REGULATIONS

Preamble

- ¹ The FIFA World Cup™ is a FIFA event embodied in the FIFA Statutes.
- ² It is played as a preliminary competition and a final competition.
- ³ On 6 July 2000 the FIFA Executive Committee designated the German Football Association (DFB) as the Organising Association of the final competition for the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.
- ⁴ The German Football Association (DFB) has set up a Local Organising Committee (LOC) in the form of an internal division to organise the final competition, in accordance with the List of Requirements (LoR) and the Organising Association Agreement (OAA) between FIFA and the Organising Association.
- ⁵ The German Football Association and its Local Organising Committee are collectively referred to as the Organising Association. The Organising Association is subject to the supervision and control of FIFA, which has the last word on all matters relevant to the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.
- ⁶ Working relations between the Organising Association and FIFA are regulated in a special contract, the Organising Association Agreement (OAA), its annexes, the List of Requirements, FIFA guidelines and circulars as well as all applicable FIFA regulations.
- ⁷ Any rights associated with the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ which are not granted by these regulations and/or specific agreements to a participating association in the preliminary or final competition or to a confederation belong to FIFA.
- ⁸ The current FIFA Statutes and all current FIFA regulations shall apply. Any reference in these Regulations to the FIFA Statutes refers to the Statutes valid at the time of application and to all relevant FIFA regulations.
- ⁹ The Regulations for the 2006 FIFA World Cup Germany™ (the Regulations) regulate the rights, duties and responsibilities of all associations taking part in the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ and of the Organising Association by forming an integral part of the OAA. The Regulations and all guidelines and circulars issued by FIFA are binding for all parties participating and involved in the preparation, organisation and hosting of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.

I. Title – FIFA World Cup™

Art. 1

- ¹ The FIFA World Cup™ takes place every four years. The associations affiliated to FIFA are invited to participate with their representative team.
- ² A representative from FIFA will present the winner of the competition with the FIFA World Cup™ trophy, which remains the property of FIFA but may be kept by the winner until the draw for the final competition of the next FIFA World Cup™. The winner will be awarded a replica of the FIFA World Cup™ trophy as its permanent possession.
- ³ The winner shall be responsible for the loss of, or damage to the FIFA World Cup™ trophy and shall return it in perfect condition. FIFA is responsible for engraving the FIFA World Cup™ trophy and will issue guidelines for its use.
- ⁴ If, for any reason, the competition should cease to be held, the FIFA World Cup™ trophy shall be returned to the FIFA general secretariat immediately upon demand.
- ⁵ The associations which take part in the final competition will each be awarded a souvenir plaque.
- ⁶ Those associations ranked first, second, third and fourth in the final competition will each receive a diploma.
- ⁷ 45 (forty-five) medals will be presented to each of the three top teams in the final competition, i.e. gold medals to the winner, silver medals to the team ranked second and bronze medals to the team ranked third. No further medals will be awarded.
- ⁸ The team ranked fourth will receive an award.
- ⁹ The referees, assistant referees and fourth officials at the play-off for third place and final match will each receive an award.

II. Organisation of FIFA

Art. 2

- ¹ the Executive Committee is FIFA's executive body;
- ² the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ is responsible for the organisation of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ in accordance with all FIFA regulations;

- ⁴ the Disciplinary Committee and the Appeal Committee have the responsibilities set forth in the FIFA Disciplinary Code, which apply accordingly;
- ⁵ the FIFA Sports Medical Committee has the responsibilities set forth in its list of duties.
- ⁶ In accordance with the Organising Association Agreement entered into by FIFA and the Organising Association, the Organising Association shall undertake to comply with these Regulations, the List of Requirements, all applicable FIFA regulations, guidelines and circulars as well as the applicable national and supra-national laws.

III. Entries for the competition

Art. 3

- ¹ As a rule, every association affiliated to FIFA may participate in the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.
- ² The associations shall complete and send the official entry form to the FIFA general secretariat by the deadline stipulated in Art. 4 (preliminary competition) and Art. 5 (final competition). Only the entry forms sent to the FIFA general secretariat by the deadline set will be valid and taken into consideration. Entries sent by telefax or e-mail shall be confirmed on the official entry form.
- ³ On entering the competition, the participating associations shall automatically undertake:
 - (a) to observe the regulations, decisions, guidelines and circulars issued by FIFA as well as the applicable national and supra-national laws;
 - (b) to accept that all the administrative, disciplinary and refereeing matters connected with the preliminary and final competitions shall be settled by FIFA in compliance with these Regulations or the decisions of the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™;
 - (c) to accept all the arrangements made by the Organising Association for the final competition in agreement with FIFA;
 - (d) to observe the principles of fair play;
 - (e) to accept (and to secure its players' and officials' written acceptance prior to the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ the use and/or sub-licence by FIFA of any of the records, names and images of the association (including its marks) and its players and officials, including any still and moving representation thereof, which may appear or be generated in connection with the participation of the association and its players and officials in the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ (including both the preliminary and final competitions).

FIFA's right to use and/or sub-licence such records, names and images of the association (including its marks) and its players and officials shall be exclusive in respect of, or in connection with, the filming, recording, broadcasting and any other form of transmission of the records, names, images and association marks (including, but not limited to television, film images for broadcast or other transmission) in connection with the final competition of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.

FIFA's right to use and/or sub-licence such records, names and images of the association (including its marks) and its players and officials, including any still and moving representation thereof which may appear or be generated in connection with the participation of the association and its players and officials in the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ (including both the preliminary and final competitions) shall, other than as outlined above, be non-exclusive, and be limited to activities, which

 - (i) are associated with the participation of the association, players and officials in the 2006 FIFA World Cup™;
 - (ii) do not directly promote, or directly cause the promotion of, any direct association between any association, its players or officials and any third party other than FIFA.

² Entries shall be accompanied by a fee of CHF 3,000.– payable to the FIFA account with UBS AG, Bahnhofstrasse 45, 8021 Zurich, Switzerland, SWIFT address: UBSW CH ZH 80A, CHF Account No. 325.519.30U, USD Account No. 325.519.61Y.

B. Final competition

Art. 5

Associations entitled to take part in the final competition shall confirm their participation by sending the official entry form, duly completed, to the FIFA general secretariat by 23 November 2005.

IV. Organisation of the competition

Art. 6

¹ The competition shall consist of two parts:

- (a) the preliminary competition;
- (b) the final competition.

² The Organising Association's representative team, the German Football Association, automatically qualifies for the final competition.

A. Preliminary competition

Art. 7

¹ The FIFA Executive Committee decided to allocate the following number of slots to the confederations for the 2006 FIFA World Cup™:

- Europe (UEFA): 14 (including host Germany)
- Asia (AFC): 4.5
- South America (CONMEBOL): 4.5
- Oceania (OFC): 0.5
- Africa (CAF): 5
- North, Central America, Caribbean (CONCACAF): 3.5

² The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ forms groups and/or sub-groups for the preliminary competition by seeding and drawing lots whilst taking sports, geographic and economic factors into consideration, as far as possible. The preliminary draw will take place in Frankfurt am Main (Germany) on 5 December 2003.

³ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ decides on the playing system, the group formation and the duration of the preliminary competition. Such decisions are final. In the case of any withdrawals, the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ may change the groups in accordance with the provisions of par. 2 above.

⁴ The preliminary competition is scheduled to begin on 28 February 2004 and last until 6 November 2005. Any play-offs shall have been played by 20 November 2005.

- ⁵ The matches in the preliminary competition shall be played in accordance with one of the following three systems:
- (a) in groups composed of several teams on a home and an away basis, with three points for a win, one point for a draw, no points for a defeat (league system);
 - (b) one home and one away match per team (knock-out system);
 - (c) by way of exception and only with the permission of the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™, in the form of a tournament in one of the participating countries or on neutral territory.

⁶ When matches are played in accordance with system (a) or (b), home matches may not be played in another country without the express permission of the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™.

⁷ In the league system the ranking in each group is determined as follows:

- (a) greater number of points obtained in all the group matches;

If two or more teams are equal on the basis of the above criterion, their ranking shall be determined as follows:

- (b) greater number of points obtained in the group matches between the teams concerned;
- (c) goal difference resulting from the group matches between the teams concerned;
- (d) greater number of goals scored in the group matches between the teams concerned;
- (e) goal difference in all the group matches;
- (f) greater number of goals scored in all the group matches;
- (g) a play-off on neutral ground.

⁸ With the approval of the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™, the play-off may be played in one of the countries concerned. If, after 90 minutes, this match ends in a draw, extra time of twice 15 minutes shall be played. If the score is level after extra time, penalty kicks shall be taken to determine the winner (cf. Art. 17, par. 2 and 3).

⁹ In the knock-out system, both teams shall play one home and one away match each, the sequence of which will be determined by lots drawn by the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™. The team having scored most goals in both games will qualify for the next round. If both teams score the same number of goals in both matches, the goals scored away will be counted as double. If the same number of goals is scored away or both matches end without any goals being scored, extra time of twice 15 minutes shall be played after the second match. If the score is level after extra time, penalty kicks shall be taken to determine the winner (cf. Art. 17, par. 2 and 3).

¹¹ The venues of the matches (if not already decided under par. 10) in the preliminary competition shall be fixed by the host association concerned. Their opponents and the FIFA general secretariat shall be notified by the host association at least 2 (two) months before the match in question is due to be played. If the associations cannot agree on the venues for the matches in the preliminary competition, the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall make the final decisions.

¹⁴ If the host association considers the pitch unfit for play, the FIFA general secretariat shall be informed immediately, as well as the visiting association and the match officials before their departure. If the host association fails to do this, it will be obliged to cover all of the expenses incurred for travel, board and lodging of the parties involved.

¹⁶ If a match is interrupted before the completion of normal playing time or extra time because of extreme weather or for reasons outside the control of the host association, a repeat match lasting 90 minutes shall be arranged for the following day, thus avoiding considerable extra expense for the visiting association. If it is still impossible to play the match the next day for the same reasons, the match may be postponed by another day, provided both associations agree. If the match can still not be played on the third day, the expenses thus incurred by the visiting association shall be split between the two associations.

¹⁷ The matches may be played in daylight or under floodlight. Matches played at night may be played only at venues where the floodlighting installations meet the minimum lighting requirements laid down by FIFA in the relevant regulations and/or guidelines. The guidelines state that, in the case of matches played at night, the whole pitch shall be evenly lit to at least 1200 lux. An emergency power generator shall also be available which, in the event of a power failure, guarantees at least two-thirds of the aforementioned intensity of light for the whole pitch. The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ is entitled to grant exceptions, which shall be final.

¹⁸ Financial arrangements for costs incurred by the visiting association such as travel, board and lodging as the result of playing a match shall be mutually agreed upon among the associations concerned (cf. Art. 42). Any disputes arising therefrom may be submitted to the FIFA Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ for a final decision to be taken.

¹⁹ All matches of the preliminary competition shall be identified, promoted and advertised as qualifying matches for the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ in accordance with the guidelines to be established by FIFA.

B. Final competition

Art. 8

¹ The final competition is scheduled to be staged in June/July 2006.

² The Organising Association's team qualifies automatically for the final competition.

³ The FIFA Executive Committee fixed the number of teams taking part in the final competition of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ Germany at 32, namely the Organising Association's representative team, Germany, and the 31 other teams that qualify from the preliminary competition.

⁴ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall form groups for the final competition by seeding and drawing lots whilst taking sports, geographic and economic factors into consideration, as far as possible. The final draw is due to take place in Germany in December 2005.

⁵ The decisions of the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ on the group formation and the duration of the final competition are final. In the case of any withdrawals, the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ may change the groups in accordance with the provisions of par. 4.

⁶ Each team taking part in the final competition shall have arrived in the team hotel reserved for it in the host country at least 5 (five) days before its first match. Only official team hotels shall be used for accommodation.

Venues, dates and kick-off times for the matches in the final competition

Art. 9

¹ The venues, stadiums, dates and kick-off times for the matches as well as the official training sites shall be submitted by the Organising Association to the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ for prior approval.

² The matches may be played in daylight or under floodlight. Matches played at night may be played only at venues where the floodlighting installations meet the minimum lighting requirements set forth by FIFA in the relevant regulations and guidelines.

³ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall fix the dates and venues of the matches in the final competition, allowing each team a rest period of at least 48 hours between each match.

⁵ The teams will be entitled to warm up on the pitch before the match, weather permitting.

⁶ The stadiums and the official training sites shall be available and shall be free of any and all commercial activities and identifications, e.g. boards and other signage other than those of FIFA's Commercial Affiliates, at least 10 (ten) days prior to the first match played in a stadium or training session held in the respective official training sites. These stadiums and official training sites shall not be used for any other matches or events as from 10 (ten) days prior to and throughout the final competition without the express permission of the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™.

⁸ As from 5 (five) days prior to their first match up to their elimination, the teams participating in the final competition shall use only those training sites which have been officially designated for training by FIFA. If a team's preparation site is used as an official training site, par. 6 shall apply.

V. Withdrawal, penalty for failing to play and replacement

A. Preliminary competition

Art. 10

- ¹ Associations that have entered a team shall play all preliminary competition matches.
- ² Associations that withdraw after having entered a team will forfeit the entry fee (cf. Art. 4, par. 2).
- ³ Associations that withdraw between the preliminary draw and the start of the preliminary competition are liable to a fine of CHF 20,000 in addition to forfeiting the entry fee.
- ⁴ Associations that withdraw after the start of the preliminary competition are liable to a fine of CHF 40,000 in addition to forfeiting the entry fee.
- ⁵ A association that withdraws prior to, or is excluded from playing in, the preliminary competition may be replaced by another association. The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall make the relevant decision.
- ⁶ If a team does not report for a match – except in cases of force majeure recognised by the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ – or if it refuses to continue to play or leaves the stadium before the end of a match, the team shall be considered as having lost. The match and three points shall be awarded to its opponents with a score of 3-0 or more if, in the case of an abandoned match, the winning team has already reached a higher score at the time the guilty team leaves the field.
- ⁷ The guilty team shall, as a general rule, be excluded from further participation in the competition so that none of its matches will be deemed valid, unless the incidents mentioned in par. 6 occurred at its last match. In addition, the guilty association shall pay compensation for any damages or losses suffered by the other association(s) and by FIFA. Furthermore, the guilty association shall be disqualified from taking part in the next FIFA World Cup™ and shall forfeit any claim to financial remuneration from FIFA. Further measures can be taken by the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™.
- ⁸ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall take whatever action is deemed necessary in cases of force majeure (cf. Art 49).

B. Final competition

Art. 11

- ¹ Associations that qualify for the final competition shall play every match in the final competition until they are eliminated.
- ² If a team refuses to play in the final competition, it shall be disqualified, unless Art. 49 of these Regulations is applicable.
- ³ If a association that has qualified for the final competition withdraws between the draw and the start of the final competition, it shall be fined between at least CHF 250,000 and a maximum of CHF 500,000.
- ⁴ If a association withdraws during the final competition, it shall be fined between at least CHF 500,000 and a maximum of CHF 1,000,000. The association shall be held responsible for any damages or losses arising from its withdrawal.
- ⁵ A association that withdraws prior to, or is excluded from playing in, the final competition may be replaced by another association. The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ passes the relevant decision.
- ⁶ Depending on circumstances and the decision of the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™, any association that withdraws may be ordered to reimburse FIFA and the Organising Association for any expenses the latter have already incurred as a result of their involvement in the final competition, and also pay compensation for any damages or losses suffered.
- ⁷ If the circumstances of withdrawal are sufficiently serious, the Disciplinary Committee may also take whatever additional action is appropriate under the terms of the Disciplinary Code, including the right to suspend the association concerned from the subsequent FIFA World Cup(s)™, or from any other FIFA competition.
- ⁸ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall determine the damages and/or losses suffered upon receipt and review of a substantiated and documented request from the party or parties that claim to have suffered the damages or losses.
- ⁹ If, through the fault of any association, a match cannot take place or be played in its entirety, the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall declare the match to be forfeited (awarding victory and the resultant three points to the opposing team as well as the score of 3-0, or more, if the opposing team has already achieved a higher score) and shall eliminate the guilty team from the competition.

¹⁰ No appeals may be lodged against these decisions. Furthermore the guilty association shall forfeit any claim to financial remuneration from FIFA.

¹¹ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall take whatever action is deemed necessary in the case of force majeure (cf. Art. 49).

VI. Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™

Art. 12

¹ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™, appointed by the FIFA Executive Committee, is responsible for the organisation of the competition in accordance with the FIFA Statutes.

² The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ may, if deemed necessary, appoint a bureau and/or one or more sub-committee(s) to deal with urgent matters. Any decision taken by a bureau or the sub-committee(s) shall come into effect immediately but shall be subject to confirmation by the plenary committee at its next meeting.

³ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ draws up the Regulations for the 2006 FIFA World Cup Germany™. These Regulations are subject to approval by the FIFA Executive Committee.

⁶ The decisions taken by the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ are final and binding.

VII. Disciplinary measures and appeals

Art. 13

Disciplinary measures and appeals are dealt with in compliance with the current FIFA Disciplinary Code (FDC) and the relevant FIFA circular(s).

VIII. Protests

Art. 14

¹ Subject to the following provisions, protests are objections of any kind to occurrences that have a direct effect on matches organised in the preliminary and final competitions of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ (state and markings of the pitch, accessory match equipment, eligibility of players, stadium installations, footballs etc.).

² Unless otherwise stipulated in this article, protests shall first be submitted in writing to the FIFA match commissioner or the FIFA general coordinator within two hours of the match and followed up immediately with a full written report, including a copy of the original protest, to be sent in writing to the FIFA general secretariat or, during the final competition, to the FIFA headquarters in the host country. In the preliminary competition, the plaintiff association shall confirm the protest by registered letter, to be sent to the FIFA general secretariat no later than 2 (two) days after the match in question.

³ Protests against any incidents that occur during the course of a match shall be made to the referee by the team captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has been resumed. ⁶ Once the final match of the 2006 FIFA World Cup Germany™ has ended, any protests described in this article shall be disregarded.

IX. Arbitration

Art. 15

¹ Pursuant to the FIFA Statutes, associations are forbidden from taking disputes to a civil court but may only submit them to the appropriate body at FIFA in accordance with the applicable procedure.

² Furthermore, any disputes involving FIFA, the Organising Association, associations, confederations, leagues, clubs, players, officials and licensed agents in connection with the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ shall be promptly settled by negotiation.

⁴ Disputes between FIFA and the Organising Association shall be settled as set forth in the Organising Association Agreement.

X. Matches played in accordance with the Laws of the Game

Art. 16

¹ All matches shall be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game laid down by the International Football Association Board and published by FIFA.

² Panels or electronic display boards, numbered on both sides for clarity, shall be used to indicate:

(a) the substitution of players;

(b) the number of minutes to be allowed for lost time in accordance with Art. 17, par. 6.

³ In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the Laws of the Game, the English version is authoritative.

XI. Duration of matches, extra time, determining the winner by penalty kicks

Art. 17

¹ Each match shall last 90 minutes, comprising two periods of 45 minutes, with an interval of 15 minutes in between.

² If, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, extra time shall be played as the result of a draw at the end of normal playing time, it shall always consist of two periods of 15 minutes each, with an interval of five minutes at the end of normal playing time, but not between the two periods of extra time.

⁵ At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, either orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. This applies also to the two periods of 15 minutes of extra time. Each allowance for lost time shall be shown on the panels or electronic display boards of the fourth official.

⁷ If, through force majeure, a match is cancelled before the start of the match, the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall decide whether the match can be rescheduled, taking sporting and organisational considerations into account, or whether any other action and decision is needed to continue with the competition. Any disciplinary sanctions resulting from the cancelled match shall remain in force.

⁸ No appeals may be lodged against decisions stated in Art. 17 par. 7 and 8.

XII. Stadiums, fields of play, footballs

Art. 18

¹ Each association organising matches in the preliminary competition shall ensure that the stadiums and facilities in which the matches take place fulfil the requirements described in the FIFA Technical Recommendations and Requirements for the Construction or Modernisation of Football Stadia and comply with the safety and security standards and other FIFA guidelines and instructions for international matches. The fields of play, accessory equipment and facilities shall be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game.

² Periodic safety checks for the benefit of spectators, players and officials shall be carried out on the stadiums selected for matches in the preliminary competition by the authorities responsible and recorded every 2 (two) years on an official safety certificate. The associations shall provide FIFA with a copy of the relevant safety certificate at least 2 (two) months before each match in the preliminary competition.

³ As a general rule, the preliminary and final competition matches may only be played in all-seater stadiums. If only stadiums with both seating and standing areas are available, the standing space shall remain vacant.

⁴ Matches may be played on natural or artificial surfaces. Where artificial surfaces are used, the surface must meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Concept for artificial turf or the International Artificial Turf Standard, unless special dispensation is given by FIFA.

⁵ The Organising Association shall, in conjunction with the relevant government authority, guarantee that the stadiums and facilities chosen for the final competition fulfil FIFA requirements and comply with the standards of safety required for international matches. They shall be subject to approval by the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™. The fields of play, accessory equipment and facilities shall be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game. The fields of play shall have the following dimensions: length 105 m, breadth 68 m.

Art. 19

“FIFA APPROVED”,

“FIFA INSPECTED” or

“INTERNATIONAL MATCH BALL STANDARD”.

² Pursuant to the Laws of the Game, the manufacturer’s authorised trademark (as a graphic logo or a name, or a graphic logo and a name combined) may only be used once provided the size of the trademark does not exceed 50 cm². The name of the football may be displayed and shall not exceed 50 cm².

³ The footballs for the preliminary competition shall be supplied by the host association.

⁴ The footballs for the final competition shall be selected and supplied by FIFA.

XIII. Organising Association's responsibilities and the participating associations' guarantees

A. Organising Association

Art. 20

¹ The Organising Association's obligations and responsibilities are stipulated in the Organising Association Agreement (OAA), its annexes and amendments, the FIFA List of Requirements and in these Regulations and other FIFA regulations, guidelines and circulars and any other agreements reached between FIFA and the Organising Association.

² The Organising Association and the relevant government authorities are responsible for devising, planning and implementing adequate security and safety for the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ at every relevant location for all relevant persons at all times. A suitable security plan shall be issued in the form of a binding declaration on all parties involved.

⁴ All costs for security and insurance shall be borne by the government authorities and the Organising Association.

Art. 21

The Organising Association shall discharge FIFA from all responsibility and relinquish any claim against FIFA and the members of its delegation for any damages resulting from any act or omission relating to the organisation and course of the competition with the exception of damages caused by FIFA or the members of its delegation acting with intent or gross negligence.

Art. 22

¹ The Organising Association shall conclude the contracts required for organising matches in its own name and for its own account. The same provision shall apply to agreements concluded with government authorities.

² The Organising Association shall exempt (indemnify and hold harmless) FIFA from all third party claims for damages relating to match organisation, regardless of whether the individual matches in question take place or not.

B. Participating associations

Art. 23

¹ All participating associations in the 2006 FIFA World Cup™, regardless of their function, shall conclude adequate insurance cover.

² Unless otherwise mentioned under Art. 7 and Art. 8, each association taking part in the preliminary and final competitions shall be responsible, amongst other matters, for:

- (a) complying with all regulations, guidelines and instructions issued by FIFA;
- (b) the behaviour of the members of its delegation (officials and players), and of any person carrying out duties on behalf of the association throughout the entire competition, from their arrival in the host country until their departure;
- (c) concluding compulsory health, accident and travel insurance cover for all the members of its delegation;
- (d) paying for incidental expenses incurred by its delegation members during the course of their stay in the host country and for any costs incurred by additional members of the delegation;
- (e) paying for any costs of extending their stay, the duration of which is determined by FIFA;
- (f) applying for visas in good time from the host country, if necessary;
- (g) attending media conferences and other official media events organised by FIFA in accordance with the guidelines and/or instructions in circulars issued by FIFA regarding, in particular, media access to the teams.

³ Unless otherwise mentioned under Art. 7, each association hosting a match in the preliminary competition shall be responsible, among other matters, for:

- (a) guaranteeing, planning and implementing, in conjunction with the relevant authorities, law and order as well as safety and security in the stadiums and other relevant locations;
- (b) obtaining adequate insurance cover for all risks relating to the match organisation, including but not limited to public liability insurance. FIFA shall be expressly identified as a named insured party in all such insurance policies;

(c) providing a video cassette of each home match to the match commissioner immediately after the match.

⁴ Each association taking part in the final competition shall ensure, as a condition of its participation in the 2006 FIFA World Cup Germany™, that every member of its delegation (players and officials) completes an entry form to be issued by FIFA.

XIV. Eligibility of players, list of players

Art. 24

¹ Each association shall take the following provisions into account when selecting its representative team:

(a) all the players shall be citizens of its country and subject to its jurisdiction;

(b) all the players shall be eligible for selection in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes.

² Any team found guilty of fielding an ineligible player shall forfeit the match. Victory and the resultant three points will be awarded to the opposing team as well as the score of 3-0, or greater, depending on the score of the match.

Art. 25

A. Preliminary competition

¹ Each association entering the preliminary competition shall send the FIFA general secretariat a provisional list of at least 50 prospective players for the preliminary competition no later than 30 (thirty) days before its first qualifying match. This list shall show each player's last name, first name, club, date of birth and passport number as well as the coach's last name, first name, date of birth and nationality.

² This list is not binding. Further players may be added, showing the same information, up to seven (7) full days before any qualifying match.

³ 18 players may be entered on the official players' list (11 players and 7 substitutes).

⁴ If a group holds all its qualifying matches in one venue (in the form of a tournament), then up to 23 players may be entered on the official players' list (11 players and 12 substitutes).

B. Final competition

¹ Each association that qualifies for the final competition may enter 23 players (three of whom shall be goalkeepers) numbered from 1 to 23. The numbers on the back of the shirts shall correspond with the numbers indicated on the official players' list. The number 1 shall be worn by a goalkeeper.

² The list of not more than 23 players (showing the full last name(s), every first name, popular name, name on the shirt, position, place and date of birth, passport number, club and country of the club) shall be submitted to the FIFA general secretariat, using the official form for this purpose, no later than 14 (fourteen) full days before the opening match in the final competition. Only these 23 players (except in the case of force majeure recognised by the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™) will be permitted to compete in the final competition.

⁴ 23 players shall be included in the starting list for the match (11 selected players and 12 substitutes). Up to a maximum of three of the substitutes may take the place of the selected players at any time during the match.

⁵ An official accreditation card with photograph shall be issued to the players and officials of each team by the Organising Association.

⁶ Only those players who are in possession of such an accreditation card are entitled to play in the matches of the final competition. The accreditation card shall always be available for inspection prior to the start of the match.

⁷ The official lists of 23 players will be published by the FIFA general secretariat.

XV. Doping control

Art. 26

² Doping is any attempt by a player himself, or at the instigation of another person, to enhance his mental and/or physical performance unphysiologically or to treat ailments or injury (when this is medically unjustified), for the sole purpose of taking part in a competition.

³ The use of a substance or a procedure intended to destroy or tamper with samples of urine or other substances being examined in doping tests also constitutes an act of doping.

⁴ Every association taking part in the preliminary and/or final competition shall pledge to comply with the Doping Control Regulations for the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ by signing the Declaration of Agreement sent to the associations with the entry form.

⁵ The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ reserves the right to carry out:

- (a) random doping tests during the preliminary competition;
- (b) arrange doping tests at all matches and training sessions and at any time prior to and during the entire final competition in agreement with the FIFA Sports Medical Committee;
- (c) urine tests or urine and blood tests at the proposal of the Sports Medical Committee.

⁶ Only the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ may decide at which laboratories (among those accredited by the World Anti Doping Agency WADA) and by whom the analyses shall be carried out.

⁸ Any official who encourages or incites a player, either intentionally or through negligence, to commit such an infringement as described in par. 7 above shall be referred to the Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ for sanctions to be imposed.

⁹ The current version of the Doping Control Regulations for FIFA Competitions and out of Competition, and the FIFA Disciplinary Code apply to the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.

XVI. Team colours and numbers on team outfits, advertising on sports equipment and other material

Art. 27

¹ Each team shall wear its official colours according to the entry forms sent to the FIFA general secretariat (cf. Art. 3 par. 2 for the preliminary competition and Art. 5 for the final competition).

² In addition to the official outfit, each team shall have a reserve outfit (reserve colours), which shall also be declared on the entry form. The colours of the reserve outfit (shirt, shorts and socks) shall be noticeably different from and contrast with the colours of the official outfit (shirt, shorts and socks). The reserve outfit shall also be taken to every match.

³ If, in the opinion of the referee or the match commissioner, the colours worn by two opposing teams might cause confusion or prove unsuitable for television broadcasts, they shall be modified, using either the entire reserve outfit or a combination of both.

⁴ The goalkeepers shall wear colours contrasting with those of the two teams and the referee.

⁵ No item of kit worn by a field player (shirt, shorts and socks) may consist of more than three colours. This provision does not apply to the colours used for letters and numbers (player's name and number). If three colours are used, one shall be clearly predominant on the shirt, shorts and socks and the other two colours shall clearly be minor colours. The predominant colour shall be visible to the same extent on the back and front of the shirt and shorts. Exceptionally, a fourth colour may be used but only provided that it is the same as that used for the lettering or features permanently in the national emblem of the country concerned and covers only a very small area of the shirt as a purely decorative element; this restriction does not apply to the area for the lettering. The fourth colour is defined as a "decorative colour".

⁶ If thermal shorts are used, they shall be the same colour as the main colour of the shorts.

A. Preliminary competition

¹ Each team shall wear its official colours as declared on the official entry form (cf. Art. 3, par. 2). If the two teams' colours might cause confusion, the host team shall be entitled to wear its official outfit and the visiting team shall use its reserve outfit or, if necessary, a combination of the official and the reserve outfit.

² Each player shall wear a number. The colour of the numbers must contrast clearly with the outfits (light on dark or vice versa) and be legible from a distance for spectators in the stadium and television viewers. This applies especially in the case of striped shirts. A plain coloured background (either entirely light or dark, depending on the colour of the numbers) affords better legibility. These numbers shall be between 25 cm and 35 cm in height in the centre of the back of the shirt, between 10 cm and 15 cm in height on the front of the shirt in any position at chest level, and between 10 cm and 15 cm in height in any position on the front of either leg of the shorts. None of the numbers may contain advertising, design features or other elements.

B. Final competition

¹ Each team shall wear its official colours as declared on the official entry form (cf. Art. 5). If the two teams' colours might cause confusion, team A of the official match schedule shall be entitled to wear its official outfit and team B shall use its reserve outfit or, if necessary, a combination of the official and the reserve outfit. The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ decides the matter.

² Throughout the final competition, each player shall wear the number allotted to him on the official players' list (cf. Art. 25). The colour of the numbers must contrast clearly with the outfits (light on dark or vice versa) and be legible from a distance for spectators in the stadium and television viewers. This applies especially in the case of striped shirts. A plain coloured background (either entirely light or dark, depending on the colour of the numbers) affords better legibility. These numbers shall be between 25 cm and 35 cm in height in the centre of the back of the shirt, between 10 cm and 15 cm in height on the front of the shirt in any position at chest level, and between 10 cm and 15 cm in height in any position on the front of either leg of the shorts. None of the numbers may contain advertising, design features or other elements.

⁴ At a date to be fixed by FIFA, the participating associations shall send FIFA a sample of the official and reserve outfits (shirt, shorts, socks, goalkeeper's kit etc.) for approval as well as the goalkeeper's gloves and cap intended for use during the final competition.

⁵ The FIFA Equipment Regulations governing the sports equipment and the colours to be used by players, goalkeepers and team officials at the final competition apply to any article worn or equipment used by a participating association.

Art. 28

¹ With the exception of the manufacturer's trademark, no kind of identification of sponsors or any other third party or slogans of a political, commercial, religious or racist nature or any other slogans are permitted on any garments or equipment of players and goalkeepers (shirts, vests, shorts, thermal shorts, socks, gloves, caps, underwear etc.) in the entire pitch area.

² Furthermore, no recognition of the above-mentioned nature is allowed to be visible, in any manner on the body of players, goalkeepers, other team officials or elsewhere. If a association and/or its players fail to comply with the above obligations, they will be liable to sanctions by the FIFA Disciplinary Committee.

³ The manufacturer's authorised trademark may be used only once as a graphic logo or name, or graphic logo and name combined (in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations), and shall not exceed the following measurements:

- shirt: 20 cm² (on the chest)
- shorts: 20 cm² (on either leg)
- socks: 20 cm² (between the ankle and the top edge)
- thermal shorts: 20 cm² (on either leg)
- goalkeeper's gloves: 20 cm² (a "design mark" or a "word mark", or a "design mark" and a "word mark" combined, measuring a maximum of 20 cm² on each of the goalkeeper's gloves)

- wristbands: 20 cm²
- track suit jacket: 20 cm²
- track suit shorts/trousers: 20 cm²

⁴ The association's emblem may also be worn as a badge on the shirt, shorts and each sock but may not exceed 100 cm² on the shirt, 50 cm² on the shorts and 50 cm² on each sock or feature any advertising or other elements.

⁵ The emblem or name (or abbreviation) of the association may also be displayed on the shirt and/or shorts in jacquard weave provided that the colour is similar to that of the shirt or shorts into which it is woven and that it does not prevent the kit from being easily distinguished from the opposing team's kit. It is not compulsory for the emblem or name (or abbreviation) on the shirt to appear in jacquard weave but it may also be printed or affixed in a similar manner provided that it does not predominate and prevent the kit from being easily distinguished from the opposing team's kit.

⁶ The emblem of the national flag may also be worn on the shirt, shorts and on each sock and shall not feature any advertising, design or other elements and not exceed the following measurements:

- shirt: 25 cm² each, if positioned once on the left and/or once on the right sleeve or 25 cm² each, if positioned once on the back above the number and/or once on the front at chest height
- shorts: 25 cm² on the right or left leg
- socks: 25 cm² to be positioned at will

⁷ The official designation and/or the logo of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ shall be printed or affixed to the equipment in accordance with FIFA's instructions and the applicable graphic standards.

⁸ For the final competition, any and all form of advertising or commercial identification on any garments or equipment other than in accordance with these Regulations (including on T-shirts, track suits, jackets, wristbands etc.) or on other material and/or accessories (kit bags, beverage containers, plastic bottles, medical bags etc.) belonging to players, goalkeepers, team officials etc. is strictly prohibited inside the stadium and during all official FIFA press conferences.

⁹ All items to be used by a participating association in the entire pitch area shall be subject to FIFA's prior approval in accordance with the procedure set forth by FIFA.

¹⁰ The FIFA Equipment Regulations governing the sports equipment to be used by players, goalkeepers and team officials at the final competition shall apply to anything worn or any equipment used by a participating association.

XVII. Referees, assistant referees, fourth officials

Art. 29

¹ A referee, two assistant referees and a fourth official will be appointed for each match of the preliminary and the final competitions.

² The referees, assistant referees and fourth officials chosen for the matches of the preliminary and the final competitions shall come from a association whose team is not included in the same group as the matches in question. They shall be selected from the current FIFA international list.

³ The referees, assistant referees and fourth officials officiating at the matches shall be appointed by the FIFA Referees and Assistant Referees Committee.

⁴ The decisions of the FIFA Referees and Assistant Referees Committee are final and not subject to appeal.

⁵ If the referee or one of his assistants is prevented from carrying out his duties before or during a match as a result of injury, indisposition etc., he shall be replaced by the fourth official.

⁷ On the report form, the referee shall note all occurrences before, during, and after the match in as much detail as possible, such as:

- (a) misconduct of players, leading to caution or expulsion;
- (b) unsporting behaviour of officials, supporters and any person acting on behalf of a association at a match;
- (c) any other incidents.

⁸ The referees, assistant referees and fourth officials receive their official refereeing outfits and equipment from FIFA. They shall wear only these outfits and equipment on match days.

The final competition shall be played in two rounds.

The associations shall further inform their commercial affiliates in writing of the associations' obligations in this respect and shall, in particular, notify their commercial affiliates that they may not conduct any promotional activities which involve the use of the official emblem, the official mascot(s) or any marks which are confusingly similar to FIFA's marks relating to the final competition of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™. XX. Financial provisions and ticketing

A. Preliminary competition

Art. 42

¹ All the revenue from the exploitation of the commercial rights for the preliminary competition matches belong to the host association and, with the income from ticket sales, form the gross receipts.

² The following expenditure shall be deducted from the gross receipts:

- (a) a levy of 2% (minimum CHF 1,000) in favour of FIFA and the levy due to the confederation in accordance with the confederation's statutes and regulations after deduction of the taxes mentioned under item 2(b). The levies due to FIFA and the confederations shall be paid within 60 (sixty) days after the match at the official rate of exchange on the day the payment is due;
- (b) state, provincial and municipal taxes as well as the hire of the ground not exceeding 30% (cf. the Regulations Governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes).

³ The participating associations shall settle the other costs among themselves. If no agreement is reached, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) the visiting association shall pay for its delegation's own travel costs to the venue and/or the nearest airport;
- (b) the host association shall pay for expenses incurred by the stay (board and lodging in a first-class hotel, domestic transport) for a maximum of 25 persons for a duration depending on flight connections;
- (c) the host association shall pay for board and lodging in a first-class hotel and domestic transport in the host country for referees, assistant referees, fourth officials, the match commissioner, the referee assessor and any other FIFA officials (i.e. security officer, media officer etc.), if officially appointed by FIFA.

⁴ If the financial outcome of a match in the preliminary competition is insufficient to cover the expenses mentioned under par. 2 above, the host association shall bear the deficit.

⁵ FIFA shall pay for the following:

- (a) international travel costs (by air: domestic and continental in economy class, intercontinental in business class; rail/sleeper in first class) and the daily allowances, as fixed by FIFA, for referees, assistant referees and fourth officials;

⁶ The host association shall set aside an appropriate number – to be fixed by mutual agreement – of complimentary and purchasable tickets for the visiting association.

⁷ The host association shall, upon request and free of charge, provide FIFA with 10 (ten) VIP box tickets and up to 40 (forty) category 1 tickets for each match.

B. Final competition

If, contrary to any such request by FIFA, any association elects not to use FIFA's designated air carrier or an appropriate network alliance partner of such designated air carrier, or if any association elects to charter a private aircraft for the air travel of its delegation, FIFA's obligation under this par. 3 (b) will be limited to the amount FIFA would have incurred had the association used FIFA's designated air carrier for its delegation's air travel;
- (c) a contribution towards the costs of board and lodging for 45 people from each participating association in accordance with a set tariff to be fixed in due course, starting 5 (five) days prior to each team's first match and ending 2 (two) days after its last match. The Organising Committee for the FIFA World Cup™ shall determine these rates based on the Finance Committee's proposal;
- (d) the costs incurred by referees, assistant referees, fourth officials, referee assessors and match commissioners;

⁴ The remaining risks – especially those of the Organising Association – shall be covered by supplementary insurance contracts, the premiums of which shall be charged to the Organising Association. To avoid duplication or insufficient insurance cover, these contracts and the extent of insurance cover shall be agreed upon by both FIFA and the Organising Association. FIFA will set the deadlines for presentation and ratification of the above-mentioned contracts in due course.
