Welcome Message from the President of European Athletics

I am very pleased to welcome everyone to the Berlin 2018 European Athletics Championships, the 24th edition of the most important continental competition of our sport.

Every European Athletics Championships is special. It is one of the biggest events on the sporting calendar of that particular year and a showcase for the top stars of our sport as well as traditionally being a stage where new names come to the fore in international competition for the first time.

This year's Championships will be different, though, and perhaps has an even more historic place than its predecessors as, for the first time, we have joined forces with the federations of six other major sports and created the inaugural multisport European Championships with Glasgow being the co-host with Berlin.

Approximately 1,500 athletes will be in action here in the German capital – it is possible that the record 1469 competitors in Amsterdam two years ago will be topped, which is a far cry from the 226 competitors at the first European Athletics Championships in 1934 – and another 3,000 men and women will travel to Scotland to contest the six sports being staged there.

In simple terms, I believe a new era in sport gets underway with these multisport European Championships and athletics has a pivotal place in determining and directing the future of sport in Europe.

With a potential television audience of more than one billion across Europe set to watch the European Championships action via free-to-air coverage, Berlin and Glasgow has a unique opportunity to excite and thrill both committed sports fans and the public at large across 11 days of world-class competition.

The European Athletics Championships takes place during the six days at the end of this schedule and capacity crowds are expected in the Berlin Olympic Stadium and on the streets of this great city for the out-of-stadia events.

With the greatest respect to the hosts of the previous editions of this championship who, without exception, did a magnificent job – I have the feeling that we will witness the greatest-ever European Athletics Championships here in Berlin.

The organisation has been outstanding, we know that Germany has some of the most enthusiastic athletics fans anywhere in the world let alone Europe, the stadium ranks as one of the best in the world and Berlin is one of the world's great cities and a stunning backdrop to this competition.

The IAAF World Championships here in 2009 have become one of the most fondly remembered global championships of our sport for so many different reasons – and this gives me a chance to say, "Welcome back, Berlino!" – and I believe we will look back on these Championships with similar memories and emotions.

European Athletics would like to say a very big thank you to the Deutscher Leichtathletik-Verband (German athletics federation), the Berlin 2018 Local Organising Committee the City of Berlin and regional public authorities as well as our sponsors, and all the officials and volunteers involved with the Championships for their hard work, commitment and enthusiasm.

Welcome Message from the LOC President

Ladies and Gentlemen, distinguished guests from Europe,

As President of the Organising Committee Berlin 2018, it is my great pleasure to welcome all athletes as well as representatives from politics, economy, culture, sports, society and media to the German capital. Berlin will once again present itself as outstanding host city in the world of sports. Without a doubt, our 3,000 volunteers contribute significantly to the European Athletics Championships. Without them, such a major sports event would not be possible. I would like to express my sincerest gratitude in advance to all our voluntary helpers for their tireless commitment.

For the first time this year the European Athletics Championships are part of the European Championships, a multi-sport event, that features six further sports (Aquatics, Gymnastics, Rowing, Triathlon, Cycling and Golf) and takes place 2 – 12 August in Glasgow. This concept aims to put the summer sports more into focus and I am convinced that all partaking sports will benefit from this pooling initiative. ARD and ZDF report daily from Glasgow and Berlin, the prime time from 18:30 to 22:00 is reserved for athletics. A TV audience share of up to a billion is possible.

As another innovation, the victory ceremonies of Berlin 2018 will be held at the Breitscheidplatz in the heart of the City West. The European Mile, funded by the European Union, will be dedicated to the topics physical activity and health. In our present time, it is crucial to innovate and improve athletics further to not let football completely take over the sports world.

The German athletes competing for a very big team will be welcoming friends from all over Europe and fight for seven days for titles and triumphs. The Organising Committee Berlin 2018 has done its utmost to provide the participants with ideal conditions for athletic excellence. Let us all look forward to wonderful sports days with outstanding performances and top-class athletics. I wish all visitors and athletes an unforgettable time in Berlin and in one of the most beautiful athletics stadiums of the world. Enjoy yourselves and have a great time in the heart of Europe.

Dr. Clemens Prokop

President of the Local Organising Committee Berlin 2018
