

CHICAGO, July 19.—Eppa Rixey, a Virginia recruit, "had everything in the pitching line to-day," and Chicago was shut out by Philadelphia, 4 to 0. Rixey allowed the locals three hits, two of which were singles in the ninth inning. In one inning, after walking a man, he struck out the next three batsmen. The Chicago team alleged that the Philadelphia team was smearing the ball with liniment. Manager Dooin got into an altercation over the subject with Umpire Rigler and was sent to the clubhouse. The score:

FOREIGN MOTOR PILOTS HERE

Barrayre and Coste to be Seen in Distance Contests at Brighton Beach.

With the arrival this morning of two motor cycle pilots of international reputation, Alphonse Barrayre of Canada and Eugene Coste, a French champion, the racing game at the Stadium Motordrome at Brighton Beach, promises to take on a new aspect, as from this evening on they will be arrayed against the best men of the East. How the latter will shape up with the team who have been racing over the border will probably be viewed with interest by local followers of the game who fancy that such men as Chapple, Albright, Cox, Wray, and Costello, the most recent acquisition to the professional ranks, are the best in the sport.

Eleven events are carded for decision to-night, with the Albright-Wray match as one of the features. This series is expected to whet the appetites of the "fans" for the thirty-mile race to-morrow night, which will have, if the referee, Happy Days Pitman allows it, eight men in competition.

It is said that such a number on the track at one time will tend to make the sport too dangerous, but the riders have requested him not to interfere, as the more men there are on the saucer the more careful they are. They also assert that there are better opportunities for pacing when men are spread all over the track.
