Vážené dámy, vážení páni, milí športoví priatelia

dovoľte mi privítať Vás na už 23. ročníku Memoriálu Ondreja Nepelu, ktorý si vybudoval rešpekt na medzinárodnej mape krasokorčuliarskych podujatí. Silné zastúpenie zo zahraničia napovedá, organizátorom sa podarilo vytvoriť atraktívne prostredie, ktoré umožňujú vymeniť si skúsenosti a porovnať kvalitu výchovy jednotlivých krasokorčuliarskych škôl.

Organizácia tohto športového podujatia je to dôkaz toho, že Bratislava je dynamickou metropolou, ktorá vytvára podmienky na realizáciu amatérskeho ako aj profesionálneho športu. Jednou z hlavných športovo - kultúrnych úloh hlavného mesta je vytvárať podmienky pre mládež, aby mala možnosť nielen športovo napredovať, ale aj v silnej medzinárodnej konkurencii získavať skúsenosti. Bez porovnávania a súťaženia na medzinárodnej športovej scéne nie je možné sa posúvať k ďalším úspechom. Takýto druh podujatí vytvára tlak na kvalitu a preto nevyklúčujem, že medzi účastníkmi Memoriálu Ondreja Nepelu uvidíme budúcich majstrov sveta, či olympijských víťazov.

Bratislava je známa vyspelou krasokorčuliarskou školou a opiera sa o mená, ktoré v minulosti rezonovali na svetovej a olympijskej scéne. Mená ako Karol Divín, Ondrej Nepela, Jozef Sabovčík, či športová dvojica Suchánková – Doležal dosiahli významné športové úspechy, ktorými dôstojne reprezentovali mesto a krajinu v zahraničí. Ich športové a ľudské kvality sú dodnes inšpiráciou pre ďalšie generácie mladých krasokorčuliarov, ktorí sa snažia k ich úspechom priblížiť. Samozrejme pri tom nemožno zabudnúť na silné trénerské osobnosti, ktoré sa starali alebo starajú o výkonnostný rast nastupujúcich generácií. Mená ako H. Múdra, L. Lojkovičová, A. Bůřilová, K. Tináková, L. Dráhová, V. Fabian - rezonujú v medzinárodnom krasokorčuliarskom prostredí. Aj preto sa už dnes môžeme tešiť na to, že o rok bude Bratislava organizovať významné športové podujatie a tým sú Majstrovstvá Európy dospelých v krasokorčuľovaní.

Vážené dámy, vážení páni, milí športoví hostia podujatiu a organizátorom želim úspešný príbeh. Verím, že potvrdí úspešnú tradíciu vysoko profesionálnej organizácie podujatia a odprezentujú Bratislavu ako mesto s dynamickým životom, zaujímavou históriou a príjemnou prítomnosťou. Zúčastneným želim úspešné športové výkony, aby mohli s pozitívnou emóciou spomínať na naše hlavné mesto, kde zavítali v rámci svojej úspešnej športovej kariéry. A všetkým členom delegácií zážitky, ktoré v nich podnietia záujem sa ešte raz vrátiť do Bratislavy.

BRATISLAVA

Ladies and Gentlemen, Sports Friends,

Welcome to the 23rd Ondrej Nepela Memorial Trophy, an event which has earned its respected place on the international map of figure skating events. Strong foreign participants' presence suggests that the organizers have been able to create an attractive environment facilitating experience sharing and comparison of education quality delivered in individual figure skating schools.

The organization of this sporting event proves that Bratislava is a dynamic capital offering conditions conducive to amateur and professional sports activities. One of the main tasks of a capital city in sports and culture is creating conditions for youth to achieve progress in sports and to gain experience in strong international competition. Without comparing and competing in the international sports arena it is impossible to move ahead to new achievements. It is this kind of events, which generates pressure on quality, and, therefore, we may not exclude the possibility of seeing a future world or Olympic champion among the participants in Ondrej Nepela Memorial Trophy.

Bratislava is known for its advanced figure skating school and the city builds on names, which left their mark on the world and Olympic scene in the past. Figure skaters like Karol Divín, Ondrej Nepela, Jozef Sabovčík and the Suchánková - Doležal pair achieved great success in this sport and represented the city and the country abroad with great distinction. Their sporting and human qualities continue to inspire many generations of young figure skaters who try to catch up with their achievements. In this context, one should never forget strong coaches who have been responsible for raising future generations. Names such as H. Múdra, L. Lojkovičová, A. Bůřilová, K. Tináková, L. Dráhová, V. Fabian – are also known in the international figure skating community. This is why we may already now look forward to having Bratislava organize another major sporting event, namely, the European Figure Skating Championships next year.

Ladies and Gentlemen, Sports Guests,

I wish the event and the organizers every success. I am confident that once again, they will make this event a success and show you Bratislava as a vibrant city with an interesting history and pleasant atmosphere today. I wish the participants every success in this competition so that when recalling their visit to our capital city during their successful sporting career they will have only the best memories of it. I wish all delegation members impressions and experience, which will make you come back to Bratislava.

Ivo Nesrovnal

Mayor of Bratislava

Ladies and Gentleman, dear figure skating family,

On behalf of the organizing committee, allow me to welcome you in Bratislava at the 23rd International Figure Skating Competition – The Ondrej Nepela Trophy, named after the best known Slovak figure skater, multiple European and World Champion, Winter Olympic Games Winner.

Thanks to the International Skating Union, we are very proud to present another Ondrej Nepela Trophy, as the part of the ISU Challenge Series.

Although each competition is special for us, this Ondrej Nepela Trophy is going to be very special, as it will be, for many of you, rehearsal before 2016 European Figure Skating Championships in Bratislava. Thus we are greatly pleased to have you - best European and best World skaters in our town.

We appreciate much and would like to express our thanks to all of you, who participate and help to make this event successful. The International Skating Union, the Mayor of Bratislava, Mr. Ivo Nesrovnal, the Slovak Figure Skating Association, to name a few, as well as to all the sponsors, supporters, volunteers and friends.

We are looking forward to seeing you, the figure skaters/the athletes, skating and performing to the best of your abilities. We certainly hope, that the long hours you have spent on and off the ice each and every day, will pay off, and after leaving Bratislava, you will have the fondest memories of a job well done. For that and for the whole season we wish you best of luck!

Ondrej Nepela

(January 22, 1951 in Bratislava, Slovakia – February 2, 1989 in Mannheim, Germany) was an Olympic gold medalist and three-time World champion Slovak figure skater who competed for Czechoslovakia in the late 1960s and early 1970s.

Career

Nepela began skating at age 7. He was coached by Hilda Múdra. His first major international competition, at age 13, was the 1964 Winter Olympics; he finished 22nd. He went on to win five the European Figure Skating Championships five times between 1969 to 1973; the World Figure Skating Championships in 1971, 1972, and 1973; and the 1972 Winter Olympics. Nepela wanted to retire from competition after the 1972 season, but agreed to continue one more year because the 1973 World Figure Skating Championships were to be held in his home town of Bratislava.

In his second autobiography, Toller Cranston details a sexual tryst between himself and Nepela at 1973 World Championships.[1] Cranston was distracted and affected by their sexual affair and placed 5th while Nepela won the event and even earned a 6.0 during his free skate.

Following his amateur skating career, Nepela toured for 13 years as a soloist with Holiday on Ice. He then established himself as a coach in Germany. He coached Claudia Leistner to her European title in 1989.

Nepela died of AIDS-related complications in 1989, at the age of 38. Since 1993, the Slovak Figure Skating Association has held a competition each fall called the Ondrej Nepela Memorial. In December 2000, the Slovak Republic named him Slovakian athlete of the century.

His former coach, Mudra, received the award on his behalf.

Region

Welcome to Bratislava. Ours is an old city, but one of Europe's newest capitals. As we hope you will see, it is big enough to have everything a visitor might want, but small enough to remain welcoming and unpretentious. Bratislava became a capital city when Slovakia became independent, in 1993. It has rapidly acquired the top-class hotels, restaurants and tourist facilities that reflect its status. But the town's history goes back centuries, to pre-Roman times. Successive waves of development as a major trading centre and, for almost 300 years, as the coronation city for the kings and queens of Hungary have blessed us with a fascinating blend of architecture and public spaces. The intimate old town, overlooked by the castle, is criss-crossed with narrow, traffic-free lanes and studded with mediaeval churches, Baroque palaces, small shops and fine cafes, bars and restaurants. At its centre is the beautiful Old Town Square. Nearby, the unique

New Bridge, built in the 1970s with its distinctive 'UFO' tower, spans the Danube River. On the right bank is central Europe's oldest public park, Sad Janka Kralka, and next to it one of Bratislava's several modern shopping centres, Aupark. The city has a strong artistic tradition, with regular concert and opera performances at the Slovak National Theatre, and several outstanding galleries. Beyond the centre, Bratislava's superb position on the banks of the Danube and below the forested slopes of the Small Carpathian hills means a walk in the woods or a bicycle ride along the river are never more than a few minutes away. Only slightly further afield are the wine towns of the Small Carpathians. But any restaurant in the city will offer a range of local products, the fruit of our region's centuries-old winemaking tradition. Bratislava is a safe, reasonably-priced destination that more and more visitors are now discovering. We look forward to welcoming you too. Enjoy your stay!

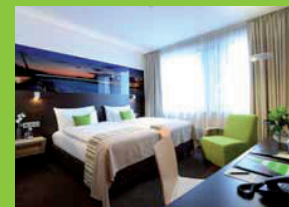

Venue

A fully air-conditioned and heated ice rink of the size of 60 m by 28m – the new Ondrej Nepela Arena offers a comfortable auditorium with 10,000 seats and convenient social and sanitary facilities, including the equipment for the disabled who can easily enter the auditorium on wheelchairs. Visitors can be served in 2 restaurant (WiFi cable) and 4 cafeterias. 15 skyboxes have .This complex have got 2 practice ice rinks hall B 28 x 58 and hall A 26 x 56m. This complex was opening 10th of April 2011. Temperature in center ice rink : air +15°C, ice –5°C.

Climate

The average outside temperature during the period concerned is +20° Celsius at day and +8° Celsius at night.
