If you answer "yes" to any of the following questions, please use the additional information section at the end of this form to provide a complete explanation.

20. If you have applied to Duke before, in what year did you apply?

We evaluate our applicants as individuals and ask that you provide complete and honest information. Answering "yes" to the following question will not automatically harm your chance of admission, but answering it falsely is likely to result in the denial of admission.

21. Other than what you reported on the Common Application or Universal College Application, have you ever been arrested or placed on probation, regardless of the outcome? If so, please include a complete explanation. Yes No

SHORT ANSWER AND OPTIONAL QUESTIONS

Your answer to the following questions will be evaluated along with the essay you wrote as part of your application. We encourage you to take advantage of this additional opportunity to let us know about your intellectual and personal interests. Please limit each answer as indicated.

22. The following questions are required for engineering and transfer applicants. Please limit your response to one to three paragraphs.

- a. (FOR ENGINEERING APPLICANTS ONLY) If you are applying to the Pratt School of Engineering, please discuss why you want to study engineering and why you would like to study at Duke.
- b. (FOR TRANSFER APPLICANTS ONLY) Consider the books, essays, poems, or journal articles you have read over the last year or two, either for school or leisure. Please discuss the way in which one of them has changed your understanding of the world, other people, or yourself.

23. The following questions are optional. If you choose to answer them, please do so on an additional page.

- a. (FOR ARTS & SCIENCES APPLICANTS ONLY) If you are applying to Trinity College of Arts & Sciences, please discuss why you consider Duke a good match for you. Is there something in particular at Duke that attracts you? Please limit your response to one or two paragraphs.
- b. We seek to understand and appreciate you as an individual. If there is a parent, sibling, other relative, friend, or mentor who you think could help us do that, we would be happy to receive a one-page letter from one of them. (It must be mailed to our office by January 2, 2013.) This optional information will be considered in our understanding of you as a person, but it will not be formally evaluated as part of your application.

If you have a disability and would like to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact the Disability Management System-Student Access Office at (919) 684-5917, voice; (919) 684-5324, TTY; or e-mail, disabilities@as.duke.edu. Duke University is committed to equality of educational opportunities for qualified students with disabilities, but the level of services provided at post-secondary institutions can differ considerably from what many students receive in high school. For example, all students in Trinity College of Arts & Sciences must fulfill a foreign language requirement.

DUKE COMMUNITY STANDARD

Duke University is a community dedicated to scholarship, leadership, and service and to the principles of honesty, fairness, respect, and accountability. Citizens of this community commit to reflect upon and uphold these principles in all academic and non-academic endeavors, and to protect and promote a culture of integrity.

To uphold the Duke Community Standard:

- I will not lie, cheat, or steal in my academic endeavors;
- I will conduct myself honorably in all my endeavors; and
- I will act if the Standard is compromised.

CONDITIONS OF APPLICATION

In applying for admission to Duke University, you are consenting to the following conditions:

- That the information supplied by you on this application is true and correct to the best of your knowledge;
- That providing false information, including your citizenship or U.S. visa status, is grounds for termination of your application or revocation of an admissions offer or your enrollment status at any time;
- That you authorize the Admissions Office and appropriate faculty and staff of all educational institutions you have attended to discuss your candidacy;
- That the only valid notification of an admissions decision is the formal decision letter from the Dean of Undergraduate Admissions;
- That Duke University may discontinue your application for admission if you are accepted under a binding Early Decision program to another college or university;
- That Duke University may discontinue your application or withdraw your offer of admission at any time if you apply Early Decision to Duke and the terms of the Early Decision Agreement are not met; and
- That if any of the information in your application changes between now and your enrollment at Duke, you will notify the Admissions Office within 48 hours. Failing to notify the Admissions Office within 48 hours of any changes may result in the withdrawal of your application and/or the offer of admission at any time.

E A R L Y DECISION

Early Decision applicants, we need your first quarter grades. When you give the School Report to your college advisor or school registrar, also give him or her the Optional Grade Report form, and ask him or her to submit your first quarter grades.

ANY CHANGES TO THIS FORM MUST BE SENT TO US IN WRITING.
