Xavier's Brian Grant won back-to-back League Player of the Year honors in 1992-93 and 1993-94.

Horizon League Coaching Records

Detroit's Perry Watson (top, right) stepped down this past season after spending 15 seasons on the Titan sideline. Watson owns more Horizon League victories (131 in a record 226 circuit contests) than any other mentor in League history, and has took UDM to the NCAA Tournament twice (1998, 1999) plus the NIT on two other occasions (2001, 2002). UIC's Jimmy Collins (bottom, right) has the most wins among active coaches, boasting 99 League triumphs plus two NCAA tournament appearances during his 12-year run in Chicago.

Butler returns to the national spotlight

After a memorable 2006-07 season where the Bulldogs reached the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament, the Bulldogs added another chapter to their legacy as they became the first school in Horizon League history to record 30 victories in a single season.

The Bulldogs' 81-61 triumph over South Alabama in the first round of the NCAA Championship pushed BU to a 30-3 record before a 76-71 overtime loss to Tennessee two days later ended Butler's season.

The Bulldogs were one of only nine teams in the nation to win 30 or more games this past season. Only five schools have won more games than Butler during the last two years.

Butler cracked the top 25 in both Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today coaches polls on Nov. 19 (22/23). The Bulldogs would go on to rise as high as No. 8 in both polls (Feb. 18).

First-year head coach Brad Stevens guided the Bulldogs to a 16-2 League record, tying the league victory standard established when Green Bay went 16-0 in 1995-96. Butler dropped road contests at Wright State (43-42) and Cleveland State (56-52) in League play, with its four losses this season coming by a combined 17 points.
