

THOMAS D. CROSS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, HEARST
PRESIDENT, HEARST TRANSPORTATION

Thomas D. Cross is a senior vice president of Hearst and the president and group head of Hearst Transportation, which includes aviation and automotive data and software companies CAMP Systems International, Black Book, MOTOR Information Systems and Noregon Systems.

The mission of Hearst Transportation is to provide business-critical information and services that advance transportation uptime.

Cross has held a variety of senior leadership positions across Hearst's transportation businesses for over two decades, including serving as executive vice president of Hearst Transportation, president of Black Book and president of MOTOR Information Systems. He joined Hearst after a long career at Ford Motor Company, where he held senior positions in sales, customer service, marketing research and advanced product planning.

Cross was inducted into the National Independent Automobile Dealers Association (NIADA) Ring of Honor in 2013 and the National Auto Auction Association (NAAA) Hall of Fame in 2018. He holds a master's degree in business from the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business.
