Sometimes books have deep lessons to teach. This is not one of them! This story is about fun and nonsense dogs. You can do some word rhyming with your child. Choose words from the story like dog or big and see what other words they know that rhyme with them.....big-dig-pig and dog, jog, hog.

Whether you have a dog or not, you can also talk about how silly these dogs in the story are but also how important it is for dogs to have good manners just like people. If you have a dog, this is an opportunity to talk about the importance of having your dog behave. If you don't have a dog, it's a good way to approach the subject of whether you have the time or space to have a dog. It always sounds like fun to have a pet but sometimes there are reasons for not having one, too.
