- (6) to organise and assist in the provision of conferences, courses of instruction, exhibitions, lectures and other educational activities;
- (7) to print, publish and circulate, gratuitously or otherwise, and to sell, lend, issue and distribute gratuitously or otherwise any papers, treatises, books, pamphlets, leaflets or communications made to the Society, or documents relating to psychology, and any reports of the proceedings and accounts of the Society, and for this purpose to cause translations to be made of any such papers, treatises or communications as shall be in a foreign language, and to illustrate any of the publications as the Society may think expedient in connection with the objects of the Society or any of them;
- (8) to invite and collect subscriptions and donations to the funds of the Society by any lawful means;
- (9) to trade in the course of carrying out the objects of the Society and carry on any other trade which is not expected to give rise to taxable profits;
- (10) to incorporate and acquire subsidiary companies to carry on any trade;
- (11) to insure the property of the Society against any foreseeable risk and take out other insurance policies as are considered necessary by the Trustees to protect the Society;
- (12) to provide indemnity insurance to cover the personal liability of the Trustees and other office holders in respect of any negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty committed by them in relation to the Society, in accordance with and subject to the conditions in, Section 189 of the Charities Act 2011 and Section 68A of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (provided that in the case of an officer who is not a Trustee, the second and third references to “charity trustees” in the said Section 189(1) shall be treated as references to officers of the Society);

- (13) to co-operate with other organisations with a view to the promotion of the objects of the Society or any of them;
 - (14) to amalgamate or merge with or acquire or undertake all or any of the property, liabilities and engagements of any body;
 - (15) to undertake and execute charitable trusts;
 - (16) to impose restrictions, which may be revocable or irrevocable, on the use of any property of the Society, including (without limitation) by creating permanent endowment;
 - (17) to acquire or rent any property of any kind and any rights or privileges in and over property and construct, maintain, alter and equip any buildings or facilities;
 - (18) to dispose of or deal with all or any of its property with or without payment and subject to such conditions as the Trustees think fit (but only in accordance with the restrictions imposed by the Charities Act 2011);
 - (19) to borrow or raise and secure the payment of money for any purpose including for the purposes of investment or of raising funds, including charging property as security for the repayment of money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation;
 - (20) to invest the Society's money not immediately required for its objects in or upon any investments, securities, or property;
 - (21) to arrange for investments or other property of the Society to be held in the name of a nominee or nominees and pay any reasonable fee required;
 - (22) to lend money and give credit to, take security for such loans or credit and guarantee or give security for the performance of contracts by any person or company;
 - (23) to open and operate bank accounts and other facilities for banking and draw, accept, endorse, issue or execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques and other instruments; and
 - (24) to do all such acts and things as are or may be deemed incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Society or the exercise of any of its said powers.
5. The Members shall consist of the persons who are members of the Society on the Effective Date within their respective class of membership and such other persons who meet such eligibility criteria as may be required by the Statutes for the respective classes of membership and as may be admitted to membership by the Trustees in accordance with the Statutes, Rules and such rules as may be issued and varied from time to time by the Trustees.

6. The eligibility, rights, privileges and obligations (including subscriptions) of Members shall, subject as herein provided, be as prescribed by the Statutes and Rules.
7. Any Member who shall have acted in breach of the Member Conduct Rules shall be liable to have their membership terminated or suspended or to receive a reprimand in accordance with the procedures laid down in the Statutes.
8. There shall be held a General Meeting of the Society once in each calendar year (known as the Annual General Meeting) and Special General Meetings at such times as may be necessary or desirable in accordance with the provisions of the Statutes.
9. There shall be a Board of Trustees of the Society which shall be constituted in such manner and hold office on such terms and for such period as is prescribed in the Statutes.
10. The Trustees may establish the following Member Networks of the Society in accordance with the Statutes to assist in the promotion of its objects:
 - (1) branches in any part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (“Branches”);
 - (2) sections concerned with special branches or aspects of psychology (“Sections”);
 - (3) divisions concerned with the standards of professional education and knowledge of their members (“Divisions”);
 - (4) special Groups (which may be otherwise designated) concerned with principal areas in which psychologists provide advice, tuition or services (“Special Groups”); and
 - (5) such other groups as the Trustees thinks fit.
11. The income and property of the Society shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects.
12. No part of the income and property of the Society may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any Member. This shall not prevent any payment in good faith by the Society:
 - (1) to any Member in his, her or its capacity as a beneficiary of the Society;
 - (2) of reasonable and proper remuneration to any Member for any goods or services supplied to the Society (including services performed by the Member under a contract of employment with the Society and the services of an examiner), provided that if such Member is a Trustee, Articles 13 to 14 (inclusive) shall apply;
 - (3) of royalties under contract to a Member who is an author or editor;

- (4) of interest at a reasonable and proper rate on money lent by any Member to the Society;
- (5) of any reasonable and proper rent for premises let by any Member to the Society; and
- (6) to a Member who is also a Trustee or a person Connected to a Trustee which is permitted under Articles 13 or 14.

13. No Trustee may:

- (1) sell goods, services or any interest in land to the Society;
- (2) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Society; or
- (3) receive any other financial benefit from the Society;

unless the benefit is permitted under Article 14, authorised by the Statutes or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission. In this Article 13, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

14. A Trustee or person Connected to a Trustee may receive the following benefits from the Society:

- (1) a Trustee or person Connected to a Trustee may receive a benefit from the Society in their capacity as a beneficiary of the Society;
- (2) a Trustee or person Connected to a Trustee may be reimbursed by the Society for, or may pay out of the Society’s property, reasonable expenses properly incurred by them when acting on behalf of the Society;
- (3) a Trustee or person Connected to a Trustee may be paid reasonable and proper remuneration by the Society for any goods or services including the services of an examiner supplied to the Society on the instructions of the Trustees (excluding, in the case of a Trustee, the service of acting as Trustee and services performed under a contract of employment with the Society) provided that, in relation to the Trustees, this provision may not apply to more than half of the Trustees in any financial year (and for these purposes this provision shall be treated as applying to a Trustee if it applies to a person who is a person Connected to that Trustee);
- (4) a Trustee or person Connected to a Trustee who is an author or an editor may receive royalties under contract;
- (5) the President may receive reasonable and proper remuneration to compensate the President for the sum or sums of money lost from employment or deducted from their earnings in respect of time spent on the conduct of the business of the Society;

- (6) a Trustee or person Connected to a Trustee may receive interest at a reasonable and proper rate on money lent to the Society;
- (7) a Trustee or person Connected to a Trustee may receive reasonable and proper rent for premises let to the Society;
- (8) the Society may pay reasonable and proper premiums in respect of indemnity insurance effected in accordance with Article 4(12); and
- (9) a Trustee may receive payment under an indemnity from the Society in accordance with the indemnity provisions set out at Article 16, provided that where benefits are conferred under Article 14, the Society's conflict of interest procedures must be complied with by the relevant Trustee in relation to any decisions regarding the benefit.

15. If the Society is registered with the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator the additional requirements under section 67 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 must be complied with.
16. Without prejudice to any indemnity to which a Trustee might otherwise be entitled, the Society shall indemnify every Trustee of the Society in respect of all claims made against them in respect of any liability arising from or in respect of the Society, provided that the right of a Trustee to an indemnity under this clause shall not extend to any claim arising from wilful fraud or wrongdoing or wrongful omission on their part. No Trustee shall be liable for any loss to the Society except in relation to loss caused by wilful fraud or wrongdoing or wrongful omission on their part.
17. The Statutes set forth in the Schedule hereto shall be the Statutes of the Society until the same shall be amended in manner hereinafter provided.
18. The Trustees shall have full power but subject always to the provisions of this Our Charter to make and when made to amend Statutes touching the government of the Society, the appointment and removal of all persons employed in or in connection with the Society and any other matters whatsoever relating to the administration and management of the Society. Provided that no amendment to the Statutes shall have any force or effect unless and until the same shall have been approved by resolution passed by a majority of the Members voting at a General Meeting convened by notice specifying clearly the substance of the amendment proposed nor until it shall have been approved by the Lords of Our Most Honourable Privy Council of which approval a Certificate under the hand of the Clerk of Our said Privy Council shall be conclusive evidence.
19. True accounts shall be kept of the income and expenditure of the Society. There shall be an audit of the accounts of the Society made every year and the auditors shall make a report to the Society. The auditors, who must be a firm of registered auditors under the Companies Act 2006, shall be appointed by the Members in General Meeting. The Trustees shall have the power to appoint auditors to fill a casual vacancy, if necessary, but such appointment shall only apply until the next Annual General Meeting.

20. It shall be lawful for the Society with the sanction of two consecutive Special General Meetings thereof called for the purpose to surrender this Our Charter subject to the sanction of Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council and upon such terms as We or They may consider fit and to wind up or otherwise deal with the affairs of the Society in such manner as shall be directed by such General Meetings or in default of such directions as the Trustees shall think expedient having due regard to the liabilities of the Society for the time being. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Society there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the Society, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Society, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their Members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Society under or by virtue of Articles 11 and 12 hereof, such institution or institutions to be determined by the Members of the Society at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provision, then to some charitable object. Throughout this Our Charter and the Statute of the Trustees, 'charitable' means charitable in accordance with the law of England and Wales provided that it will not include any purpose which is not charitable in accordance with any statutory provision regarding the meaning of the word 'charitable' or the words 'charitable purposes' in force in any part of the United Kingdom. For the avoidance of doubt, the system of law governing the constitution of the charity is the law of England and Wales.
21. The Trustees may by resolution in that behalf passed at any meeting by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the Trustees present and voting (and being an absolute majority of all members of the Trustees) and confirmed at a Special General Meeting held not less than one month nor more than four months afterwards by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the Members voting, amend or add to this Our Charter and such amendment or addition shall when allowed by Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council become effectual so that this Our Charter shall thenceforward continue and operate as though it had been originally granted and made accordingly. The provision shall apply to this Our Charter as amended or added to in manner aforesaid.
22. Lastly We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors grant and declare that these Our Charter and Statutes shall be in all things valid and effectual in law according to the true intent and meaning thereof and shall be taken, construed, adjudged in the most favourable and beneficial sense for the best advantage of the Society as well in Our Courts of Record as elsewhere by all Judges, Justices, Officers, Ministers and other subjects whatsoever for Us and Successors any non-recital or other omission, defect or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.”.

SCHEDULE

AMENDMENTS TO THE CHARTER OF THE ROYAL HOSPITAL FOR NEURO-DISABILITY

Delete Articles 1 to 27 and substitute:

Incorporation

1. The Corporation, formerly 'The Royal Hospital for Incurables, Putney' and now the 'Royal Hospital for Neuro-disability' was incorporated by Royal Charter with perpetual succession and a Common Seal granted 20 June 1919.
2. The Corporation shall have full power by and in its name to sue and be sued and to take by gift or otherwise and hold, grant, demise or otherwise dispose of real or personal property and generally to do all such lawful acts and things in any part of the world as may be requisite in order to further the objects of the Corporation provided that the Corporation shall apply its property and funds only in promoting its objects, or in a manner that is conducive or incidental to doing so. This shall include the power to (in accordance with all other relevant statutory regulations and requirements):
 - a) Raise funds;
 - b) Buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;

- c) Sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the charity;
- d) Borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation;
- e) Set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves;
- f) Deposit or invest funds, employ a professional investment manager and arrange for the investments or other property of the Corporation to be held in the name of a nominee;
- g) Co-operate with other corporations, charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them;
- h) Establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions;
- i) Acquire, merge with or enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other charity;
- j) Employ and remunerate such staff (including providing reasonable pension) as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Corporation;
- k) Provide indemnity insurance for staff and members of the Board of Governors ('the Board') and other individuals as considered reasonable.

3. The property of the Corporation shall consist of all such real and personal property as now belongs to or is held in trust for the Corporation and of all such further sums of money and property whether real or personal as may subject to the provisions of this Charter from time to time be given granted conveyed or transferred to and for the benefit of the Corporation.

4. Any further sums of money or other property that may be given to the Corporation on trust or for any stated lawful special purpose in connection with the Corporation may be accepted and held by the Corporation as Trustees and applied to any stated special purpose accordingly.

5. The Corporation may act as trustees or managers of any trust property legacy endowment bequest or gift for charitable purposes or otherwise in furtherance of the work and welfare of the Corporation or in furtherance of the trusts or the trust property.

Object

6. The object of the Corporation shall be to give permanent relief to such persons as are hopelessly disqualified for the duties of life by disease, accident or deformity; and this shall be carried out on the broad principle of Christian kindness and liberality, in the hope of uniting all the good for the good of all who really need help.

7. The Corporation intends to serve persons who in the view of the Board are eligible for assistance by the Corporation.

Constitution

8. Subject to the provisions of this Charter and to the Bye-laws, the management and control of the Corporation and its affairs shall be vested in the Board, which shall have power to act in all matters in the name of the Corporation and execute and do all such deeds, acts and things as the Corporation itself might do. The Board shall have power to delegate any of their functions, for such purpose and in such manner as Bye-laws may prescribe, to such person or persons and in such manner as they may deem appropriate including, if thought fit, the power to sub-delegate.

9. The Board shall establish Committees that cover the functions of audit, risk, nominations and remuneration of the Board.

10. The Board shall have the power to establish such other Committees as it considers necessary.

The Board

11. At the time that the 2022 revisions to this Charter come into force, the members of the Board of Governors and the commencement dates of their terms of office shall be as set out in Annex 1.

12. The Board shall elect new members. Election as a Board Member shall be for a period of four years and on completion of this, the Board Members may be re-elected at the next subsequent Board Meeting for a further consecutive period of four years. On the completion of eight consecutive years, the Board Member shall go out of office for a minimum period of one year before being permitted to stand for election for a further two four-year consecutive periods. The Board may from time to time in exceptional circumstances resolve to waive this requirement in relation to one or more specified Board Member such that the Board may extend a Board Member's term of office for up to two years.

13. The Board shall reserve the right to remove a Board Member prior to the end of their office in accordance with the Bye-laws.

14. Board Members shall have a right of voting at any meeting of the Board (subject to any conflict of interest as set out in the Bye-laws).

15. The Board shall meet at least three times in each calendar year.

16. A Chair of the Board shall be appointed in accordance with the Bye-laws.

President and Vice Presidents

17. There shall be a President of the Corporation appointed by the Board. There may be one or more Vice Presidents of the Corporation, as appointed by the Board. A vacancy in the office of President shall not affect the existence or title of the Corporation or powers of the Board thereof or of any committee or sub-committee of it.

Bye-laws

18. The Board shall have power from time to time to make Bye-laws and from time to time to revoke or alter any Bye-laws previously made. The Bye-laws may provide for all matters whatsoever in any way connected with the management of the Corporation, its undertaking property and affairs and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) for all or any of the following matters:-

- a) The carrying out of the promotion of the Object;
- b) The appointment, removal, continuance in office and duties of the Chief Executive, Board Members or any non-executive member of a Committee which reports directly to the Board;
- c) The summoning and holding of, and proceedings at Meetings of the Board, Special General Meetings and any Committee of the Board including the voting at any such Meetings and the rights and duties of persons present at the meeting and the quorum necessary to constitute the meeting;
- d) The management of the Funds and property of the Corporation and the nature and range of investments which may be made or retained of such funds and property.

Provided that the Bye-laws shall not be repugnant to the laws of Our Realm or the provisions and directions of this Our Charter and also that any such Bye-laws and any revocation or alteration of them shall not take effect unless and until it has been sanctioned by a majority of the Board present and voting on the question at a duly convened Board Meeting or Special General Meeting and have been allowed by the lords of Our Privy Council of which allowance a Certificate under the hand of the Clerk of Our Privy Council shall be conclusive evidence and provided also that the Notice convening such Board Meeting or Special General Meeting shall have contained a notification that such Bye-law or such revocation or alteration would be taken into consideration at that meeting.

19. The revised Bye-laws allowed by the Lords of the Privy Council by Order and dated this day shall be the Bye-laws for the government and regulation of the affairs of the Corporation until they are revoked or altered in the manner set out in Article 18.

Interpretation

20. In this Our Charter and in the Bye-laws of the Corporation words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine and words in the singular shall include the plural and words in the plural shall include in the singular. Month shall mean calendar month, person and persons shall include Corporations and Will shall include any Codicil.

Miscellaneous

21. The Board may, with the sanction of two successive Special General Meetings called for the purpose and both being held within one period of three months, surrender this Our Charter subject to the sanction of Us Our Heirs and Successors and upon such terms as We or they may consider fit and to empower the Board Members to wind up or otherwise deal with the affairs of the Corporation in such manner as the Board shall deem expedient having due regard to the liabilities of the Corporation for the time being existing.

22. The Corporation may by a Resolution in that behalf of which not less than twenty-one days written notice (inclusive both of the day on which notice is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given) has been given prior to such meeting carried by not less than two-thirds of the Board Members voting by such means as is deemed suitable in the Bye-laws at any duly convened Board Meeting or Special General Meeting from time to time amend add or revoke any of the provisions of this Our Charter or any Supplemental Charter which may hereafter be granted to the Corporation and such amendment, addition or revocation shall when allowed by Us, or our Heirs or Successors in Council become effectual provided that such amendment, addition or revocation shall not enable the funds of the Corporation to be applied for non-charitable purposes. This Article shall apply to this, Our Charter and any Supplemental Charter as amended added to or revoked in manner aforesaid.

23. Any Supplemental Charter granted by Us or our Heirs or Successors whether amending repealing or adding to the provision of these presents may be accepted by a Board Meeting or Special General Meeting and shall be valid and binding upon the Corporation, its Board Members and all other persons if accepted by the votes of two-thirds of the Board Members voting at the meeting (in such manner as is deemed suitable in the Bye-laws).

24. And lastly, we do hereby for Our Heirs and Successors grant and declare that these Our letters Patent or the enrolment or exemplification thereof shall be in all things valid and effectual in law according to the true intent and meaning of the same and shall be construed and adjudged in the most favourable and beneficial sense for the best advantage of the Corporation as well in Our Courts as elsewhere not withstanding any recital, misrecital, uncertainty or imperfection in these Our Letters Patent.”

ACT 1923 (13 & 14 GEORGE V, CHAPTER 33). WHICH AMENDING STATUTE IS NOW
SUBMITTED FOR THE APPROVAL OF HER MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

We, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, in pursuance of the power given to us by Section 7 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923 and having obtained the approval of the Regent House on 7 August 2020 and executed this Statute as a Deed on 20 December 2021, do hereby alter and amend the Statutes made under that Act in relation to our said University in manner following, that is to say:

- (a) That the first sentence of Statute B I 2 (Statutes and Ordinances, 2019, p. 14) be amended to read as follows:

Membership of the University is for life, or until resignation, or until deprivation by decision of a University court, disciplinary panel or any body granted authority in Ordinance to assess capability to study.

- (b) That new sub-paragraph (c) be inserted in Statute B III 4 (Statutes and Ordinances, 2019, p. 15), to read as follows:
- (c) concerning the circumstances in which a University body shall have authority to withdraw the right of a student to continue to study on a given course, or on any course, offered by the University.

STATUTE TO ALTER AND AMEND THE STATUTES IN RELATION TO THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE, MADE UNDER THE UNIVERSITIES OF OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE
ACT 1923 (13 & 14 GEORGE V, CHAPTER 33). WHICH AMENDING STATUTE IS NOW
SUBMITTED FOR THE APPROVAL OF HER MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

We, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, in pursuance of the power given to us by Section 7 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923 and having obtained the approval of the Regent House on 1 July 2019 and executed this Statute as a Deed on 7 February 2022, do hereby alter and amend the Statutes made under that Act in relation to our said University in manner following, that is to say:

That in Statute D II (Statutes and Ordinances, 2018, p. 28) Sections 2, 10, 11, 12 and 15 be amended to read as follows and the cross-references updated:

2. The University Tribunal shall adjudicate, in accordance with the provisions of this Statute, when a University officer, a member of the Senate, or a person who is not a registered student who holds either a degree or the title of a degree is charged with an offence against the discipline of the University, or with grave misconduct, save that a University disciplinary panel established under Section 11 shall adjudicate where all allegations concern conduct during the period in which that person was pursuing a course of study leading to the award of a degree, diploma or certificate of the University, or any related matter as determined by Ordinance.

10. Notice of a meeting of the Septemviri or the University Tribunal shall be given to the Head of the College of which the person charged or making an appeal is a member.

11. The regulation of student discipline, including the constitution of University disciplinary panels for that purpose, shall be as determined by Special Ordinance. These panels shall have no jurisdiction over the Chancellor, the High Steward, the Deputy High Steward, or the Commissary. Such panels shall have power to make rules of procedure except in so far as such rules may have been determined by Statute or Ordinance; provided that, if any question of law or interpretation or application of any of the rules of procedure arises during the course of a hearing, or if a question of procedure arises which cannot be resolved by reference to those rules, the matter shall be decided by the Chair, whose decision shall, for the case which is being heard, be final.

12. If an allegation of academic misconduct in an examination has been brought against any person before a University disciplinary panel and if such person's qualification for the award of a degree, diploma or certificate is or includes success in that examination, it shall be at the discretion of the Chair of such panel to order that he or she shall not be admitted to the degree, or receive the diploma or certificate, until the disciplinary proceedings have been completed, notwithstanding that he or she may have done all that is required by Statute or Ordinance for the award of the degree, diploma, or certificate. If the disciplinary panel finds that the accused person has committed an act of academic misconduct, it may advise the Vice-Chancellor to issue a notice amending the class-list for the examination or other list of approved candidates, or to issue an amended list superseding the original list; the Vice-Chancellor shall act in accordance with the advice of the disciplinary panel or, if an appeal is made, in accordance with the decision of the disciplinary appeal panel.

15. If any registered student intentionally or recklessly disrupts or impedes the proceedings of any of the aforesaid courts or other disciplinary panels, precautionary measures, as established under Special Ordinance, may be imposed.

IN COUNCIL

The Secretary of State for Justice, after giving ten days' notice of his intention to do so, has, under the Burial Act 1853 as amended, made representations to Her Majesty in Council that, subject to the exceptions below, burials should be discontinued in:-

- 1) Cheveley Churchyard Extension, St Mary & The Holy Host of Heaven, Cheveley, Cambridgeshire (also known as The Old Cemetery) (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto);
- 2) St Chad's Church Churchyard, Draycott, Derbyshire (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto);
- 3) St Peter's Churchyard, Frimley, Surrey (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto).

The exceptions are that, in the places numbered 2 and 3 above:-

- (a) in any vault or walled grave in the churchyard, burial may be allowed but every coffin in such vault or grave must be separately enclosed by stonework or brick work properly cemented;
- (b) in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave; and
- (c) in any grave space in which no interment has previously taken place, the burial may be allowed of any person for whom, or any member of the family for which that grave space has been reserved and appropriated, with the exclusive right of burial there, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give Notice of these representations and to order that they be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on 30th August 2022.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order should be published in the London Gazette, and that copies of it should be fixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of the above mentioned places, or displayed conspicuously inside them, for one month before 30th August 2022.
