

INDUCTEES WALL OF FAME

The Class of 2023

The Penn Relays Wall of Fame was created in 1994, to celebrate the Carnival's 100th running. The class of 2023, the 28th group of inductees, brings the total number of honorees to 123 individuals and 112 relay teams. This year's three individuals and three relay teams were selected by a panel of Penn Relays experts. The inductees are honored solely for their accomplishments at the Penn Relays; achievements in other meets are not considered. Nominations of relay teams and individuals will be accepted by the Penn Relays office at any time and from any interested party.

2007 MICHIGAN WOMEN'S 4X1500-METER RELAY

L-R: Katie Erdman, Nicole Edwards, Geena Gall, Anna Willard

The Wolverines broke the 17-year-old Penn Relays and collegiate record, clocking 17:15.62. Coached by Mike McGuire, the squad lowered the old records by two and a half seconds. Anna Willard, who ran the third leg, was named the college relay athlete of the meet.

The Relay Teams

2007 ST. JAGO HIGH SCHOOL BOYS 4X100-METER RELAY

L-R: Yohan Blake, Nickel Ashmeade, Riker Hylton, Andre Walsh

The St. Jago foursome clocked 39.96 to set a Carnival record. Coached by Danny Hawthorne, the Jamaican school, located in Spanish Town, became the first high school team to break 40 seconds at the Penn Relays.

2009 TEXAS A&M COLLEGE MEN'S 4X100-METER RELAY

Tran Howell, Gerald Phiri, Chris Dykes, Justin Oliver

The Aggies quartet ran 38.79, the second-fastest time ever at Penn at that point. The squad, coached by Pat Henry, ran faster than any earlier 4x100-meter team inducted into the Penn Relays Wall of Fame.

The Individuals

TANYA HUGHES

Great Mills (Maryland) High School 1990

The 1990 winner of the high school girls high jump as a senior, Tanya Hughes broke the Penn Relays record with a clearance of 6-0½ (1.84 meters). Hughes surpassed a six-year old record, and her mark still stands today, 33 years later. The jump was Hughes's best of the season, and was the second-highest clearance by an American high schooler that year.

YOHAN BLAKE

St. Jago (Spanish Town, Jamaica) High School 2007, Jamaica Gold 2010

As a high school junior in 2007, Yohan Blake anchored St. Jago's 4x100-meter team to a 39.96, setting a Penn Relays high school record and becoming the first high school team to break 40 seconds at the Carnival. Three years later, as a member of Jamaica's national team, he ran second leg on the winning USA vs. the World team with training mate Usain Bolt anchoring. Jamaica's winning time, in front of what remains the largest crowd in Relays history, was 37.90, which still stands as the Carnival record.

SONIA O'SULLIVAN

Villanova 1991

A winner of six Penn Relays watches, Sonia O'Sullivan was a bright star at Villanova. Her victories included two each in the 4x800, the 4x1500 and the distance medley. In both the 1989 and '90 4x1500 wins, O'Sullivan (second from right), clocked the fastest split among her teammates, with the winning times setting world bests on both occasions, the latter lasting for 17 years. Her lead-off on the DMR in 1990 sparked the victory as Villanova missed their own record by less than one second. The 1988 time (10:48.38) remained the fastest in the world for 18 years.

One of the most accomplished Jamaican athletes in recent memory, Shericka Jackson has stood atop the Penn Relays podium four times, anchoring Vere Tech's winning high school girls 4x100 in 2009 and 4x400 in 2011, and running on Jamaica's winners in the USA vs. the World 4x400 in 2017 (pictured) and 2019. At the Tokyo Olympics, Jackson was part of Jamaica's gold-medal winning 4x100 squad. She also won bronze in the 100 that year, and followed that up with a world title in the 200 in 2022 (along with silvers in the 100 and 4x100).

Sage Hurta-Klecker of the On Athletics Club broke 2:00 in the 800 meters for the first time in her career at the 2022 Penn Relays, winning the Olympic Development race in a 1:59.76.
