NOTES

Each of the first three Governors was styled "Governor and Commander-in-Chief", but this title was altered in the case of Colonel Robe and Sir H.E.F. Young to "Lieutenant-Governor", and again altered to "Captain-General" and "Governor-in-Chief" in the persons of Sir Richard MacDonnell and Sir Dominick Daly; after which time it reverted to the firstnamed style and title until 1901. (See e.g., Parliamentary Paper No. 16 of 1869-70, and Letters Patent, April 28, 1877). But after the establishment of Federation and appointment of a "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth", the holder of the local office is simply "Governor".

GOVERNORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

In connection with the appointments of Colonel Robe and Sir Henry Young as Lieutenant-Governors, it is interesting to note the following:- On 31 December 1850, Sir Charles Augustus Fitzroy, the then Governor of New South Wales, who was also Governor-General of all H.M. Australian Possessions, was appointed by the Queen's Commission Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of South Australia and of Van Dieman's Land, Sir H.E.F. Young being, by another Royal Commission of same date, "re-constituted and re-appointed" as Lieutenant-Governor of this province, and to act as such in case of the death or absence out of South Australia of Sir C. A. Fitzroy. Sir H.E.F. Young had been first appointed Lieutenant-Governor on June 8, 1847. (See Gazette, July 5, 1851). Sir Charles Fitzroy's successor, Sir William Thomas Denison, was "Governor-General of H.M. Colonies of New South Wales, Tasmania, Victoria, South Australia and Western Australia". These were the only two New South Wales Governors on whom this extra-provincial office was conferred. (See Greville's Year Book of Australia.)

Until 1858 a Commission from the Crown, to administer the Government in the absence of the Governor or in the event of there being no Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, was held by the Senior Member of the Executive Council. From that year until 1873 a dormant Commission issued in favour of the Officer locally commanding H.M. Forces, or other officer to be appointed by the Major-General commanding the troops in Australia (P.P. 39 of 1863), and from 1873 to the Chief Justice for the time being or Senior Judge (P.P. 35 of 1875, etc., re-affirmed in 1900 P.P. 118 of 1901), though in 1860 Sir Charles Cooper (who was at the time Chief Justice) was appointed, by name, to be Administrator in the event of the death or absence of the Governor (P.P. 139 of 1860). It was on January 9, 1891, that a Commission was issued to Chief Justice Way, by name, as Lieutenant-Governor (P.P. 37 of 1891), and re-affirmed October 29, 1901 (P.P. 117 of 1901).

For appointment of Chief Justice Murray as Lieutenant-Governor, see P.P. 37 of 1916. For appointment of Acting Chief Justice Poole as Administrator (April 9 to November 22, 1925) in absence of Lieutenant-Governor, see Proclamation Government Gazette, April 9, 1925.

Letters Patent constituting the office of Governor amended January 10, 1938, to enable the Governor to appoint the Lieutenant-Governor, or in the event of there being no such officer or if he is absent or unable to act, then any other person to be his deputy during the Governor's absence or illness.

Upon the proclamation of the Australia Act 1986 (C'wlth), Letters Patent dated February 14, 1986, revoked all existing Letters Patent and made provisions in relation to the office of Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Administrator and Governor's Deputy. Subsequently, an Order in Council by the Governor of the State of South Australia (see Government Gazette, 25 October 2001), made new provisions in relation to the office of Lieutenant-Governor of the State of South Australia and for persons appointed to administer the government of the State.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, 1857-2007

TABLE M

Alphabetical List of Members of the Legislative Council from 1857 (Year of First Parliament) to April 24, 2007, showing their Years of Membership and the Constituencies for which they were Returned(For greater detail see Tables F to K)

Note - Members were elected by the whole Province as one constituency until after the passing of Act No. 236 of 1881, which divided the Province into four electoral districts. The constitution of these districts was affected by Acts Nos. 278 of 1882, 450 of 1888, 779 of 1901, and 959 of 1908, by which the North-Eastern District was re-named the Midland District, and the present law is the Constitution Act 1934. From 1975, pursuant to Act No. 52 of 1973, the State comprised a single Legislative Council electoral district and therefore Members elected on and after that year, and Members who had not retired, represented the State as a whole.

(See also Constitution (Quinquennial Parliament) Act, 1933)

- after the date denotes that the Member was holding his/her seat on or up to April 24, 2007

* Denotes that the Member also served in the House of Assembly.

MINISTER ASSISTING THE MINISTER OF STATE DEVELOPMENT

Lynn Maurice Ferguson Arnold 1985

There has only once been a Solicitor-General, viz. John Tuthill Bagot, 1857, and he without salary.

Prior to the Act No. 959 of 1908 three honorary members only had been appointed to the Executive Council, viz., John Tuthill Bagot, 1857, Henry Ayers, 1863, Allan Campbell, 1889.

The office of Attorney-General has been held by four gentlemen not being members of either House of Parliament, viz., by Henry Gawler, October 8 to 17, 1861, and March 21 to 25, 1876, and by Frederick Foote Turner, March 31 to May 2, 1890, each gentleman being at the time Solicitor to the Lands Titles Office; by Louis von Doussa, solicitor, who was appointed on December 2, 1903, while not a Member of Parliament but was elected to the Legislative Council on December 14, following; and by James Robert Anderson, solicitor, March 1 to July 26, 1905.

The Sixth Minister Act, No. 5 of 1873, was repealed by the Constitution Act Amendment Act, No. 779 of 1901, which reduced the number of Ministers to four. By Act No. 959 of 1908 the number was restored to six, one of whom was honorary until Act No. 1492 of 1921 came into operation.

By the Constitution Act Amendment Act No. 28 of 1953, the number of Ministers was increased to eight.

By the Constitution Act Amendment Act No. 17 of 1965, the number of Ministers was increased to nine.

By the Constitution Act Amendment Act No. 33 of 1970, the number of Ministers was increased to ten.

By the Constitution Act Amendment Act No. 31 of 1973, the number of Ministers was increased to eleven.

By the Constitution Act Amendment Act No. 68 of 1975, the number of Ministers was increased to twelve.

By the Constitution Act Amendment Act No. 64 of 1978, the number of Ministers was increased to thirteen.

By the Statutes Amendment (Ministers of the Crown) Act No. 69 of 1997, the number of Ministers was increased to fifteen.
