

THE REAL ESTATE FIELD

$1,000,000 Paid for Small Broadway and 34th Street Corner—Higgins & Seiter to Leave 22d for 36th Street Locality Near Fifth Avenue—Half Block Deal on Amsterdam Avenue.

A million-dollar deal in Broadway, which establishes a new high record for New York City real estate, was the interesting feature in the realty market yesterday. The property includes the small corner parcel adjoining Macy's at Broadway and Thirty-fourth Street, fronting 31.10 feet on Broadway, 50.6 feet on Thirty-fourth Street, and irregular. The total area is under 1,200 square feet, making the sale price average about $868 a square foot. It was sold by R. Smith of the Twenty-third Street cloak and suit firm. It was this corner that Macy's tried hard to get when the present big department store was erected, but the price then was regarded as prohibitive.

The coming removal of the china and glass firm of Higgins & Seiter from their present quarters in Twenty-second Street, near Sixth Avenue, to the upper Fifth Avenue district, was announced in a long lease that has been practically concluded by the firm for large space in two lofts, one in Thirty-sixth and the other in Thirty-seventh Street. In the building at 19 and 21 West Thirty-sixth Street, the basement and first three floors have been leased from George Neiman, as agent, and in the building at 22 and 26 West Thirty-seventh Street, the basement and first floor have been leased from Julius Sternfeld.

The buildings abut, but are not yet connected. Arrangements are being made to connect the floors to be occupied by Higgins & Seiter. A private elevator will be installed in the three floors of the Thirty-sixth Street building. The firm will take possession about March 1. Both leases are for twenty-one years, at an aggregate rental of $550,000. The entire transaction was negotiated by N. Brigham Hall and William D. Bloodgood. Higgins & Seiter have been in Twenty-second Street about twenty-five years.

This lease illustrates the tendency among the old established retail firms that have hitherto remained in their downtown localities to move further up into the shopping centre. Only the preceding day the coming removal of Horner & Co., the furniture firm which has been in Twenty-third Street for about twenty-five years, to the new building at 20 to 26 West Thirty-sixth Street, opposite the one to be occupied by Higgins & Seiter, was announced.

Sells West Side Apartment.

The property is Columbia College leasehold and has been in the hands of the present owners for several generations. Before the present buildings were erected the present seller, Catherine Syms, was born on this property.

An East Sixty-fourth St. Deal.

An important transaction on the upper east side was announced yesterday by Horace S. Ely & Co., who sold for Mrs. Jane Sanders and Mrs. Katherine S. Rose a plot of five lots on the south side of Sixty-fourth Street, between First and Second Avenues. The Kalt Lumber Company is the buyer. There has been considerable activity on this street during the past twelve months, the above mentioned firm of brokers having disposed of seventeen lots for mercantile purposes.

Rumored Sale in Lenox Block.

It was rumored yesterday that one of the vacant plots in the old Lenox Library block has been sold for early improvement with a high-class private house. The plot is said to be at 10 East Seventy-first Street, between the Auchincloss house and the two new dwellings recently erected by C. W. Luyster. C. P. H. Gilbert, the architect, admitted that he was preparing plans for the projected dwelling.

This plot, which was reported sold several months ago to a syndicate of investors, was held at $225,000. It is understood that the buyer will erect a two-story taxpayer on the site.

The adjoining corner on Seventy-fifth Street, similar in size, was recently leased by the same estate for a long term of years to Burr & Co., carriage builders, who will alter the present five-story structure on the plot for their own use.

The Ponce Realty Company has purchased from the Crown Heights Realty Company the four four-story dwellings at 372, 376, 378, and 382 Montgomery Street, near Rogers Avenue. The buyers gave in part payment a plot 80 by 110 on the easterly side of Ocean Avenue, north of Lincoln Road, and a plot on the westerly side of Flatbush Avenue, with 103 foot frontage, just north of Foster Avenue. The Ocean Avenue plot will be improved with high-class apartments. Colson & Flandreau were the brokers in the transaction.
