BRITANNICA ONLINE® Academic Edition

Loaded with Rich Resources for Students and Educators

The newly redesigned Britannica Online delivers fast and easy access to high-quality, comprehensive information. Millions of students worldwide turn to Britannica Online for its unparalleled scholarship and engaging multimedia. The rich combination of the insightful Encyclopædia Britannica plus Merriam-Webster's Collegiate® Dictionary and Thesaurus, e-books, magazines and journals, and many other research tools provides the variety of reliable sources that students need to consult when conducting research—all from one Web site.

Written by Scholars, Edited by Professionals

Britannica employs the largest full-time editorial staff of any encyclopedia publisher and also has an extensive network of contributors, including Nobel and Pulitzer Prize winners, former U.S. presidents, world-renowned scholars, and other experts. Together, they ensure that Britannica is current, accurate, unbiased, comprehensive, relevant, engaging, and international in scope.

Expert Contributors Include:

- Michael Carr (research geologist; leader of the Viking orbiter imaging team; member of the Voyager, Galileo, and Mars Observer missions for NASA) on Mars
- Bill Clinton (former president of the United States) on the Dayton Accords
- Amy Todd Middleton (vice president of Sotheby's) on Art, Antiques, and Collections
- Hallam Movius (professor of anthropology, Harvard University; curator of paleolithic archaeology, Peabody Museum) on the Stone Age
- Mary Robinson (former president of Ireland and United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights) on Children and Human Rights
- Taro Sakamoto (historian; professor, University of Tokyo; author of History of Japan) on Japan
