Reaching Out and Building Relations

In 1999, the UUSO was first formed as an independent organization committed to building positive relations between the Unitarian Universalist Association and the Boy Scouts of America. Today, the UUSO is a recognized participant on the BSA Relationships Committee.

A Unitarian Universalist religious emblem, Living Your Religion, was developed by the UUSO and approved by the BSA in 2005. This award is designed for Boy Scout ages 11-17. A Cub Scout award and an adult award are currently being developed.

Program packets are available at www.uuscouters.org.

UUSO Dues

Annual dues for the Unitarian Universalist Scouters Organization are only $25 per year for an individual, family, or organization. Dues help fund our mission, as well as pay for creation and distribution of materials.

Help Create the Future of the UUSO

We are a welcoming organization committed to promoting and supporting both Boy Scout values and Unitarian Universalist principles. You can help build our future by joining the UUSO. In the next few years, we hope to:

- ✦ Create and administer a set of religious awards serving all program areas including Boy Scout, Cub Scout, Venturing, and adults.
- ✦ Enhance our www.uuscouters.org web site and other materials.
- ✦ Promote UU activities at Boy Scouting events and training sessions.
- ✦ Distribute Scouting information to UU churches and fellowships.
- ✦ Develop more BSA units chartered with Unitarian Universalist churches and fellowships.
- ✦ Develop UU materials for use in unit "Scout's Own" services.
- ✦ Encourage UU Scouters to join the UUSO and support its programs.
