Third Magistrate Appointed For A.C.T.

A Broken Hill man has been appointed the third stipendiary magistrate for the A.C.T.

He is Mr. Kevin Townly Dobson, 42, whose appointment was announced yesterday by the Attorney-General, Sir Garfield Barwick.

Sir Garfield said that for proper organisation of the business of the Court one of the Magistrates had to be responsible for the general administrative arrangements in the Courts and the allocation of cases amongst the magistrates.

He was asking Mr. Dobson to accept this responsibility.

The other stipendiary magistrates are Mr. F. C. P. Keane, and Mr. Clarence Lindsay Hermes, who will assume duties in November.

First

Mr. Keane, now the only permanent stipendiary magistrate in the A.C.T., performs the duties of Licensing Magistrate and Coroner.

Mr. Keane was appointed in 1949, the first resident magistrate and Coroner for the A.C.T.

Two special magistrates, Mr. C. Denton, and Mr. W. Debenham, are assisting Mr. Keane.

Sir Garfield, announcing the appointment, said that Mr. Dobson was a solicitor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

He had been in the office of the N.S.W. Department of the Attorney-General and Justice since 1939.

He had occupied various offices in that department, including Chamber Magistrate at most city courthouses in Sydney. He was a stipendiary magistrate now at Broken Hill.

Mr. Dobson, who served with the R.A.A.F. in World War II, has been in Broken Hill for about 18 months.

As the only permanent resident stipendiary magistrate in Broken Hill, he is also the Coroner.

The appointment of Mr. Hermes was announced in the Commonwealth Gazette on October 10.

Cars banked up for almost four miles at Toorbul Point about 40 miles north of Brisbane at the Weekend for the opening of the Brisbane Island bridge by the Premier, Mr. Nicklin.

The £520,000 bridge was built to replace the punt which used to connect the mainland with the island which is renowned for its beaches.

None of the cars which crossed had to pay the 5/- toll which is to be levied to help pay for the bridge. Earlier Mr. Nicklin told the crowd of more than 3,000 people it was not the Government's object to leave the toll on the bridge any longer than was essential. "We will keep the toll under constant review" and it will be changed from time to time as circumstances warrant," he said.
