FACTS & FIGURES

Some 9801 athletes from 164 countries have competed in the IAAF Championships, with athletes from six countries participating in all 35 editions: Belgium, France, Great Britain & NI (ENG, GBR, NIR, SCO, WAL), Ireland, Spain, and the United States.

The largest edition of the championships was in Vilamoura (POR) in 2000, when 806 athletes (excluding seven declared non-starters) from 76 countries took part. That athlete total may never be beaten now that the format of the championships has reverted from six to four races. The biggest single race was the 1986 senior men's race with 337 competitors from 50 countries, 39 of which produced scoring teams. The race with the most different countries represented was the 1997 men's race with 58, 27 of which had scoring teams.

The most medals won by a country is 245 by Kenya, followed by 203 by Ethiopia and 59 by the United States.

The most medals won by an individual athlete is 25 by Kenenisa Bekele (ETH), with 15 golds, eight silvers and two bronzes in 2001-2006. The women's record is 20 by Worknesh Kidane (ETH) in 1997-2005, including 11 golds, five silvers and four bronzes. The most individual medals is 12 by Bekele and eight by Kidane.

The most golds won by an individual is 15 by Bekele – including 11 individual and four team medals. The most women's golds is 12 by Tirunesh Dibaba (ETH), four of which were individual and eight with teams.

The most individual gold medals won is 11 by Kenenisa Bekele, junior winner in 2001 and long/short course winner in 2002-2006. The most by a woman is five by Grete Waitz (NOR), who won the women's title in 1978-1981 and 1983.

The most medals won at a single championships is four: two individual and two team. This has been achieved 13 times by seven athletes, all Ethiopian. Haylu Mekonnen in 1999, Gete Wami in 2001, Kenenisa Bekele in 2001-2006, Worknesh Kidane in 2003/2005, Gebre-egziabher Gebremariam in 2004, Tirunesh Dibaba in 2005 and Meselech Melkamu in 2006.

The most medals won as a junior is eight, including three golds, by Vivian Cheruiyot (KEN) in 1998-2001. The most by a junior man is seven, by Boniface Kiprop (UGA) in 2000-2004.

The most team gold medals won is 67 by Kenya, with at least one every year since 1986 followed by Ethiopia 36. The most team medals is 101 by Ethiopia compared with 99 by Kenya.

The longest winning streak in the championships are the 18 successive titles won by Kenya's men's team in the long race (1986-2003). The most in women's events is six by Ethiopia at the long race in 2002-2007.

The oldest champion and medallist is Jack Foster (NZL), team gold medallist in 1975 at 42 years 297 days. The oldest individual champion and medallist is Portugal's Carlos Lopes, who in 1985 won the third of his World Cross Country titles at 38 years 34 days. The oldest women's champion is Edith Masai (KEN), who won the 2004 short course race at 36 years 352 days.

Foster went on to become the oldest ever competitor when he finished 155th in the 1979 race aged 46 years 306 days. The oldest female participant is Sweden's Ewy Palm, 121st in 1987 at 45 years 50 days.

The youngest gold medallists are all Kenyans, with the youngest of all Elizabeth Cheptanui, junior team gold medallist in 1994 at 13 years 197 days. The youngest individual winner is Lydia Cheromei, 1991 champion at 13 years 317 days. The youngest junior male winner is Ismael Kirui, junior team gold medallist in 1990 at 15 years 32 days. Individually, the youngest is Robert Kipchumba, 2000 World Junior Cross Country Champion at 16 years 24 days.

The youngest competitor is Su Su-Ning of Chinese Taipei who was 12 years 130 days when she placed 119th in the 1991 junior race. The youngest male is Junior Hines (CAY) who was 13 years 58 days when he also placed 119th, this time in the junior race of 2002. Current IAAF regulations prevent anyone younger than 16 in the year of competition from competing in the championships.

Sweeps of all available team titles were achieved by Kenya in 1991, 1993, 1995 and 1996. In all those years, the Kenyans won team gold in the senior and junior races, men and women. In 1993, Kenya also won three of the four individual titles, with Albertina Dias of Portugal the only non-Kenyan winner in the women's senior race. In the six-race format, Ethiopia won five of six titles in 2004, placing second in the other one.

Perfect team scores have been achieved in nine races, the men's short course races of 1998 and 2000, the junior men's races of 1993 2000, 2005 and 2007, and the junior women's race in 1993, 2004 and 2006. On each occasion apart from 2004 (with four to score) Kenyan runners placed first, second, third and fourth to gain a score of 10 points. In 2004 the dominant country was Ethiopia.

The best example of domination in the senior (long) races was in 1988 when (with six to score) Kenyans placed 1-2-3-4-6-7-8-9. For the women, the USSR twice won with 15 points, placing 2-3-4-6 in 1977 & 1980. The highest ever score is 1874 by the Maltese men's team which placed 39th in the 1986 men's race.

The most championships contested is 18 by Domingos Castro (POR) who competed in men's races between 1982 and 2003. The women's record in 17 by Conceição Ferreira (POR) in 1982-2000. Co-incidentally, both athletes placed seventh in the 1990 championship at Aix-les-Bains. That remained Castro's best finishing position, but Ferreira went on to win an individual bronze in 1994.

The largest winning margin in the history of the championships came in 1980 in Paris when Grete Waitz finished 44 seconds ahead of the runner-up, Irina Bondarchuk of the USSR. The best by a man was 33 seconds by Kenenisa Bekele in the 2001 junior men's race. John Ngugi (KEN) won the 1989 senior men's race by 28 seconds, while the biggest winning margin in the junior women's race was 27 seconds by Gelete Burka (ETH) in 2005.

The closest finish was in the 1973 men's race when Pekka Päivärinta (FIN) finished just one tenth ahead of Mariano Haro (ESP), 35:46.4 to 35:46.5. The result of that race was recorded in tenths of a second, but in four later races the first three all shared the same time to the nearest second; the 1983 men's, the 2000 women's short course and the junior women's in 2001.

The only athlete to have competed in nine editions of the short course race (all but the final staging in 2006) is Helen Clitheroe (née Pattinson) (GBR). Her record: 98-46, 99-39, 2000-34, 2001-35, 2002-22, 2003-31, 2004-19, 2005-57.

Successful twins have included Grenville & Graham Tuck (ENG), Dionisio & Domingos Castro (POR), Ann Ford & Paula Fudge (Née Yeoman, ENG) and Angela & Susan Tooby (GBR). The Tucks won a total of five team medals including two golds. Domingos Castro competed in 18 championships and won three team medals. Ford and Fudge won six team medals and placed 13th & 14th respectively in 1982, with Ann having finished fourth in 1974 & 1976. The Toobys each won team silvers in the 1988 women's race, where individually, Angela placed second and Susan 16th.

Kenya and Ethiopia are far and away the most successful countries in the history of the world championships, winning 103 of the 142 available team titles. The two countries have met 104 times, with Kenya beating Ethiopia 66-38.

These totals have been revised to include a number of previously unreported non-finishers. Similarly athletes who may have appeared on results as non-starters have now been excluded from totals. In 1998-2003, it was possible for juniors to start in both junior and senior races, so the sum of the rightmost four columns will give a total greater than the number of actual athletes competing in those years. From 2004, the IAAF ruled that junior athletes may compete in one race only, which was also the case up to 1997 and from 2007 when all races were staged on one day.

THE INTERNATIONAL CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

The first International Cross Country Championships in Scotland in 1903 were organised by the International Cross Country Union and contested by the four British "home" countries. France were the first overseas country to compete in 1907, followed by Belgium in 1923 and Italy, Luxembourg, Spain and Switzerland in 1929, Holland in 1950 and Yugoslavia in 1953. Northern Ireland and the Irish Republic first entered separate teams in the same championships in 1938, although All-Ireland teams were entered in some subsequent championships. The first African country to enter was Tunisia in 1958. A junior men's championship was introduced in 1961, though an unofficial junior race had been held in 1940. Eight unofficial women's international matches were held between 1931 and 1957 prior to the formal recognition as a championship event in 1967.

GREAT BRITAIN & NORTHERN IRELAND AT THE INTERNATIONAL CROSS COUNTRY & WORLD CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

The following index shows performances of all runners to have competed for England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales or (from 1988) Great Britain & NI at the International Cross Country Championships 1903-1972 and the IAAF World Cross Country Championships 1973-2007. The former were organised by the International Cross Country Union. In 1973 the IAAF took charge of the championships.

The first ICCU Junior race was staged in 1961 with the first official women's race coming in 1967. A thorough research of the the history of this event has been going on for many years and this is the first time many of these names have been published. All finishers have now been found but my aim is to trace every participant (i.e. non-finishers) in these races and also the unofficial junior races of 1940 and women's races in 1931/32/35/38/54-57/70 even though they are not covered by this particular compilation.

Compiled by Tomas Magnusson (tomtytom@bluewin.ch) – to whom any amendments should be sent – with thanks to Hamish Thomson, Norbert Lutzi and others who have helped with this project.

The following data are given for each athlete:

Name
 Birthdate or birthyear (where known)
 Number of medals won
 Number of championships contested

Below the athlete's name, each of their world cross country performances is listed on a different line, giving the year, country represented (ENG, GBR, NIR, SCO or WAL), age on the day of the performance, race category, individual place and team place, denoted by the letter "T". Medals won are shown by a symbol to the left of the individual or team placing. We are showing non-scorers as team medallists though additional medals for such contestants were not awarded until 1984.

MS = Men's short course race
 ML = Men's long course race (and main race before 1998 & after 2006)
 MJ = Junior men's race
 WS = Women's short course race
 WL = Women's long course race (and main race before 1998 & after 2006)
 WJ = Junior women's race

★ = gold medal
 ■ = silver or bronze medal

Among women Joyce Smith has the most medals with 10 in 1967-1978. During the IAAF era the most prolific British medallists have been Bernie Ford and Paula Radcliffe with eight each. The most championships contested by a British athlete is 15 by Tony Simmons and Jean Lochhead. In IAAF years only the most appearances is 12 by Nat Muir and Dave Clarke and 11 by Radcliffe. Kathy Butler has competed in 15 IAAF World Cross Country Championships, though the first eight of these were for Canada.
