) 13/14 October 2007
- l) 16/17 October 2007
- m) 17/18 November 2007
- n) 20/21 November 2007

9.03 If both associations concerned are in agreement, matches may be played on other dates, but it must be noted that the principles governing the release of players for association teams as laid out in Annex 1, Article 1 of the FIFA Regulations for the Status and Transfer of Players will apply. The associations in a group have 90 days after the draw in which to agree on the order of their matches. The exact date of each match must be specified (e.g. Saturday 2 September 2006). If the associations in question are unable to reach agreement, the matches will take place according to a standard fixture list drawn up by the UEFA Administration. For reasons of sporting fairness, the UEFA Administration is entitled to order matches within a group to be played at the same time. Any subsequent changes of date are subject to the approval of the UEFA Administration. The host association of a match must, in this case, also inform the other associations in the group.

Venues and kick-off times

9.04 The venues of the matches will be fixed by the host associations and announced to their opponents and the UEFA Administration at least two months in advance. When fixing a venue, the host association must take into account the length of the journey to be undertaken by the visiting association. In principle, the venue for a qualifying match must be no more than 100km from the nearest international airport. The kick-off times must be announced to the UEFA Administration at least 30 days before the match.

Arrival of the teams at the match venue

- 9.05 The associations must arrange for their teams to arrive at the match venue early enough in order to be able to hold their pre-match press conference before the media deadlines of both involved countries and in any case no later than 24 hours before kick-off.

B. Final tournament

Match dates

- 9.06 The final tournament will take place from 7 June to 29 June 2008.

Venues and kick-off times

- 9.07 The UEFA Administration is responsible for drawing up the fixture list for the final tournament. Each team must have at least 48 rest hours between each match played.

Arrival of the teams in host countries

- 9.08 Each association taking part in the final tournament must arrive at their team hotel in one of the host countries at least five days before their first match.

Arrival of the teams at the match venue

- 9.09 The teams must arrive at their transfer hotel or be within a 120km radius of the stadium where their match is to be played no later than 24 hours before kick-off.

Training grounds

- 9.10 UEFA will offer associations a number of pre-selected training grounds. Should any associations choose a training ground other than those which have been pre-selected, then they shall bear any additional costs incurred.
- 9.11 In any case, any and all training grounds used by associations will be referred to as "official" from five days before the first match of the final tournament and the provisions laid out in paragraph 28.10 will apply.

VIII Stadiums and Match Organisation

Article 10

Retractable roofs

- 10.01 Before the match, the UEFA delegate, in consultation with the referee, decides whether a stadium's retractable roof will be open or closed during the match. This decision must be announced at the match-day organisational meeting, although it may subsequently be altered at any time prior to kick-off if the weather conditions change, again in consultation with the referee.

- 10.02 If the match starts with the roof closed, it must remain closed for the entire match. If the match starts with the roof open, only the referee has the authority to order its closure during the match subject to any applicable laws issued by a competent state authority. Such a decision may only be taken if the weather conditions seriously deteriorate. If the referee does order the closure of the roof during the match, it must remain closed until the final whistle.

Floodlights

- 10.03 Matches may be played in daylight or under floodlights. For matches where floodlighting is required, for both the qualifying competition and final tournament, the light average must correspond to Ev (lux) 1400 towards the main camera(s) and Ev (lux) 1000 towards areas of secondary interest. In addition, an emergency lighting system must be available, for both qualifying and final matches ensuring that a match can be completed even in the event of a power failure. The association must provide UEFA with a current lighting certificate, issued within the previous 12 months. Exceptions may be granted by the UEFA Administration. For further recommendations see also the booklet Guidelines and Recommendations for Floodlighting for all UEFA Competitions.

Clocks

- 10.04 Clocks in the stadium showing the amount of time played may run during the match, provided they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half, i.e. after 45 and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation also applies in the event of extra time being played (i.e. after 15 and 30 minutes).

Giant screens

- 10.05 Transmissions of any images and/or messages on giant viewing screens inside the stadium are in principle not allowed but may be authorised subject to the prior written permission of UEFA. On receipt of a justified request to this effect, the UEFA Administration may grant a participating national association such a permission, which may, however, be withdrawn at any time for improper use. The results of other matches can be shown on the scoreboard and/or giant screen during the match without UEFA's prior written permission, while simultaneous transmissions and replays are similarly permitted for press monitors and closed-circuit channels.

Balls

- 10.06 Balls used must conform to the requirements laid down in the Laws of the Game.
- 10.07 For qualifying-competition matches the balls must be provided by the host association. The balls used in the final tournament will be supplied by UEFA.

All-seater stadiums

10.08 All matches in the Competition (qualifying competition and final tournament) must be played in all-seater stadiums meeting the necessary safety requirements.

A. Stadiums for the qualifying competition

10.09 The UEFA Administration may refuse to permit matches to be played at stadiums which do not measure up to international standards. Stadiums must be in good condition in terms of both their playing surface and facilities. They must conform to the safety and security prescriptions of the competent civil authorities.

10.10 The associations taking part in the Competition must ensure that the stadiums they use undergo a periodic safety check, including a determination of the capacity, by the competent authorities, or by a body recognised by the latter.

10.11 In the interests of the safety of players and match officials, host associations must provide access to the field of play that guarantees the safe entry and exit of these persons.

Safety certificate

10.12 When notifying UEFA of the venues for their matches, the associations must also enclose a copy of the relevant safety certificate, which must be renewed every year, together with confirmation from the competent civil authorities concerning the level of safety for spectators (Confirmation form). These documents must be in the possession of the UEFA Administration at least two months before the match.

Artificial turf

10.13 In accordance with Law 1 of the Laws of the Game, matches may be played on artificial turf, provided that such artificial turf meets the following conditions:

- a) the artificial turf meets the highest FIFA quality standards for artificial turf, currently corresponding to the FIFA Recommended 2-Star standard in accordance with the "FIFA Quality Concept - Handbook of Test Methods and Requirements for Artificial Turf Football Surfaces" dated February 2005 as well as all requirements under the applicable national laws and regulations;
- b) the artificial turf has passed all the necessary tests (laboratory and field tests) and has obtained the required FIFA licence; and
- c) the artificial turf has passed all the necessary yearly tests confirming that it still meets the applicable FIFA quality standards. Such tests must be conducted by a FIFA accredited laboratory; and
- d) the surface of the artificial turf must be of a green colour.

- 10.14 The use of artificial turf in accordance with paragraph 10.13 is subject to any other requirements set out in these regulations with regard to the field of play and the stadium.
- 10.15 When submitting their entry form, associations wishing to play on artificial turf must provide the UEFA Administration with a copy of the FIFA Recommended 2-Star standard licence and a certificate confirming that the artificial turf still meets the applicable FIFA quality standards. This certificate must have been issued by a FIFA accredited laboratory within the 12 months before the start of the Competition.
- 10.16 The owner of the artificial turf and the host association are fully responsible for meeting the above requirements, in particular those related to:
- maintenance work and ongoing improvement measures; and
 - safety and environment measures as set out in the relevant sections of the applicable manuals.
- 10.17 The owner of the artificial turf and the host association must obtain sufficient warranties and/or guarantees related to the material and the installation from the manufacturer and the installer of the artificial turf. UEFA cannot be held responsible for any damages to third parties resulting from the use of the artificial turf.

B. Stadiums for the final tournament

- 10.18 All stadiums chosen to host matches in the final tournament must observe the technical recommendations and requirements of the stadium agreements.

Article 11

Unfit fields of play

A. Qualifying competition

- 11.01 If, for a qualifying-competition match, the host association deems that a field of play will not be fit for play, it must notify the visiting team and the referee prior to their departure. Otherwise, the host association is responsible for their travel, board and lodging expenses. The UEFA Administration must be notified at the same time.
- 11.02 If any doubt arises as to the condition of the field of play after the visiting team's departure from home, the referee will decide on the field of play itself whether or not it is fit for play.
- 11.03 If the referee declares the field of play not to be fit for play, the match will be played the following day, unless, for reasons beyond control, the match cannot take place then. In this case, the associations are free to play the match two days later than originally scheduled. Such rearranged fixtures are subject to the approval of the UEFA Administration. If the match cannot take place at all, the travel, board and lodging expenses of the visiting team, as well as the relevant hosting costs, are borne by the two associations in equal parts. The same provisions apply if a match is abandoned for such reasons.

B. Final Tournament

- 11.04 If the referee declares the field of play unfit for play, the match will be played the following day, unless, for reasons beyond control, the match cannot take place then. The UEFA Administration will decide.

Bad weather, reasons beyond control, match abandoned

A. Qualifying competition

- 11.05 If a match is abandoned before the end of normal playing time, or during any extra time, because of the weather conditions or for other reasons beyond control, a 90-minute replay must be played the next day, given the need to complete the corresponding phase and to avoid additional expenses for the visiting team. If, for reasons beyond control, the match cannot be replayed the next day, the two associations are free to agree to play the match two days later than originally scheduled.
- 11.06 If the match cannot take place at all, the travel, board and lodging expenses of the visiting team, as well as the relevant hosting costs, are borne by the two associations in equal parts. These provisions also apply if a match cannot commence for any of these reasons set out above.

B. Final Tournament

- 11.07 If a match is abandoned before the end of normal playing time, or during any extra time, because of the weather conditions or for other reasons beyond control, a 90-minute replay must be played the next day, given the need to complete the corresponding phase. If, for reasons beyond control, the match cannot be replayed the next day, the UEFA Administration will decide.

Article 12

Match organisation

- 12.01 The following provisions must be observed at all matches of the Competition:
- a) The UEFA, FIFA and UEFA Fair Play flags, as well as the flags of the teams taking part in the match, must be flown in the stadium at all matches in the Competition. The national anthems of both teams involved must be played.
 - b) At all matches in the Competition, the players are invited to shake hands with their opponents and the referees after the line-up procedure as well as after the final whistle, as a gesture of fair play.

- c) Only six team officials and seven (final tournament: 12) substitute players are allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench, i.e. a total of 13 (final tournament: 18) persons. The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.
- d) Smoking is not allowed in the technical area during the match. Any violation of this rule will be reported to the Control and Disciplinary Body.
- e) An adequate number of ground staff and police must be present, to guarantee safety and security in the stadium.
- f) The host association must ensure an appropriate medical service at matches, including a stretcher and sufficient number of carriers, an ambulance and stand-by medical personnel. Stretchers should be kept by the substitutes' benches.
- g) No spectators are allowed in the area between the stands and the touch-line or goal-line.
- h) If space so permits, up to 5 additional technical seats are allowed for association's staff providing technical support to the team during the match (kit manager, assistant physiotherapist, etc.). Such seats shall be outside the technical area and positioned at least 5 metres away from the benches but with access to the dressing rooms. The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.

12.02 The following provisions must also be observed during the qualifying competition:

- a) An appropriate number of complimentary tickets and purchase tickets, to be fixed by mutual agreement, will be set aside for the visiting association.
- b) A maximum of 1,000 complimentary tickets may be allocated for each match in the qualifying competition.
- c) The official UEFA representatives and at least ten representatives of the visiting association must be provided with top-category seats in the VIP sector.
- d) Weather permitting, the visiting association will be allowed to train on the field where the match is to take place the day before the match. The visiting association will agree with the host association on the length of the training session, which shall not exceed one hour, unless agreed otherwise with the host association. In addition, the visiting association may hold private training sessions at a location to be agreed on with the host association, but not at the stadium where the match will be played.

IX Laws of the Game

Article 13

13.01 Matches are played in conformity with the Laws of the Game promulgated by the International Football Association Board (IFAB) and published by FIFA.

Substitution of players

13.02 The substitution of three players per team is permitted in the course of the match. The use of substitution boards (preferably electronic) to indicate the substitution of players is compulsory. For ease of information, the substitution boards must be numbered on both sides.

Article 14

Half-time interval, break before extra time

14.01 The half-time interval lasts 15 minutes. If extra time is required, there will be a five-minute break between the end of normal playing time and the start of extra time. As a rule, the players remain on the field of play during this five-minute break, at the discretion of the referee.

Article 15

Kicks from the penalty mark (quarter-final, semi-final and final)

15.01 For matches played under the knock-out system and the final, kicks from the penalty mark are taken in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Laws of the Game promulgated by the IFAB.

15.02 The referee decides which goal will be used for the kicks from the penalty mark:

a) In particular, but without limitation, for reasons of safety/security, state of the field of play, lighting, etc., the referee may choose which goal will be used without tossing a coin. In this case, he is not required to justify his decision, which is final.

b) If he considers that both goals can be used for the kicks, then, in the presence of the two captains, he decides that the head side of the coin corresponds to one goal and the tail side to the other. He then tosses the coin to determine which goal will be used.

15.03 To ensure that the procedure is strictly observed, the referee is assisted by the assistant referees and the fourth official, who also note down the numbers of the players on each team who take kicks from the penalty mark. The assistant referees position themselves according to the diagram in the Laws of the Game.

15.04 If the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed because of weather conditions or for other reasons beyond control, the results will be decided by the drawing of lots by the referee in the presence of the UEFA delegate and the two team captains.

- 15.05 If through the fault of a team, the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed, paragraphs 8.01 to 8.04 of the present regulations shall apply.

X Player Eligibility

Article 16

- 16.01 Each national association must select its national representative team from players who are citizens of its country and who comply with the provisions of Article 15 of the Regulations governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes.

List of players for the qualifying competition

- 16.02 Each competing national association must provide the UEFA Administration with a provisional list of 18 players (surname, first name, club, shirt number and date of birth) as well as the name of the coach. This list must be in possession of the UEFA Administration at least seven full days before each qualifying competition match is played.
- 16.03 This list is provisional and amendments are allowed until the day of the match. The match sheet will constitute the final list of 18 players.

List of players for the final tournament

- 16.04 A list of 23 players must be in possession of the UEFA Administration at least 10 full days before the opening match in the final tournament. Three of these 23 players must be goalkeepers.
- 16.05 In the event of serious injury to a listed player before his team's first match in the final tournament, the player in question may be substituted only if a doctor from the UEFA Medical Committee and the team doctor concerned both confirm that the injury is sufficiently serious to prevent the player from taking part.
- 16.06 This list of 23 players will be published by the UEFA Administration.

Match sheet

- 16.07 Before the match, each team will receive a match sheet on which the numbers, full names, dates of birth and, if applicable, the nicknames of the 18 players in the squad (23 players in the final tournament) must be entered, together with the full names of the officials seated on the substitutes' bench and on the additional technical seats. The match sheet must be properly completed in block capitals and signed by the captain and competent association official.
- 16.08 The 11 first-named players must commence the match. The other 7 (12 in the final tournament) are designated as substitutes. The numbers on the players' shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the match sheet. The goalkeepers and team captain must be identified.

- 16.09 Both teams must hand their match sheet to the referee at least 75 minutes before kick-off.
- 16.10 The referee may ask to see the player's registration licence, personal identity card or passport of the players whose names are listed on the match sheet. Each player participating in a UEFA competition match must be in possession of a player's registration licence issued by their national association or an official personal identity card/passport, each containing his photograph and date of birth.
- 16.11 If the match sheet is not completed and returned in time, the matter will be submitted to the Control and Disciplinary Body.
- 16.12 Only three of the substitutes listed on the match sheet may take part in the match. A player who has been substituted may take no further part in the match.
- 16.13 If there are fewer than seven players on either of the teams, the match will be abandoned. In this case, the Control and Disciplinary Body decides on the consequences.

Replacement of players on the match sheet

- 16.14 After the match sheets have been completed and signed by both teams and returned to the referee, and if the match has not yet kicked off, the following instructions apply:
- a) If any of the first 11 players listed on the match sheet are not able to start the match for any reason, they may be replaced by any of the 7 substitutes (12 in the final tournament). Such replacements will reduce the quota of substitute players accordingly. During the match, three players may still be replaced.
 - b) If any of the 7 substitutes (12 in the final tournament) listed on the match sheet are not able to be fielded for any reason, they may not be replaced, which means that the quota of substitute players will be reduced accordingly.
 - c) If a goalkeeper listed on the match sheet is not able to be fielded for any reason, he may be replaced by another goalkeeper not previously listed on the match sheet.

- 17.05 In addition to the first choice kit, each team shall have a second choice kit (shirt, shorts and socks) which shall be noticeably different from the contrast and colours of the first choice kit. This reserve kit shall be taken to every match.

A. Qualifying competition

Kit approval procedure

- 17.06 Kit used by associations must be approved by the UEFA Administration. Colours

- 17.07 Each team shall, in principle, wear its official colours as announced to the UEFA Administration on the entry form, unless the associations concerned agree otherwise in due time, in which case the details should be submitted to the UEFA Administration in writing. If the colours of the two teams might cause confusion, the team of the host association shall be entitled to wear its official colours and the visiting team shall use its reserve kit or, if necessary, a combination of the official and reserve kit. If the associations are unable to agree on the colours to be worn, the UEFA Administration will decide in consultation with the referee.

Competition logo badge

- 17.08 For the qualifying competition, the UEFA European Football Championship 2008 competition logo badge must appear on the right sleeve of the players' shirt (from the perspective of the wearer) between the shoulder seam and the

- 17.14 UEFA will also provide the finalist teams with a UEFA fair play logo badge. This badge must appear on the left sleeve (from the perspective of the wearer) between the shoulder seam and the elbow. The fair play logo badge or any logo incorporated in it may not be used for any other purpose, including commercial or promotional activities.

Title-holder logo badge

- 17.15 The reigning title-holder may wear the UEFA European Football Championship title-holder logo badge for all UEFA national team matches prior to the start of the final tournament of the UEFA European Football Championship 2010/2012, subject to a licence being granted by UEFA. UEFA will provide the association concerned with sufficient badges to cover their needs (as determined by UEFA). The title-holder logo badge or any logo incorporated in it may not be used for any other purpose, including commercial or promotional activities.

Colours

- 17.16 The UEFA Administration will issue a written decision regarding the playing colours for matches in the final tournament. In principle, each team shall wear its official colours as announced to the UEFA Administration at the kit workshop. If, in the opinion of the referee or the UEFA Administration, the colours of the two teams could lead to confusion, they shall be modified. The decision of the UEFA Administration and the referee is final.

Other kit items worn by players and officials

- 17.17 All kit items worn by players, officials and other representatives must be free of any sponsor advertising, political, religious and/or other messages. Manufacturer identification is allowed in accordance with the UEFA Kit Regulations. This provision applies on the day immediately preceding a match (MD-1) and on the day of a match:

- 27.01 The entire ticketing system for the final tournament, including quota, production, prices, distribution and sales, will be drawn up by UEFA in cooperation with the Hosts.

Complimentary tickets

- 27.02 Existing lists of persons entitled to complimentary tickets for domestic matches played in the various stadiums will not be valid. For the final tournament, a number of complimentary tickets will be agreed upon by UEFA.

Ticket quota of participating associations

- 27.03 Each association taking part in the final tournament will be entitled to purchase tickets for its matches. UEFA will determine the number of tickets. Safety and security factors, including the possible segregation of fans within the ground, may be taken into account when the tickets are allocated.

27.04 Terms and conditions for returning a certain quantity of tickets will be determined by UEFA. These terms and conditions will be binding.

27.05 A number of complimentary tickets will be provided for each association taking part in the final tournament. The number of tickets will be determined by the UEFA Administration and communicated in due course.

Accounting for purchase tickets

27.06 Purchase tickets shall not be paid for by the participating associations prior to the final tournament. In the final accounts for the tournament, the cost of purchased tickets is deducted from each participating association's account.

XV Exploitation of the Commercial Rights

Article 28

Definitions

28.01 For the purposes of these regulations, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- a) "Commercial Rights" means any and all commercial and media rights and opportunities on a worldwide basis in and in relation to the final tournament and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable) including, without limitation, the relevant Media Rights, Marketing Rights and Data Rights;
- b) "Media Rights" means the right to create, broadcast, transmit or display by any and all means and in any and all media whether now known or devised in the future (including, without limitation, all forms of television, radio, wireless, fixed-line and Internet distribution) or to otherwise exploit audio-visual, visual and/or audio recordings or reproductions (whether in whole or in part) (including, without limitation, photographs), and audio-visual, visual and/or audio coverage, of any match of the final tournament and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable) and any official events related to the final tournament and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable) and the right to conduct any revenue-generating activity in connection therewith;
- c) "Marketing Rights" means the right to exploit by any and all means and in any and all media whether now known or devised in the future all types of advertising, promotion (including, without limitation, electronic and virtual promotion), public relations, marketing, merchandising, licensing, franchising, sponsorship, hospitality, publishing and all other commercial association rights in relation to the final tournament and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable);

- d) “Data Rights” means the right to compile and exploit statistics and other data in relation to the final tournament and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable);
- e) “Imagery” means visual materials representing any participating association’s players, officials and other representatives, the names, relevant statistics, data and images of such persons and any participating association’s name, emblems, logos, crests, team shirts (including references to kit manufacturers) and colours; and
- f) “Sponsors” means the official sponsors of the final tournament, appointed by UEFA.

A. Qualifying competition

- 28.02 The host association of any match of the qualifying competition is entitled to exploit the Commercial Rights in relation to such match. In doing so, a host association must observe the stipulations of Article 48 of the UEFA Statutes as well as the regulations governing the implementation of that Article and any other instructions or guidelines issued by UEFA from time to time.
- 28.03 All member associations participating in the qualifying competition shall take all legal and other measures that UEFA deems appropriate at its sole discretion to prohibit, prevent and stop any unauthorised exploitation of the Commercial Rights to the qualifying competition and to protect the ownership thereof.
- 28.04 The Commercial Rights to any match of the qualifying competition may not be sold unless the sale is documented in a written agreement that provides for the payment of an appropriate fee to the host association. Any such fee forms part of the match receipts and, subject to paragraph 25.04, remains with the host association.
- 28.05 All agreements relating to the exploitation of Commercial Rights to any match of the qualifying competition must be presented to the UEFA Administration upon request. The withholding of any such agreement and/or the avoidance of the payment of levies as provided for in the Regulations - if such levies are provided for – will be referred to the Control and Disciplinary Body and may result in disciplinary sanctions.
- 28.06 All agreements relating to the exploitation of Commercial Rights to any match of the qualifying competition must include (as an integral part thereof), and be subject to, Article 48 of the UEFA Statutes and the regulations governing its implementation. Furthermore, any such agreement must provide that if any amendment is made to such regulations, the agreement shall be amended as necessary to conform with the relevant amendment within 30 days of their coming into force.
- 28.07 For any match of the qualifying competition, the host association shall provide UEFA free of charge and at least 60 minutes prior to the kick-off of the match with access to the television frequency information for receiving the broadcast signal at a location of UEFA's choice. If a member association chooses to broadcast live audio-visual, video or audio coverage of any qualifying competition match on the Internet, the feed of such coverage must also be provided live to UEFA free of charge to a location of UEFA's choice. These broadcasts can be recorded by UEFA for monitoring and editorial purposes and UEFA may publish extracts thereof on an official UEFA website from midnight (C.E.T.) on the day of the match. Notwithstanding paragraph 28.06, UEFA's right to publish extracts on an official UEFA website is subject to any restriction included in any agreement relating to the exploitation of Commercial Rights that is concluded as of the date of publication of these regulations. UEFA shall make any such recordings available to the relevant host association upon request. In the event it is required by UEFA, the host association shall provide UEFA free of charge with a recording of the entire match [in Digibeta (or if not available, Betacam SP) format] to be sent to a destination determined by UEFA within seven days of the relevant match.

Footage

- 28.08 Following the Final Draw, UEFA may use up to 10 minutes of moving audio-visual or visual footage of any match of the qualifying competition for the purposes of presenting or promoting the final tournament or any element thereof and for the purposes of its archives and multimedia databases. These purposes shall include the broadcast or other transmission of any programming created in relation to the final tournament by UEFA or parties that have acquired Media Rights to the final tournament. This licence is granted to UEFA free of charge on a non-exclusive perpetual worldwide basis for use in any media now existing or hereafter devised with the right to authorise others to use such footage in connection with these purposes.

B. Final Tournament

- 28.09 UEFA owns and has the sole right, to the exclusion of the participating associations and any other party, to exploit all of the Commercial Rights to the final tournament including, without limitation, those arising at, and relating to, the official training ground of each participating association. UEFA may exercise this right to exploit these Commercial Rights at its sole discretion and on a universal basis.
- 28.10 The Commercial Rights arising at, and relating to, the official training ground of each participating association commence 5 days before the first match of the final tournament and terminate upon the conclusion of the final tournament.
- 28.11 All participating associations shall take all legal and other measures that UEFA deems appropriate at its sole discretion to prohibit, prevent and stop any unauthorised exploitation of the Commercial Rights to the final tournament and to ensure that all Commercial Rights to the final tournament are owned and exercised solely and exclusively by UEFA and that UEFA may exploit them without any restrictions whatsoever.

- 28.12 A participating association may not display any third party commercial identification or branding in any stadium or training ground of the final tournament or at any official press conference other than:
- a) on the kit used at any training session (except as provided in paragraphs 17.17, 17.18 and 17.19); and
 - b) in the indoor press conference facility at its official training facility (except during any official press conference held at such facility, see paragraph 29.12).

This provision applies from 5 days before the first match of the final tournament until the conclusion of the final tournament.

- 28.13 Permission for associations participating in the final tournament to make "coaching" films, which must not be used for any commercial purposes whatsoever and which will be used exclusively for the instruction of players, referees and officials of the relevant associations, must be obtained from the UEFA Administration, which will set any relevant financial and other conditions. Any such requests for permission must be submitted to UEFA at least 30 days before the start of the final tournament.
- 28.14 UEFA declines all responsibility and liability in the event of any conflict between any agreement entered into by a member association and any arrangement entered into by UEFA relating to the exploitation of the Commercial Rights to the final tournament.
- 28.15 Following the Final Draw, UEFA may use Imagery to produce articles that illustrate a participating association's involvement in the final tournament. Production of such articles will draw on the Imagery of all participating associations without giving undue prominence to the Imagery of one participating association over any other. UEFA shall ensure that there will be no direct association on such articles between the Imagery used and the Sponsors of the final tournament.

XVI Media Matters

Article 29

- 29.01 The commitments and responsibility of the national associations towards the international media are to provide information, news and access to players and officials, while protecting the game and the players.

A. Qualifying competition

- 29.02 Each national association must appoint a press officer to coordinate cooperation between the team and the media in accordance with UEFA's regulations and guidelines. Where requested, the press officer will assist UEFA in compiling editorial features and statistics to help promote the competition. The press officer must attend all home matches as well as travel with the team to away fixtures in order to coordinate all media arrangements, cooperate with the press officer of the host association and, if appointed, the UEFA Media Officer. The visiting team's press officer must send a full list of media accreditation requests at least 5 working days before the match to the press officer of the host association. Both press officers shall ensure that all accreditation requests come from bona fide media representatives covering football and/or subjects related hereto.

- 29.03 For all matches in the qualifying competition, an adequate number of seats – covered, if available, and where possible at least half of which equipped with desks, telephone points and modem plugs – must be put at the disposal of both local and visiting media representatives.
- 29.04 The teams must arrange to hold an official training session in the stadium the day before the match in the city where the match is to be played. This training session has to be open to media representatives (TV and radio representatives, written press, website journalists and photographers) for at least 15 minutes. The host association, together with the visiting team's press officer or, if appointed, the UEFA Media Officer, is responsible for ensuring that the stadium is clear of media after 15 minutes, and that cameras are turned off.

Press conferences

- 29.05 Each team must hold a pre-match press conference the day before the match. Ideally, the press conference will be staged in the stadium but, in any case, they must take place in the city where the match is to be played. The press conferences of both teams must be arranged so that a media representative can attend both, and so that media deadlines in the countries concerned can be respected. Each press conference must be attended by at least the head coach of the team plus one or, preferably, two players. The host association is responsible for providing a qualified interpreter and any technical facilities necessary.
- 29.06 The post-match press conference at the venue must start no later than 20 minutes after the final whistle. The host association is responsible for providing a qualified interpreter and any technical facilities necessary. Both teams are obliged to make their team manager/coach, as well as a player, available for this press conference. If appointed, the UEFA Media Officer, taking into consideration the interviews for the broadcasters, will decide the order of the coaches attending the press conference.

Mixed zone

- 29.07 After the match, a mixed zone must be set up for the media on the way from the dressing rooms to the team transport area. This area – accessible only to coaches, players and representatives of the media – must be divided into four areas: one for the TV rights-holders, one for written press, one for radio reporters and one for TV non-rights holders. The host association must ensure that the area is safe and not accessible by the general public or any other non-authorized people. Players of both teams are obliged to pass through the mixed zone but they are not obliged to give interviews.

Interviews

29.08 All interview requests have to be coordinated with and approved by the UEFA Media Officer, if appointed. All interview locations must be pre-determined by the UEFA Media Officer, if appointed. All interviews are to be held with prior consent of the interviewees. Interviews are not permitted before, during or after the match on the field of play itself or in its immediate vicinity. However, “upon arrival”, “half-time” and “flash” interviews can take place under the following circumstances.

- a) “Upon arrival” interviews are allowed with coaches and players upon their arrival at the stadium, at a pre-determined location where a fixed camera can be positioned before entry to the dressing rooms. For matches where a UEFA Media Officer is present, such interview requests must be coordinated with and approved by the UEFA Media Officer. Once the coaches and players have entered the dressing rooms, no further interviews are permitted.
- b) A “half-time” interview may only be conducted in a designated area outside the technical zone. If appointed, the UEFA Media Officer, together with the press officer of the home association, may designate an area between the substitutes’ benches and dressing-rooms upon request. Teams, if they agree, can only make one of their listed team officials available for this purpose. No players, including those on the substitutes’ bench, may be interviewed at half time.
- c) “Flash” interviews may last a maximum of 90 seconds and take place immediately after the final whistle in an area between the substitutes’ benches and the dressing rooms, which is pre-determined by the UEFA Media Officer, if appointed. Both teams must make their team manager/head coach and one key player available.
- d) Players who have been sent off may not be interviewed.

Media positioning

29.09 The UEFA Media Officer, where appointed, assisted by both press officers of the teams, must ensure that:

- a) no media representatives are allowed on the field of play before, during or after the match, with the exception of a hand-held camera crew covering the team line-ups at the start of the match, and a wireless host broadcaster camera filming after the final whistle, if this has been previously approved by both team press officers, the UEFA Media Officer, if appointed, and the media representative;

- b) non-authorised media representatives are not allowed on the playing area or the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators. Only media representatives who have been granted permission as agreed by the press officer of the host association (and/or the visiting team) are allowed to carry out their work in the specific locations assigned to them (Annexe Ia and Ib);
- c) no media representatives are allowed in the players' tunnel or the dressing room area, with the exception of prior-approved "flash" interviews;
- d) the dressing rooms are off limits to representatives of the media before, during and after the match.

B. Final tournament

- 29.10 Each participating National Association must appoint a press officer for the whole tournament to coordinate media matters in cooperation with his team, the press officer of the opposing team and the media as well as UEFA and UEFA Media Officers in accordance with UEFA's regulations. The press officer will assist UEFA in compiling editorial features and statistics to help promote the competition as well as compile information for UEFA's official website for the tournament. The National Association's press officer must attend all media activities as well as travel with the team to all matches and work alongside the UEFA Media Officer.
- 29.11 The teams must arrange to hold an official training session, preferably at the stadium where the match is to be played, the day before the match. This training session – whether it is at the stadium where the match is to be played or not – has to be open to media representatives (TV and radio representatives, written press, website journalists and photographers) for at least 15 minutes. It is the responsibility of the UEFA Media Officer to ensure the stadium is clear of media after 15 minutes and that all permanently installed TV cameras are switched off.

Official press conferences

- 29.12 Each team must hold an official press conference the day before a match they are to play (MD-1) and immediately after the match (post-match press conference). These official press conferences have to be organised in cooperation with the UEFA Media Officer in order to help media representatives meet their deadlines in the countries concerned. Each official press conference must be attended by at least the head coach of the team plus one or, preferably, two players. Access to these official press conferences must be open to all accredited media representatives and not exclusively to those from the country concerned, subject to available space. UEFA-provided backdrops shall be used at all official press conferences.

29.13 The post-match press conference at the venue must start no later than 20 minutes after the final whistle. Both teams are obliged to make their team manager/head coach, as well as at least one, preferably two players, available for this press conference. The UEFA Media Officer, taking into consideration the interviews for the broadcasters, will decide the order of the coaches attending the press conference. Translation facilities are to be provided by UEFA. It is the role of the press officers of the national associations to provide translation.

Mixed zone

29.14 After the match, a mixed zone is set up for the media on the way from the dressing rooms to the team transport area. This area is accessible only to coaches, players and representatives of the media. Players of both teams are obliged to pass through the mixed zone but they are not obliged to give interviews. UEFA will issue the appropriate access passes.

Accreditations

29.15 Accreditation of media representatives is the sole responsibility of UEFA. National associations will be consulted by UEFA for careful checking of applications received from media representatives from their countries. All applicants will receive a written response to their accreditation application as soon as possible after the application deadline, which will be announced in due time. Accreditation applications will be processed via the UEFA on-line accreditation system.

29.16 The final decision on acceptance or refusal of accreditation applications is the sole responsibility of UEFA at its entire discretion. In addition, UEFA may withdraw an accreditation at any time.

29.17 Admission tickets for individual matches will be distributed to the media by UEFA.

Interviews

29.18 All interview requests have to be coordinated with and approved by the UEFA Media Officer. All interview locations must be pre-determined by the UEFA Media Officer. All interviews are to be held with the prior consent of the interviewees. Interviews are not permitted before, during or after the match on the field of play itself or in its immediate vicinity. However, “upon arrival”, “half-time”, “super flash” and “flash” interviews can take place under the following circumstances.

- a) “Upon arrival” interviews are allowed with coaches and players upon their arrival at the stadium, at a pre-determined location where a fixed camera can be positioned before entry to the dressing rooms. Once the players and coaches have entered the dressing rooms, no further interviews are permitted.

- b) A “half-time” interview may only be conducted in a designated area outside the technical zone. The UEFA Media Officer may designate an area between the substitutes’ benches and dressing rooms upon request. Teams, if they agree, can only make one of their listed team officials available for this purpose. No players, including those on the substitutes’ bench, may be interviewed at half time.
- c) “Flash” interviews last a maximum of 90 seconds and take place immediately after the final whistle in an area between the substitutes’ benches and the dressing rooms, which is pre-determined by the UEFA Media Officer. Both teams must make their team manager/head coach and one key player available.
- d) Players who have been sent off may not be interviewed.

Media positioning

29.19 The UEFA Media Officer, assisted by both press officers of the teams, must ensure that:

- a) no media representatives are allowed on the field of play before, during or after the match, with the exception of the hand-held camera crew covering the team line-ups at the start of the match and a wireless host broadcaster camera filming after the final whistle if this has been agreed in advance by the UEFA Media Officer and the media representative;
- b) non-authorized media representatives are not allowed on the playing area or the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators. Only media representatives who have been granted permission by the UEFA Media Officer are allowed to carry out their work in the specific locations assigned to them;
- c) no media representatives are allowed in the players’ tunnel or the dressing room area, with the exception of “flash” interviews as well as pre- and post-match presentations which have been approved in advance by a UEFA Media Officer;
- d) the dressing rooms are off limits to representatives of the media before, during and after the match.

Article 30

30.01 UEFA is the exclusive owner of all intellectual property rights of the Competition, including but not limited to any current or future rights of UEFA’s names, logos, brands, medals and trophies. Any use of the aforementioned rights requires the prior written consent of UEFA, and must always conform to UEFA’s instructions and guidelines on correct usage.

- 32.03 A civil law challenge through CAS may only be brought after UEFA's official internal procedures have been exhausted.
- 32.04 There shall be no recourse to legal action in the ordinary courts of law in relation to such matters.
- 32.05 A civil law challenge shall not have any suspensory effect as a stay of execution of a disciplinary sanction, subject to the power of the President of the Division or the President of the Panel appointed to deal with the matter after hearing the parties, to order that any disciplinary sanction be stayed pending the arbitration.
- 32.06 Proceedings before CAS shall take place in accordance with the Code of Sports-related Arbitration of CAS.

ANNEXE II: Fair Play

Fair Play Definition

The idea of playing a game fairly and treating an opponent in a sporting manner is one of the finest elements to be found in any sport. In fact, it was sport that gave birth to the now widely used expression and concept of fair play. It remains as vital an ingredient of our sport today as it ever did, and most spectators would agree that only a fair match can be an entertaining one.

The concept of fair play can be broken down into the following principles, which apply as much to the players as to other individuals connected with the game:

- a) The Laws of the Game and the regulations of the various competitions must be respected.
- b) Every effort should be made to behave in a sporting manner towards opponents, referees and any other persons involved in matches, such as spectators, officials of other clubs and associations, and representatives of the media.
- c) Anyone else involved in matches should be encouraged to behave in the manner outlined above before, during and after a match, irrespective of the result of the match and the decisions taken by the match officials.

Fair Play Assessment

Introduction

1. Conduct according to the spirit of fair play is essential for the successful promotion and development of and involvement in sport. The objective of activities in favour of fair play is to foster a sporting spirit, as well as the sporting behaviour of players, team officials and spectators, thereby increasing the enjoyment of all those involved in the game.
2. In its efforts to promote fair play, UEFA establishes association fair play rankings for each season, based on all matches played in all UEFA competitions (national representative and club teams) between 1 June and 31 May. In establishing these rankings, only those associations whose teams have played at least the required number of matches (total number of matches assessed divided by the number of associations) are taken into account. For this purpose, fair play conduct is assessed by the appointed UEFA match delegate. In reward for the fair play example they set, a maximum of three associations which attain a previously-defined standard (average of 8.0 points or more in the rankings) each receive one additional place in the UEFA Cup of the next season. These additional places are reserved for the winners of the respective domestic top-division fair play competition. If the winners of the domestic top-division fair play competition in question have already qualified for a UEFA club competition, the UEFA Cup fair play place goes to the highest team in the domestic top-division fair play rankings which has not already qualified for a UEFA competition.

3. After the match, the match delegate is expected to complete a fair play assessment form in consultation with the referee and, where applicable, the referee observer. The referee confirms that fair play aspects have been duly discussed by signing the fair play assessment form.

Methods of Assessment

4. The assessment form identifies six criteria (components) for the evaluation of the fair play performance of the teams. Assessment should be based on positive rather than negative aspects. As a general rule, maximum assessment marks should not be awarded unless the respective teams have displayed positive attitudes.

a) The individual items on the assessment form

5. Red and yellow cards. Deduction from a maximum of 10 points:

- yellow card 1 point
- red card 3 points

If a player who has been cautioned with a yellow card commits another offence which would normally be punishable with a yellow card, but who must be sent off for this second offence (combined yellow and red card), only the red card counts, i.e. total of 3 points to be deducted.

If, however, a player who has been cautioned with a yellow card commits another offence for which the punishment is dismissal, a total of 4 points (1+3) must be deducted.

Red and yellow cards is the only item which may take a negative value.

6. Positive play

- maximum 10 points
- minimum 1 point

The aim of this item is to reward positive play which is attractive for the spectators. In assessing positive play, the following aspects should be taken into consideration:

Positive aspects:

- attacking rather than defensive tactics
- acceleration of the game

- efforts to gain time, e.g. bringing the ball quickly back into play, even when in a winning position
- continued pursuit of goals, even if the desired result (e.g. qualification or an away draw) has already been achieved

Negative aspects:

- deceleration of the game
- time-wasting
- tactics based on foul play
- play-acting, etc.

In general terms, positive play correlates with the number of goal-scoring chances created and the number of goals scored.

7. Respect of the opponent

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations, opponents, etc. They are also expected to ensure that fellow team members and everyone else involved in the team abide by the spirit of fair play as well.

In assessing the players' behaviour vis-à-vis the opposition, double counting against the item 'red and yellow cards' should be avoided. However, the delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards, as well as offences overlooked by the referee.

Assessment should be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than infringements. Blameless behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures towards opponents, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

8. Respect of the referee

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Players are expected to respect the referees (including assistant referees and fourth officials) as people, as well as for the decisions they take. Double counting against the item 'red and yellow cards' should be avoided. However, the delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards.

A positive attitude towards the referee should be rewarded by high marks, including the acceptance of doubtful decisions without protest. Normal behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures with respect to the match officials, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

9. Behaviour of team officials

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Team officials, including coaches, are expected to make every effort to develop the sporting, technical, tactical and moral level of their team through all permitted means. They are also expected to instruct their players to behave in a manner which is in accordance with the fair play principles.

Positive and negative aspects of the behaviour of team officials should be assessed; e.g. whether they calm or provoke angry players or fans, how they accept the referee's decisions, etc. Cooperation with the media should also be considered as a factor in the assessment. Blameless behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

10. Behaviour of the crowd

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

The crowd is considered to be a natural component of a football game. The support of the fans may contribute to the success of their team. The crowd is not expected to watch the game in silence. Encouragement of teams by shouting, singing, etc. may have a positive influence on the atmosphere, in accordance with the spirit of fair play.

The spectators are, however, expected to respect the opposing team and the referee. They should appreciate the performance of the opposition, even if they emerge as the winners. They must in no way intimidate or frighten the opposing team, the referee or opposing supporters.

A maximum number of points (5) should not be awarded unless all these requirements are satisfied, especially with respect to the creation of a positive atmosphere.

This item is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible, 'N/A' (not applicable) should be recorded under this entry.

b) Overall assessment

11. The overall assessment of a team is obtained by adding up the points given for the individual components, dividing this total by the maximum number of points and multiplying the result by 10.
12. The maximum number of points per game generally equals 40. If, however, a given team is being supported by a negligible amount of fans, and the item "Behaviour of the crowd" is not being assessed as a result ('N/A' – see paragraph 10 above), the maximum number of points obtainable will be 35.

Example:

The various items for team 1 are assessed as 8+7+3+4+5+4, giving a total of 31. The general assessment will therefore be:

$$(31/40) \times 10 = \mathbf{7.75}$$

If team 2 had only a small number of fans, and the assessment for the other items was 7+8+2+5+2, with 24 as the total, the general assessment would be:

$$(24/35) \times 10 = \mathbf{6.857}$$

The general assessment should be calculated to three decimal points and not rounded up.

13. In addition to this assessment, the delegate should also give brief written comments on the fair play performance of the teams, to explain the positive and negative aspects which formed the basis for his assessment. This written explanation may also include outstanding individual gestures of fair play by players, officials, referees or any other persons.
