ACC Commissioner John Swofford

John Swofford

Now in his 14th year as Commissioner, John Swofford has made a dramatic impact on the Atlantic Coast Conference and college athletics. Swofford has built his career on the appropriate balance of academics, athletic achievement and integrity and is regarded as one of the top administrators in the NCAA.

Swofford assumed his role as the fourth full-time commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference in July of 1997. He follows James H. (Jim) Weaver, the league's first Commissioner from 1954-1970, Robert (Bob) James, who served from 1971-1987 and Eugene F. (Gene) Corrigan, who held the position from 1987 to 1997.

In addition to overseeing one of the nation's largest athletic conferences, Swofford has been pivotal in positioning the Atlantic Coast Conference for the future.

In July of 2010, Swofford's leadership and negotiating skills helped the conference secure a new 12 year multi-media rights agreement with ESPN. The extensive television package begins with the 2011-12 academic year and will more than double television revenue to the 12 member institutions. In addition to reaching new heights financially, ACC content will now be televised more, both regionally and nationally, than at any point in league history, while also best positioning the conference within the continuous, ever-changing world of technology.

Equally as historic, in 2003, on behalf of the nine league institutions and the ACC Council of Presidents, Swofford introduced Miami, Virginia Tech and Boston College as the newest members of the ACC. With the expansion, Swofford helped bring the conference extended and enhanced television contracts in both football and basketball. Highlights included the rights to the inaugural ACC Football Championship Game and significant increases in the number of televised games as well as negotiating an agreement with XM Satellite Radio, to broadcast the league's football, men's and women's basketball games nationally.

In the sport of basketball, Swofford was instrumental in creating the ACC/Big Ten Challenge that began in men's basketball in 1999. Then in 2007, the two conferences hosted the inaugural ACC/Big Ten Women's Basketball Challenge.

Highly respected by his peers, Swofford was a force in the development and growth of the Bowl Championship Series and is the only person to serve two terms as its Coordinator.

Since becoming Commissioner, Swofford has been responsible for securing increased bowl oppor-tunities for the ACC. The past five seasons, at least eight ACC teams have earned bowl bids and, in 2008, the conference set an NCAA record when 10 of its 12 teams (83%) participated in bowl play. This year, the ACC has agreements in place with nine bowls including the Orange Bowl, home to the ACC Champion since

During Swofford's first 13 years as Commissioner, ACC teams have won 50 national team titles and 1,337 ACC teams have participated in various NCAA championships - an average of over 100 NCAA teams per vear.

A long-time advocate of the importance of academics and student-athlete welfare, Swofford stimulated the formation of the league's first-ever ACC Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. This group of current ACC student-athletes gives the conference direct feedback on their experiences participating at the highest level of college athletics.

In 2006, the prestigious ACC Men's Basketball Tournament was awarded out to 2015. Throughout Swofford's tenure, the iconic event will have traveled to many dynamic cities within the footprint of the league including Atlanta, Ga., Washington D.C. and Tampa, Fla., in addition to the traditional stops in Greensboro and Charlotte. The 2001 ACC Tournament in Atlanta set NCAA attendance records for single session (40,083), per session average (36,505) and total attendance

Swofford placed an added emphasis on the development of women's basketball in the ACC with the hiring of an Associate Commissioner for Women's Basketball to oversee all aspects of the sport on both a conference and national level.

The Director of Athletics at the University of North Carolina from 1980 to 1997, Swofford was instrumental in building North Carolina's athletics department into one of the country's most respected programs. He became the school's athletic director on May 1, 1980 and at the age of 31, he was the youngest major college Athletics Director in the nation at the time.

During his tenure, Tar Heel athletic teams claimed 123 ACC championships and 24 national collegiate titles, including two in men's basketball and one in women's basketball. During the 1993-94 year, the Tar Heels captured the inaugural Sears Directors' Cup. emblematic of the collegiate all-sports champion and finished in the Top Six of the Sears Cup standings in each year of Swofford's tenure that the award was given.

Under his leadership, North Carolina enjoyed tremendous growth in its athletic facilities, including the construction of the Smith Center, a complex which includes a 21,572-seat basketball arena, the Koury Natatorium and the Frank H. Kenan Football Center. He initiated the idea and provided the impetus for the founding of North Carolina's trademark licensing program.

The University chose to recognize his many accomplishments by establishing the John D. Swofford women's athletics scholarship and naming an auditorium in the school's football complex in his honor.

John and his wife Nora reside in Greensboro. N.C. and together they have three children, Amie, Chad and Autumn, who is married to Sherman Wooden. Autumn and Sherman welcomed Maya, their first child, to the family in April of 2010

The Atlantic Coast Conference

The Tradition of Excellence

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 58th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 120 national championships, including 64 in women's competition and 56 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 130 times in men's competition and 91 times in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With Duke's victory over Butler in last year's NCAA title game, ACC teams have won five of the last 10 NCAA National Championships and 12 overall, including eight over the last 20 years.

No conference has compiled a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the inaugural tournament in 1939. ACC teams have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 347-175 for a sterling .665 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

The ACC is the only conference to have each of its teams make at least one NCAA Tournament appearance over the past five years.

In the 26 years of the current 64/65-team field, the ACC has produced 24 Final Four teams, an average of almost one per year and six more than any other conference.

Since the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams in 1985. ACC teams have compiled a 249-126 (.665) NCAA record, including 66 "Sweet 16" appearances and 24 Final Four berths - all NCAA Tournament bests. Since 1985, 67 of the 133 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

North Carolina's Tar Heels lead all ACC schools with five NCAA basketball championships to their credit. Duke is next with four national titles, followed by NC State with two and Maryland one. The Tar Heels claimed NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993, 2005 and 2009, while the Blue Devils won their fourth title in 2010, following earlier championships in 2001, 1992 and 1991. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The ACC has 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins 13 times overall, and the league has not posted a losing record in NCAA Tournament play since 1987. The conference's 23-year non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play is tops among all conferences.

Since 1981, the ACC has produced 38 consensus All-Americans - 15 more than any other conference and has accounted for 25 percent of the

This is a photo of the official announcement of the formation of the Atlantic Coast Conference, taken at Greensboro's Sedgefield Inn, May 8, 1953. A three-man liaison committee, shown above, informed Southern Conference President Max Farrington of the decision. Left to right were Dr. James T. Penny, faculty chairman of athletics at South Carolina (chairman); Edmund (Eddie) M. Cameron, athletic director at Duke (committee member); President Farrington; and Dr. H.A. nation's consensus All-Americans (38-of-155).

Seven of the last 14 and nine of the last 18 consensus National Players of the Year have been from the ACC. Since 1975, the ACC has had 16 consensus National Players of the Year - 12 more than any other conference. In addition, nine of the ACC's 16 National Players of the Year were unanimous selections.

A year ago the ACC had 52 players on NBA rosters. In addition, over the past five years 45 ACC players have made their NBA debuts, including an all-time high 15 in 2006.

In this past June's 2010 NBA draft, the ACC had five first round selections and nine players drafted overall. The ACC has had five-or-more first round selections in three of the past four years and has had at least one first-round pick in 22 consecutive NBA drafts. Since 1986, the ACC has had 93 first round selections - 13 more than any other conference.

Last year, for the second time in four years, 10 ACC teams finished the season with 20 or more wins. The ACC is the only conference in Division I history to have 10 teams win 20 or more games in a single season.

For the fifth-straight year, the ACC surpassed the 2.2 million mark in attendance as the 12 schools totaled 2.217.642 over 201 regular season games and six ACC Tournament sessions.

The Championships

The conference conducts championship competition in 25 sports - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

Year in Review

ACC schools captured an all-time high eight national titles during the 2009-10 academic year. Overall, the ACC has totaled 50 national team titles over the last 13 years. The Conference has won two or more NCAA titles in 28 of the past 30 years.

The Atlantic Coast Conference

ACC History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

The Schools

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston's Irish immigrants and was the first institution of higher education to be founded in the city of Boston. Originally located on Harrison Avenue in the South End of Boston, the College outgrew its urban setting toward the end of its first fifty years. A new location was selected in Chestnut Hill and ground for the new campus was broken on June 19, 1909. During the 1940s, new purchases doubled the size of the main campus.

Clemson University is nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains near the Georgia border, and the tiger paws painted on the roads make the return to I-85 easier. The school is built around Fort Hill, the plantation home of John C. Calhoun, Vice President to Andrew Jackson. His son-in-law, Tom Clemson, left the land to be used as an agricultural school, and in 1893 Clemson opened its doors as a land-grant school, thanks to the efforts of Ben Tillman.

Duke University was founded in 1924 by tobacco magnate James B. Duke as a memorial to his father, Washington Duke. Originally the school was called Trinity College, a Methodist institution, started in 1859. In 1892, Trinity moved to west Durham where the east campus with its Georgian architecture now stands. Nearby are Sarah P. Duke gardens, and further west the Gothic spires of Duke chapel overlook the west campus.

Florida State University is one of 11 universities of the State University System of Florida. It was established as the Seminary West of the Suwannee by an act of the Florida Legislature in 1851, and first offered instruction at the post-secondary level in 1857. Its Tallahassee campus has been the site of an institution of higher education longer than any other site in the state. In 1905, the Buckman Act reorganized higher education in the state and designated the Tallahassee school as the Florida Female College. In 1909, it was renamed Florida State College for Women. In 1947, the school returned to a co-educational status, and the name was changed to Florida State University.

Next to I-85 in downtown Atlanta stands Georgia Institute of Technology, founded in 1885. Its first students came to pursue a degree in mechanical engineering, the only one offered at the time. Tech's strength is not only the red clay of Georgia, but a restored gold and white 1930 model A Ford Cabriolet, the official mascot. The old Ford was first used in 1961, but a Ramblin' Wreck had been around for over three decades. The Ramblin' Wreck fight song appeared almost as soon as the school opened, and it is not only American boys that grow up singing its rollicking tune, for Richard Nixon and Nikita Krushchev sang it when they met in Moscow in 1959.

The University of Maryland opened in 1856 as an agricultural school nine miles north of Washington, D.C., on land belonging to Charles Calvert. a descendant of Lord Baltimore, the state's founding father. The school colors are the same as the state flag: black and gold for George Calvert (Lord Baltimore) and red and white for his mother, Alice Crossland. Maryland has been called the school that Curley Byrd built, for he was its quarterback, then football coach, athletic director, assistant to the president, vice-president, and finally its president. Byrd also designed the football stadium and the campus layout, and suggested the nickname Terrapin, a local turtle known for its bite, when students wanted to replace the nickname Old Liners with a new one for the school.

The University of Miami was chartered in 1925 by a group of citizens who felt an institution of higher learning was needed for the development of their young and growing community. Since the first class of 560 students enrolled in the fall of 1926, the University has expanded to more than 15,000 undergraduate and graduate students from every state and more than 114 nations from around the world. The school's colors, representive of the Florida orange tree, were selected in 1926. Orange symbolizes the fruit of the tree, green represents the leaves and white, the blossoms.

The University of North Carolina, located in Chapel Hill, has been called "the perfect college town," making its tree-lined streets and balmy atmosphere what a college should look and feel like. Its inception in 1795 makes it one of the oldest schools in the nation, and its nickname of Tar Heels stems from the tar pitch and turpentine that were the state's principal industry. The nickname is as old as the school, for it was born during the Revolutionary War when tar was dumped into the streams to impede the advance of British forces.

North Carolina State University is located in the state capital of Raleigh. It opened in 1889 as a land-grant agricultural and mechanical school and was known as A&M or Aggies or Farmers for over a quarter-century. The school's colors of pink and blue were gone by 1895, brown and white were tried for a year, but the students finally chose red and white to represent the school. An unhappy fan in 1922 said State football players behaved like a pack of wolves, and the term that was coined in derision became a badge of honor.

The University of Virginia was founded in 1819 by Thomas Jefferson and is one of three things on his tombstone for which he wanted to be remembered. James Madison and James Monroe were on the board of governors in the early years. The Rotunda, a half-scale version of the Pantheon which faces the Lawn, is the focal point of the grounds as the campus is called. Jefferson wanted his school to educate leaders in practical affairs and public service, not just to train teachers.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University was established in 1872 as an all-male military school dedicated to the original land-grant mission of teaching agriculture and engineering. The University has grown from a small college of 132 students into the largest institution of higher education in the state. Located in Southwest Virginia on a plateau between the Blue Ridge and Alleghany Mountains, the campus consists of 334 buildings and 20 miles of sidewalks over 2.600 acres. The official school colors - Chicago maroon and burnt orange were selected in 1896 because they made a "unique combination" not worn elsewhere at the time.

Wake Forest University was started on Calvin Jones' plantation amid the stately pine forest of Wake County in 1834. The Baptist seminary is still there, but the school was moved to Winston-Salem in 1956 on a site donated by Charles H. and Mary Reynolds Babcock. President Harry S. Truman attended the ground-breaking ceremonies that brought a picturesque campus of Georgian architecture and painted roofs. Wake's colors have been black and gold since 1895, thanks to a badge designed by student John Heck who died before he graduated.

ACC Basketball on Television

Without question, television has contributed immeasurably to the success of ACC basketball. What began with fear of its impact on attendance and received mixed reviews from coaches and administrators initially became a cultural phenomenon throughout the southeastern U.S. In the '50s, ACC fans got to see one of the greats NCAA title games ever played. In the '60s, ACC basketball was regionally televised on a regular basis before the first national telecast of a college basketball game. In the '70s, families bonded around the TV on Saturday afternoons and Wednesday evenings, the Friday of ACC Tournament quarterfinals became an annual vacation day for schoolchildren and career professionals, and the rest of the nation began to realize why ACC basketball was so overwhelmingly popular. By the '80s, the ACC was the premier conference for college basketball, thanks in part to its exposure on regional and national television. In the '90s, Raycom and ABC formed a unique relationship whereby ACC basketball became the largest purchase of network time ever. Since the 2000 season, a total of 1,836 regular season and ACC Tournament games have been televised in addition to NCAA Tournament games

Television producer and syndicator Castleman DeTolley "C.D." Chesley was a pioneer in televising ACC basketball, first across the state with the 1957 Final Four, and later around the region and the country. Chesley never played the game. His only association with an ACC school was the one year he spent playing freshman football at North Carolina, before he transferred to the University of Pennsylvania, where he became the football team's captain and a showman in the school's traveling comedy troupe. But no one exposed ACC basketball to more people than Chesley, thanks to his pioneering efforts as an executive producer in mostly regional broadcasts to an insatiable audience - Greensboro (NC) News & Record, March 9, 2003.

January 8, 1955 — The first televised ACC basketball game, a 95-78 victory by North Carolina over Wake Forest, appeared on public television, WUNC-TV, to fans within a 50-mile radius of Chapel Hill, according to Ron Morris' ACC Basketball: An Illustrated History. Reaction was mixed. Although the game was a sell-out, the Duke-NC State game, played at the same time in Durham, was 2,000 short of capacity, threatening the future of TV games for fear of their effect on gate receipts.

January 16, 1956 — North Carolina's 64-55 victory over Maryland was the first of three television productions called "Broadvision," a unique simulcast agreement between WUNC-TV and a number of radio stations. WUNC-TV televised the games without sound so that viewers would be encouraged to listen to the radio. Subsequent Broadvision games were North Carolina vs. NC State on Jan. 18, and North Carolina vs. Wake Forest on Feb. 15.

March 15, 1957 – The first TV basketball game to be broadcast live across North Carolina was North Carolina's 87-75 victory over Canisius in the NCAA East Regional semifinals at Philadelphia's Palestra. Convinced that basketball would make for appealing viewing, an independent TV producer named Castleman DeTolley Chesley would become synonymous with the ACC for two decades. In less than one week, he had secured the necessary equipment, found sponsors and announcers and arranged telephone lines for the game's production. The game was broadcast through WPPB-TV studios in Wilmington, Del., and aired on Charlotte's WBTV. Durham's WTVD and Greensboro's WFMY.

March 22-23, 1957 – Chesley set up a five-station network to televise live the Tar Heels' remarkable Final Four run in Kansas City. Fans back in North Carolina were able to see two triple-overtime games – the 74-70 win over Michigan State in the semifinals on March 22, and the 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the Championship on March 23.

December 7, 1957 – The first live ACC-TV network began with North Carolina defeating Clemson 79-55 at Chapel Hill, the first of 11 Saturday afternoon games over 12 stations. Producer C.D. Chesley had purchased the rights from the ACC, with the eight member schools dividing the revenue.

1957-58 ACC Television Schedule

Dec. 7-Clemson at North Carolina; Dec. 14-South Carolina at North Carolina; Jan. 4-Virginia at South Carolina; Jan. 11-NC State at Duke; Jan. 18-North Carolina at Clemson; Jan. 25-The Citadel at Clemson; Feb. 1-Maryland at Navy; Feb. 8-Duke at North Carolina; Feb. 15-Maryland at NC State; Feb. 22-Wake Forest at South Carolina; March 1-South Carolina at Maryland.

January 14, 1973 – The first Super Bowl Sunday game took ACC basketball on TV to another level. No. 3-ranked NC State defeated No. 2-ranked Maryland 87-85 at College Park on a follow tip at the buzzer by David Thompson. Thompson scored 37 points as an estimated national TV audience of 25 million watched moments before the Super Bowl kickoff.

March 4, 1978 — In the first nationally televised ACC Tournament Championship (during ABC's Wide World of Sports), Duke defeated Wake Forest 85-77 for the Blue Devils' first title in 12 years. Fearing a Saturday afternoon tip-off for TV would result in sloppy play, the quarterfinals and semifinals had been moved to Wednesday and Thursday, respectively – the only time the Tournament was not played on successive days. Also for the first time, all seven games were televised live.

1979 – Charlotte entrepreneurs Rick Ray and Dee Birk launched Raycom to televise a package of ACC games in North Carolina, including NC State in Alaska's Seawolf Classic (renamed Great Alaska Shootout) and seven North Carolina road games.

1984 – A brief experiment of a "Season Ticket" package for 31 ACC games was abandoned.

1999 – During the 1998-99 season, the ACC became the first conference in college basketball history to have all of its conference games (72 in all) televised live on a regional or national basis.

August 3, 2000 – Fox Sports Net, Raycom and the ACC announced a 10-year agreement for a national "ACC Sunday Night" Game of the Week.

July 8, 2010 - ESPN and the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) reached a 12-year agreement for exclusive rights to every conference-controlled football and men's basketball game, plus women's basketball and Olympic sports matchups, and conference championships. The agreement, which begins in 2011-12 will continue through 2022-23. It will result in approximately 4,800 ACC events over the 12 years on ESPN's television outlets, digital and mobile platforms, syndication and more. Additionally, through a new sublicense arrangement with ESPN, Raycom Sports will continue its long-standing position as the syndication home of ACC content for overthe-air and regional cable network distribution in the ACC market and beyond.

The 2010-11 ACC television schedule lists an all-time high 305 overall appearances, including a record 184 appearances on national networks and 202 televised games.

- ► The 2010-11 ACC television schedule lists an all-time high 305 overall appearances, including a record 184 appearances on national networks and 202 televised games.
- Ninety-one of the league's 96 conference games are scheduled to be televised.
- ► Fox Sports Net and affiliates will televise 20 Sunday afternoon and evening games on a national basis, starting with College of Charleston at North Carolina (5:30) and Florida State hosting Florida (7:45) on November 28. This season, 14 of the 20 FSN Sunday games are conference match-ups.

The inaugural ACC Tournament was held at Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh, N.C., on March 4-6, 1954 ... Tournament session tickets were sold at two prices, $9 and $6 ... a total of 39,200 fans attended the tournament, but only the Saturday semifinals were a sellout ... Thursday attracted 6,800 for the afternoon session and 8,500 in the evening ... Sunday's championship game between Wake Forest and NC State drew 900 under capacity ... in all, the league grossed $70,252 in revenue that first year.

1974: NC State 103, Maryland 100 (ot)

Considered one of the greatest games in college basketball history ... NC State entered the game 25-1 and as the nation's top-ranked team while Maryland was 23-4 and ranked fourth ... against ACC opponents, State had not been beaten in 31 straight games while the Terps were making their third straight ACC title game appearance ... 15,541 were in attendance at the newly renovated Greensboro (N.C.) Coliseum even though that figure seems to have grown three-fold as the years pass ... for 40 minutes, both teams ran and dared each other to greatness, and when time expired, they were still even ... for five more minutes, they went at each other again ... it came down to the final six seconds before State's Monte Towe converted a one-and-one clinching a 103-100 victory for State ... the Terps shot 61 percent from then floor while the Wolfpack made 55 percent ... four Terrapins played all 45 minutes ... State's Tom Burleson made 18 of 25 shots for a game-high 38 points to go along with his 13 rebounds and earned the Everett Case Award, given to the MVP of the ACC Tournament.

Player to Coach

Since the inaugural ACC Tournament in 1954, nine men have played and then later coached in the event ... Sidney Lowe, Bucky Waters and Matt Doherty are the only ACC head coaches to play for an ACC champion ... Waters played for the 1956 ACC Champion Wolfpack while Lowe was on the 1983 NC State championship squad ... Doherty appeared in every game for North Carolina in the Tar Heels' ACC title years of 1981 and 1982.

1978

The 1978 ACC Tournament was unique in several respects. It was the first tournament that every team entered with a winning overall record. It also marked the first time that non-ACC officials were hired. In addition, a national TV audience watched the title game for the first time. Concerned that a Saturday afternoon final after Friday night semifinals would cause fatigue, administrators scheduled the first two rounds for Wednesday and Thursday with no games on Friday. A young Duke team that started two freshmen, two sophomores and a junior captured the title, downing Wake Forest 85-77 in the championship game.

Greensboro Coliseum

The 2011 ACC Tournament is scheduled for March 10-13 at the Greensboro (N.C.) Coliseum. The 2011 Tournament marks the 23rd time that the facility has hosted the Tournament.

Originally built in 1959 as War Memorial Coliseum, it was renamed the Greensboro Coliseum in the late 1960's. In addition to the ACC Tournament, the Coliseum has hosted the Southern Conference Basketball Tournament from 1996 to 1999 and various NCAA Basketball Tournaments, including the 1974 NCAA Men's Final Four where NC State ended the UCLA dynasty at seven consecutive national titles.

Built in 1959, the Coliseum originally seated 9,200 and was one of the largest arenas in the South. A major renovation in 1993-94 expanded capacity to 23,500 for basketball.

ACC Tournament History

The first 13 ACC Tournaments were held in NC State's Reynolds Colisieum (1954-1966) ... the Wolfpack had a 20-8 ACC Tournament record during that period, winning the league title five times ... Maryland became the first non-North Carolina team to win the league title in 1958 when Bud Millikan's fourth-seeded Terps defeated Virginia, Duke and North Carolina en route to the championship.

In 1965, a new tournament site schedule was approved and a three-year rotation was announced: 1966 in Raleigh, 1967 in Greensboro and 1968 in Charlotte.

Since being moved from Reynolds Coliseum, the ACC Tournament has been held at the original Charlotte Coliseum, the Capital Centre in Landover, Md., the MCI Center in Washington, D.C., the Omni and the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga., the second Charlotte (N.C.) Coliseum, the St. Pete Times Forum in Tampa, Fla., the Charlotte Bobcats Arena and the Greensboro (N.C.) Coliseum.

Officially Champion

Contrary to popular belief, the ACC basketball champion has not always been "officially" declared in the Tournament. The ACC merely copied the old Southern Conference by-laws, and the term pertaining to basketball just read: "Beginning December 1 and ending with the conference basketball tournament." With 17 Southern Conference teams, teams it didn't pay to be too detailed. In the early years of the Tournament, unofficially, and by custom, everyone regarded the Tournament champion as the ACC champion. But it wasn't until July, 1, 1961, that the words "and the winner shall be the conference champion" were added to the ACC by-laws.

March 5, 196

In one of the most poignant moments in ACC history, an ailing legend Everett Case is hoisted on the shoulders of his former players to cut down the nets following NC State's 91-85 upset of top-seeded Duke in title game. Dying of cancer, Case was forced to retire two games into the 1964-65 season, turning the team over to assistant Press Maravich. The Wolfpack's Larry Worsley comes off the bench to score 30 points and becomes the only non-starter ever honored as the Tournament MVP.

Assistants: Steve Robinson (Radford '81)

Heel Hype

Coach Roy Williams' eighth team as North Carolina's head coach will feature one returning starter and five key reserves from the 2009-10 team that finished 20-17 overall, tied for ninth in the ACC at 5-11 and posted a runner-up finish in the NIT ... UNC has posted at least 20 wins six straight seasons and 52 times in the program's 100-year history ... Williams owns a 614-155 (.798) record in 22 seasons as a head coach, including a 196-54 (.784) mark and two NCAA titles in his first seven years at UNC ... each of Williams' 22 teams as a college head coach (15 at Kansas, seven at UNC) won at least 19 games ... Williams' 196 overall wins as an ACC head coach rank 14th on the conference's list, and his 86 ACC wins rank 13th ... the 2010-11 Tar Heels will be missing NBA lottery selection Ed Davis (13.4 ppg, 9.6 rpg) and graduated senior starters Marcus Ginvard and Deon Thompson (the NCAA's all-time leader in career games played with 152) ... the team's lone returning starter from a year ago is junior forward Tyler Zeller ... Zeller returned from a midseason foot injury that sidelined him for 10 games to average 9.3 ppg and 4.7 rpg ...point guard Larry Drew returns for his junior season; averaged 8.5 points per game in 2009-10 while ranking third among ACC players in assists with 6.0 per game ... two key players return to help anchor the frontcourt ... John Henson stepped into the starting lineup following an injury to Ed Davis last February and wound up averaging 5.7 points and 4.4 rebounds (9.4 ppg and 7.1 rpg over the last 16 games of the season) ... guard Dexter Strickland will return after appearing in 36 games last season as a freshman (four starts) and scoring in double figures on five occasions ... sophomore guard Leslie McDonald saw action in 34 games a year ago and averaged 3.4 points per game ... Justin Knox, a 6-foot-9 240-pound forward transfer from Alabama, averaged 6.3 points and 3.7 rebounds in 19.8 minutes of play for the Crimson Tide last season.

Pack Plaudits

NC State head coach Sidney Lowe welcomes back three starters and three of the top four scorers from the 2009-10 team that posted a 20-16 overall record ... the Wolfpack secured its second 20-win season in four years under Lowe with a first-round win over South Florida in the NIT ... NC State has participated in postseason play in 11 of the last 14 seasons ... Lowe, who starred at point guard on NC State's 1983 NCAA Championship team, has compiled a 71-62 overall record in his four seasons as the Wolfpack's head coach, including a pair of 20-win seasons ... Lowe needs eight more wins to claim sole possession of sixth place on the school's all-time wins list ... NC State's 2010-11 team will look to replace two key starters from last season, including forward Dennis Horner, who ranked second on the team in both scoring (11.9 ppg) and rebounding (4.9 rpg) ... guard Farnold Degand averaged 5.5 points and 2.5 assists in his final season with the Wolfpack ... second-team All-ACC selection Tracy Smith is back to lead the Pack after leading the ACC in field goal percentage (.524) and scoring at a 16.5 points per game clip while pulling down 7.3 rebounds per game; scored in double figures in 32 of the 35 games in which he played last season ... senior Javier Gonzalez, who has played in 88 career games and made 64 starts, brings a veteran presence to the backcourt after averaging 9.5 points and 3.7 assists per game last season ... sophomore forward Scott Wood proved a deadly 3-point shooter (connecting on a team-high 63 shots from beyond the arc) while averaging 7.8 ppg in his first collegiate season, including 11 games scoring in double figures ... junior forward C.J. Williams averaged nearly 20 minutes of playing time per game as a sophomore last season while scoring at a 4.3 ppg clip ... 6-foot-8, 266-pound Richard Howell (4.6 ppg, 4.9 rpg) made solid contributions as a freshman ... the Wolfpack hopes 7-foot-1 sophomore Jordan Vandenberg, who blocked 18 shots last season, and 6-foot-9 sophomore DeShawn Painter will continue to improve and add depth to the frontcourt.

NC State - ACC Champion Dickie Hemric, WF - ACC Player of the Year Everett Case, NCS - ACC Coach of the Year

NC State laid claim to the first of three straight ACC titles for the Wolfpack, defeating Wake Forest 82-80 in overtime in the league's inaugural ACC Tournament ... 39,200 attended the tournament at NC State's Reynolds Coliseum ... a book of tickets for the entire Tournament cost $10 ... the Wolfpack represented the ACC in the NCAA tournament, winning two of three games ... the ACC adopted a rule from the Southern Conference that no team could participate in the NIT, a ban that stood until 1967 ... the ACC's first regular season produced an unbalanced schedule with conference games ranging from 12 (Wake Forest) to five (Virginia) ... the Deacons' Dickie Hemric led the league in rebounding (15.1) and was second in scoring (24.3) en route to earning ACC Player of the Year honors ... Virginia's Buzz Wilkinson led the ACC and was third nationally in scoring (30.1) - the third highest per game average in conference annals ... Maryland's Gene Shue, a former walk-on, set 11 individual school records and finished as the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,386 points - a record he held until 1974 ... the free throw lane was only six feet wide and a one-and-one free throw rule was in place, although the bonus was used only if the first shot was missed: the rule was in effect the entire game except the final three minutes, when every foul resulted in two free throws ... games were played in four 10-minute quarters ... Rio Grande College's Bevo Francis, the nation's college division leading scorer (47.1), scored 34 points in a 92-77 loss to NC State and 32 points in a 67-65 win over Wake Forest.

The "Cardiac Pack" of NC State earned its place among sports' greatest stories with its near-miracle run to the NCAA championship ... after winning an ACC Tournament that included upsets of top-five opponents North Carolina and Virginia, State embarked on a run through the West Regional that included comeback wins over Pepperdine, UNLV and Virginia again (in the regional final) ... following a win over Georgia in the NCAA semifinals at Albuquerque, N.M., State upset a heavily favored Houston team that featured Akeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler ... the winning points came in unlikely fashion, as forward Lorenzo Charles grabbed a desperation 30-foot air ball by Dereck Whittenburg and slammed it home to produce a 54-52 win ... Virginia's senior All-America center Ralph Sampson was named consensus National Player of the Year for a third straight time ... North Carolina finished atop the ACC regular-season standings and won 28 games after starting out 0-2 for the first time since 1928-29 ... the ACC adopted two experimental rules for the 1982-83 season: a 3-point basket from a 19-foot distance and a 30-second shot clock ... the average number of points scored in ACC games improved from 59.3 per team in 1982 to 78.2 per team in 1983 ... NC State's Sidney Lowe became the ACC's all-time leader in assists with 762 ... for the first time, Virginia led the ACC in field goal percentage (.523) ... eight of Clemson's 12 ACC losses were by six points or less ... North Carolina snapped Virginia's 34-game home winning streak with a 101-95 victory (J15).

ACC Players of the Week

Antawn Jamison, North Carolina's 1998 ACC Player of the Year, was selected Player of the Week an all-time high 12 times from 1996-98 while Georgia Tech's Kenny Anderson garnered Rookie of the Week honors in ten of a possible 13 weeks during the 1990 season.

Associated Press Rankings

Following is the first complete history of 59 years of Associated Press basketball polls since the inaugural AP poll of January 20, 1949. Over the next 22 pages are statistical summaries of the polls and a year-by-year, week-by-week, team-by-team, position-by-position listing of each poll. Also included are the pre-season polls that began with the 1961-62 season. Much of the credit for this four-year compilation goes to some of the people I have had the pleasure of working with the past 25 years; the late Marvin (Skeeter) Francis, who kept the actual clipping of every poll from 1969 to 1989 in his files; Mo Lantz, Jessica Reo and Amy Farnum who during their internships visited the local library and the Greensboro News & Record microfilm rooms making copies of every poll; Barb Dery who did the actual typesetting for every poll and still managed to keep her sense of humor and to the late Dr. Harold Vigodsky, the best-ever "Optostatistician" for his invaluable research in this project.

History

The AP poll originally consisted of a Top 20 team ranking from the 1949 season through the 1960 season, and interestingly enough, through the first three weeks of the 1960-61 campaign. Beginning with the first poll in January of 1961, and continuing through the end of the 1968 season, only 10 teams were ranked, with the exception of the pre-season poll of 1964-65. Starting with the pre-season poll of the 1968-69 season, the rankings returned to a Top 20 format and remained so through the end of the 1988-89 season. The AP Top 25 was introduced with the pre-season poll of 1989-90 and have continued that way through last season.

- •There have been a total of 989 AP polls since the first one of Jan. 20, 1949 ... North Carolina has been listed in an NCAA-best 772 polls (78%).
- The highest number of different teams ranked at least one week during the course of the season was 52 a year ago ... 14 of the pre-season Top 25 teams finished the season unranked.
- The most inaccurate pre-season picks were made in the pre-season polls of the 1990-91, 2001-02 and 2009-10 seasons when 14 of the pre-season Top 25 (56%) teams ended the season unranked.
