Women's History Month - Carol Blazejowski

Carol Blazejowski is widely considered one of the greatest scorers in the history of women's basketball. She played her collegiate career at Montclair State University and put up staggering numbers, averaging 34.0 points per game during her junior season and 38.6 as a senior—leading the nation in scoring both years. After her playing career, Blazejowski would go on to serve as general manager, and later president, of the New York Liberty in the WNBA. She has been inducted as a member of both the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.
